THE MINISTRATION
OF PUBLIC
BAPTISM OF INFANTS,
TO BE USED IN THE CHURCH.

- ¶ The People are to be admonished, that it is most convenient that Baptism should not be administered but upon Sundays and other Holy-days, or Prayer-days. Nevertheless (if necessity so require) Baptism may be administered upon any other day.
- ¶ There shall be for every Male Child to be baptized, when they can be had, two God-fathers and one God-mother; and for every female, one God-father and two God-mothers; and Parents shall be admitted as Sponsors, if it be desired.
- ¶ When there are Children to be baptized, the Parents or Sponsors shall give knowledge thereof, before the beginning of Morning Prayer, to the Minister. And then the God-fathers and God-mothers, and the People with the Children, must be ready at the Font, either immediately after the last Lesson at Morning Prayer, or else immediately after the last Lesson at Evening Prayer, as the Minister, by his discretion, shall appoint. And the Minister coming to the Font (which is then to be filled with pure Water) and standing there, shall say, Hath this Child been already baptized or no ?

- ¶ If they answer, No ; then shall the Minister proceed as followeth.

DEARLY beloved, forasmuch as all men are conceived and born in sin; and our Saviour Christ saith, None can enter into the kingdom of God, except he be regenerate and born anew of Water and of the Holy Ghost; I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous mercy, he will grant to this Child that which by nature he cannot have ; that he may be baptized with Water and the Holy Ghost, and received into Christ's holy Church, and be made a living member of the same.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who, of thy great mercy, didst save Noah and his family in the Ark from perishing by water ; and also didst safely lead the children of Israel, thy people, through the Red Sea, figuring thereby thy holy Baptism ; and by the Baptism of thy well-beloved Son Jesus Christ in the river Jordan, didst sanctify water, to the mystical washing away of sin ; we beseech thee, for thine infinite mercies, that thou wilt mercifully look upon this Child ; wash him, and sanctify him with the Holy Ghost ; that he, being delivered from thy wrath, may be received into the Ark of Christ's Church ; and being steadfast in faith, joyful through hope, and rooted in charity, may so pass the waves of this troublesome world, that finally he may come to the land of everlasting life ; there to reign with thee, world without end, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Or this.

ALMIGHTY and immortal God, the aid of all who need, the helper of all who flee to thee for succour, the life of those who believe, and the resurrection of the dead ; we call upon thee for this Infant, that he, coming to thy holy Baptism, may receive remission of sin, by spiritual regeneration. Receive him, O Lord, as thou hast promised by thy well-beloved Son, saying, Ask, and ye shall have ; seek, and ye shall find ; knock, and it shall be opened unto you : So give now unto us who ask ; let us who seek, find ; open the gate unto us who knock ; that this Infant may enjoy the everlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal kingdom which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall say as follows: or else shall pass on to the questions addressed to the Sponsors; and from thence to the Prayer immediately before the Immersion, or the pouring of Water on the Infant. But note; that, in every Church, the intermediate parts of the Service shall be used, once at least in every month (if there be a Baptism) for the better instructing of the people in the Grounds of Infant Baptism.

Hear the words of the Gospel, written by Saint Mark, in the tenth chapter, at the thirteenth verse.

THEY brought young children to Christ, that he should touch them; and his disciples rebuked those who brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

¶ After the Gospel is read, the Minister shall make this brief Exhortation upon the words of the Gospel:

BELOVED, ye hear in this Gospel the words of our Saviour Christ, that he commanded the children to be brought unto him; how he blamed those who would have kept them from him; how he exhorteth all men to follow their innocency. Ye perceive how, by his outward gesture and deed, he declared his good will towards them: For he embraced them in his arms, he laid his hands upon them, and blessed them. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly believe, that he will likewise favourably receive this present Infant; that he will embrace him with the arms of his mercy; that he will give unto him the blessing of eternal life, and make him Partaker of his everlasting kingdom. Wherefore, we being thus persuaded of the good will of our heavenly Father towards this Infant, declared by his Son Jesus Christ; and nothing doubting, but that he favourably alloweth this charitable work of ours, in bringing this Infant to this holy Baptism; let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks unto him, and say,

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, heavenly Father, we give thee humble thanks, that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to this Infant; that he may be born again, and be made an heir of everlasting salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister speak unto the God-fathers and God-mothers in this wise:

DEARLY beloved, ye have brought this Child here to be baptized; ye have prayed that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive him, to release him from sin, to sanctify him with the Holy Ghost, to give him the kingdom of heaven and everlasting life. Ye have heard also that our Lord Jesus Christ hath promised, in his Gospel, to grant all these things that ye have prayed for; which promise, he for his part will most surely keep and perform. Wherefore, after this promise made by Christ, this Infant must also faithfully, for his part, promise by you that are his Sureties (until he come of age to take it upon himself) that he will renounce the devil and all his works, and constantly believe God's holy Word, and obediently keep his Commandments.

¶ The Minister shall then demand of the Sponsors as follows: the Questions being considered as addressed to them severally, and the answers to be made accordingly.

I demand therefore,

DOST thou, in the name of this Child, renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the sinful desires of the flesh; so that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

Ans. I renounce them all; and by God's help, will endeavour not to follow, nor be led by them.

Minis. Dost thou believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith, as contained in the Apostles' Creed?

Ans. I do.

Minis. Wilt thou be baptized in this Faith?

Ans. That is my desire.

Minis. Wilt thou then obediently keep God's holy will and Commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Ans. I will, by God's help.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

O MERCIFUL God, grant that the old Adam in this Child may be so buried, that the new man may be raised up in him. Amen.

Grant that all sinful affections may die in him, and that all things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in him. Amen.

Grant that he may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph against the devil, the world, and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that whosoever is here dedicated to thee by our office and ministry, may also be endued with heavenly virtues, and everlastingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who dost live and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

A LMIGHTY, everliving God, whose most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood; and gave commandment to his disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of thy congregation; sanctify this water to the mystical washing away of sin; and grant that this Child, now to be baptized therein, may receive the fulness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful children, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall take the Child into his hands, and shall say to the God-fathers and God-mothers, Name this Child.

¶ And then, naming it after them, he shall dip it in the Water discreetly, or shall pour Water upon it, saying,

N. I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall say,

WE receive this Child into the Congregation of Christ's Flock, and do *sign him with the sign of the Cross; in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified, and manfully to fight under his banner, against sin, the world, and the devil; and to continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant unto his life's end. Amen.

* Here the Minister shall make a Cross upon the Child's forehead.

¶ If those who present the Infant shall desire the sign of the Cross to be omitted, although the Church knows no worthy cause of scruple concerning the same, yet, in that case, the Minister may omit that part of the above which follows the Immersion, or the pouring of Water on the Infant.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

SEEING now, dearly beloved brethren, that this Child is regenerate, and grafted into the body of Christ's Church; let us give thanks unto Almighty God for these benefits, and with one accord make our prayers unto him, that this Child may lead the rest of his life according to this beginning.

¶ Then shall be said, all kneeling,

OUR Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy Will be done on Earth, as it is Heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

WE yield thee hearty thanks, most merciful Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this Infant with thy holy Spirit, to receive him for thine own Child by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. And humbly we beseech thee to grant, that he, being dead unto sin, and living unto righteousness, and being buried with Christ in his death, may crucify the old man, and utterly abolish the whole body of sin; and that as he is made Partaker of the Death of thy Son, he may also be Partaker of his Resurrection; so that finally, with the residue of thy holy Church, he may be an Inheritor of thine everlasting Kingdom, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then, all standing up, the Minister shall say to the God-fathers and God-mothers this Exhortation following:

FORASMUCH as this Child hath promised by you his Sureties, to renounce the devil and all his works, to believe in God, and to serve him; ye must remember, that it is your parts and duties to see that this Infant be taught, so soon as he shall be able to learn, what a solemn vow, promise, and profession he hath here made by you. And that he may know these things the better, ye shall call upon him to hear Sermons; and chiefly ye shall provide, that he may learn the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health; and that this Child may be virtuously brought up to lead a godly life: remembering always, that Baptism doth represent unto us our profession; which is, to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and to be made like unto him; that as he died, and rose again for us, so should we, who are baptized, die from sin, and rise again unto righteousness; continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all virtue and godliness of living.

¶ Then shall he add, and say,

YE are to take care that this Child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him, so soon as he can say the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and is sufficiently instructed in the other parts of the Church Catechism set forth for that purpose.

THE MINISTRATION

BAPTISM OF CHILDREN

IN HOUSES.

- ¶ The Minister of every Parish shall often admonish the People, that they defer not the Baptism of their Children longer than the first or second Sunday next after their birth, or other Holy-day falling between, unless upon a great and reasonable cause.
- ¶ And also they shall warn them, that, without like great cause and necessity they procure not their Children to be baptized at home in their houses. But when need shall compel them so to do, then Baptism shall be administered as followeth.
- ¶ First, let the Minister of the Parish (or, in his absence, any other lawful Minister that can be procured) with those who are present, call upon God, and say the Lord's Prayer, and so many of the Collects appointed to be said before in the Form of Public Baptism, as the time and present exigence will suffer. And then, the Child being named by some one who is present, the Minister shall pour water upon it, saying these words:

N I baptize thee in the name of the Father,
• and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall give thanks unto God, and say,

WE yield thee hearty thanks, most merciful Father, that it hath pleased thee to regenerate this Infant with thy holy Spirit, to receive him for thine own Child by adoption, and to incorporate him into thy holy Church. And humbly we beseech thee to grant, that he, being dead unto sin, and living unto righteousness, and being buried with Christ in his death, may crucify the old man, and utterly abolish the whole body of sin; and that as he is made Partaker of the Death of thy Son, he may also be Partaker of his Resurrection; so that finally, with the residue of thy Holy Church, he may be an Inheritor of thine everlasting Kingdom, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ And let them not doubt, but that the Child so baptized is lawfully and sufficiently baptized, and ought not to be baptized again. Yet nevertheless, if the Child which is after this sort baptized, do afterwards live, it is expedient that it be brought into the Church, to the intent that if the Minister of the same parish did himself baptize that Child, the Congregation may be certified of the true form of Baptism, by him privately before used.*

* The remaining part of this office which relates to the public acknowledgment in the church of the private baptism of infants, is of course here omitted.

Editor.

TO SUCH AS ARE OF RIPER YEARS,
AND ABLE TO ANSWER FOR THEMSELVES.

- ¶ When any such Persons as are of Riper Years are to be baptized, timely notice shall be given to the Minister; that so due care may be taken for their examination, whether they be sufficiently instructed in the Principles of the Christian Religion; and that they may be exhorted to prepare themselves, with prayers and fasting, for the receiving of this Holy Sacrament.
- ¶ And if they shall be found fit, then the God-fathers and God-mothers, (the People being assembled upon the Sunday, Holy Day, or Prayer Day appointed) shall be ready to present them at the Font, immediately after the Second Lesson, either at Morning or Evening Prayer, as the Minister, in his discretion, shall think fit.
- ¶ And standing there, the Minister shall ask, Whether any of the Persons here presented be baptized or no? If they shall answer, No; then shall the Minister say thus:

DEARLY beloved, forasmuch as all men are conceived and born in sin, (and that which is born of the flesh is flesh) and they who are in the flesh cannot please God, but live in sin, committing many actual transgressions; and our Saviour Christ saith, None can enter into the kingdom of God, except he be regenerate and born anew of Water and of the Holy Ghost; I beseech you to call upon God the Father, through our Lord Jesus Christ, that of his bounteous goodness he will grant to these Persons that which by nature they cannot have; that they may be baptized with Water and the Holy Ghost, and received into Christ's holy Church, and be made lively members of the same.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

Let us pray.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who, of thy great mercy, didst save Noah and his family in the Ark from perishing by water; and also didst safely lead the children of Israel, thy people, through the Red Sea, figuring thereby thy holy Baptism; and by the Baptism of thy well-beloved Son Jesus Christ in the river Jordan, didst sanctify the element of water, to the mystical washing away of sin; we beseech thee, for thine infinite mercies, that thou wilt mercifully look upon these thy Servants; wash them and sanctify them with the Holy Ghost; that they, being delivered from thy wrath, may be received into the Ark of Christ's Church; and being steadfast in faith, joyful through hope, and rooted in charity, may so pass the waves of this troublesome world, that finally they may come to the land of everlasting life; there to reign with thee, world without end, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Or this.

ALMIGHTY and immortal God, the aid of all who need, the helper of all who flee to thee for succour, the life of those who believe, and the resurrection of the dead; we call upon thee for these Persons, that they, coming to thy holy Baptism, may receive remission of their sins, by spiritual regeneration. Receive them, O Lord, as thou hast promised by thy well-beloved Son, saying, Ask, and ye shall receive; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: So give now unto us who ask; let us who seek, find; open the gate unto us who knock; that these Persons may enjoy the everlasting benediction of thy heavenly washing, and may come to the eternal kingdom which thou hast promised by Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall say,

Hear the words of the Gospel, written by Saint John, in the third chapter, beginning at the first verse:

THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a Teacher come from God; for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of Water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh, is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit, is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof; but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

¶ After which he shall say this Exhortation following:

BELOVED, ye hear in this Gospel the express words of our Saviour Christ, that, except a man be born of Water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Whereby ye may perceive the great necessity of this Sacrament, where it may be had. Likewise, immediately before his ascension into heaven, (as we read in the last chapter of Saint Mark's Gospel,) he gave command to his disciples, saying, Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature. He that believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned: Which also showeth unto us the great benefit we reap thereby. For which cause Saint Peter the Apostle, when upon his first preaching of the Gospel many were pricked at the heart, and said to him and the rest of the Apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? replied, and said unto them, Repent and be baptized every one of you, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost: For the promise is to you and your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. And with many other words exhorted he them, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation. For, as the same Apostle testifieth in another place, even Baptism doth also now save us, (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Doubt ye not therefore, but earnestly believe, that he will favourably receive these present Persons, truly repenting, and coming unto him by faith; that he will grant them remission of their sins, and bestow upon them the Holy Ghost; that he will give them the blessing of eternal life, and make them Partakers of his everlasting kingdom.

Wherefore, we being thus persuaded of the goodwill of our heavenly Father toward these Persons, declared by his Son Jesus Christ, let us faithfully and devoutly give thanks to him, and say,

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, heavenly Father, we give thee humble thanks, that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to these Persons, that they may be born again, and be made Heirs of everlasting salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall speak to the Persons to be baptized on this wise:

WELL-BELOVED, who are come hither desiring to receive holy Baptism, ye have heard how the Congregation hath prayed, that our Lord Jesus Christ would vouchsafe to receive you and bless you, to release you of your sins, to give you the kingdom of heaven and everlasting life. Ye have heard also that our Lord Jesus Christ hath promised in his holy Word, to grant all those things that we have prayed for; which promise he, for his part, will most surely keep and perform. Wherefore, after this promise made by Christ, ye must also faithfully, for your part, in the presence of these your Witnesses, and this whole Congregation, promise and answer to the following Questions:

¶ The Minister shall then demand of the Persons to be baptized as follows; the Questions being considered as addressed to them severally, and the Answers to be made accordingly.

Question.

DOST thou renounce the devil and all his works, the vain pomp and glory of the world, with all covetous desires of the same, and the sinful desires of the flesh; so that thou wilt not follow, nor be led by them?

Ans. I renounce them all; and, by God's help, will endeavour not to follow, nor be led by them.

Quest. Dost thou believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith, as contained in the Apostles' Creed?

Ans. I do.

Quest. Wilt thou be baptized in this Faith?

Ans. That is my desire.

Quest. Wilt thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments; and walk in the same all the days of thy life?

Ans. I will, by God's help.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

O Merciful God, grant that the old Adam in these Persons may be so buried, that the new man may be raised up in them. Amen.

Grant that all sinful affections may die in them, and that all things belonging to the Spirit may live and grow in them. Amen.

Grant that they may have power and strength to have victory, and to triumph against the devil, the world, and the flesh. Amen.

Grant that they, being here dedicated to thee by our Office and Ministry, may also be endued with heavenly virtues, and everlastingly rewarded, through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who dost live and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

ALMIGHTY, everliving God, whose most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of our sins, did shed out of his most precious side both water and blood; and gave commandment to his disciples, that they should go teach all nations, and baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; regard, we beseech thee, the supplications of thy Congregation; sanctify this water to the mystical washing away of sin; and grant that the Persons, now to be baptized therein, may receive the fulness of thy grace, and ever remain in the number of thy faithful children, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister take each Person to be baptized by the Right Hand; and placing him conveniently by the Font, according to his discretion, shall ask the God-fathers and God-mothers the name; and then shall dip him in the Water, or pour Water upon him, saying,

N. I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

WE receive this Person into the Congregation of Christ's Flock, and do *sign him with the sign of the cross; in token that hereafter he shall not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified, and manfully to fight under his banner, against sin, the world, and the devil; and to continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant unto his life's end. Amen.

* Here the Minister shall make a Cross upon the person's forehead.

¶ The same Rule, as to the Omission of the sign of the Cross, is to be observed here, as in the Baptism of Infants.

¶ Then the Minister shall say,

SEEING now, dearly beloved brethren, that these Persons are regenerate, and grafted into the body of Christ's Church; let us give thanks unto Almighty God for these benefits, and with one accord make our prayers unto him, that they may lead the rest of their life according to this beginning.

¶ Then shall be said the Lord's Prayer, all kneeling.

OUR Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy Will be done on Earth, as it is in Heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

WE yield thee humble thanks, O heavenly Father, that thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of thy grace, and faith in thee: Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give thy Holy Spirit to these Persons; that being now born again, and made Heirs of everlasting salvation, through our Lord Jesus Christ, they may continue thy Servants, and attain thy promises, through the same Lord Jesus Christ thy Son; who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Holy Spirit, everlastingly. Amen.

¶ Then, all standing up, the Minister shall use this Exhortation following; speaking to the God-fathers and God-mothers first.

FORASMUCH as these Persons have promised, in your presence, to renounce the devil and all his works, to believe in God, and to serve him; ye must remember, that it is your part and duty to put them in mind, what a solemn vow, promise, and profession they have now made before this Congregation, and especially before you their chosen Witnesses. And ye are also to call upon them to use all diligence to be rightly instructed in God's holy Word; that so they may grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ; and live godly, righteously, and soberly, in this present world.

¶ And then speaking to the baptized Persons, he shall proceed and say,

AND as for you, who have now by Baptism put on Christ, it is your part and duty also, being made the Children of God and of the light, by faith in Jesus Christ, to walk answerably to your Christian calling, and as becometh the children of light; remembering always, that Baptism representeth unto us our profession; which is, to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and to be made like unto him; that as he died, and rose again for us, so should we, who are baptized, die from sin, and rise again unto righteousness; continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all virtue and godliness of living.

¶ It is expedient that every Person thus baptized should be confirmed by the Bishop, so soon after his Baptism as conveniently may be; that so he may be admitted to the Holy Communion.

¶ Whereas necessity may require the baptizing of Adults in private houses, in consideration of extreme sickness; the same is hereby allowed in that case. And a convenient number of persons shall be assembled in the house where the Sacrament is to be performed. And in the Exhortation, Well-beloved, &c. instead of these words, come hither desiring, shall be inserted this word, desirous.

¶ If there be occasion for the office of Infant Baptism and that of Adults at the same time, the Minister shall use the Exhortation and one of the Prayers next following in the Office for Adults; only, in the Exhortation and prayer, after the words, these Persons, and these thy Servants, adding, and these Infants. Then the Minister shall proceed to the questions to be demanded in the cases respectively. After the immersion, or the pouring of water, the prayer shall be as in this service; only, after the words, these Persons, shall be added, and these Infants. After which the remaining part of each service shall be used; first that for Adults, and lastly that for Infants.

¶ If any persons, not baptized in their infancy, shall be brought to be baptized before they come to years of discretion to answer for themselves, it may suffice to use the Office for Public Baptism of Infants; or, in case of extreme danger, the Office for Private Baptism; only changing the word Infant, for Child, or Person, as occasion requireth.

MATRIMONY.

- ¶ The laws respecting Matrimony, whether by publishing the Banns in Churches, or by License, being different in the several States; every Minister is left to the direction of those Laws, in every thing that regards the civil contract between the Parties.
- ¶ And when the Banns are published, it shall be in the following form: — I publish the Banns of Marriage between M. of —, and N. of —. If any of you know cause or just impediment, why these two persons should not be joined together in holy Matrimony, ye are to declare it. [This is the first, second, or third time of asking.]
- ¶ At the day and time appointed for Solemnization of Matrimony, the Persons to be married shall come into the body of the Church, or shall be ready in some proper house, with their friends and neighbours; and there standing together, the Man on the right hand, and the Woman on the left, the Minister shall say,

DEARLY beloved, we are gathered together here in the sight of God, and in the face of this Company, to join together this Man and this Woman in holy Matrimony; which is commended of Saint Paul to be honourable among all men; and therefore is not by any to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly; but reverently, discreetly, advisedly, soberly, and in the fear of God. Into this holy estate, these two persons present come now to be joined. If any man can show just cause, why they may not lawfully be joined together, let him now speak, or else hereafter for ever hold his peace.

¶ And also speaking unto the Persons who are to be married, he shall say,

I REQUIRE and charge you both (as ye will answer at the dreadful day of judgment, when the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed) that if either of you know any impediment, why ye may not be lawfully joined together in Matrimony, ye do now confess it: For be ye well assured, that if any persons are joined together otherwise than as God's word doth allow, their marriage is not lawful.

¶ The Minister, if he shall have reason to doubt of the lawfulness of the proposed Marriage, may demand sufficient surety for his indemnification; but if no impediment shall be alleged, or suspected, the Minister shall say to the Man,

M. WILT thou have this Woman to thy wedded Wife, to live together after God's ordinance, in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honour, and keep her, in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all others, keep thee only unto her, so long as ye both shall live?

¶ The Man shall answer,

I will.

¶ Then shall the Minister say unto the Woman,

N. WILT thou have this Man to thy wedded Husband, to live together after God's ordinance, in the holy estate of Matrimony? Wilt thou obey him, and serve him, love, honour, and keep him, in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all others, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?

¶ The Woman shall answer,

I will.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

Who giveth this Woman to be married to this Man?

¶ Then shall they give their Troth to each other in this Manner:

¶ The Minister receiving the Woman at her Father's or Friend's Hands, shall cause the Man with his Right Hand to take the Woman by her Right Hand, and to say after him as followeth:

I M. take thee N. to my wedded Wife, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I plight thee my Troth.

¶ Then shall they loose their Hands, and the Woman with her Right Hand taking the Man by his Right Hand, shall likewise say after the Minister,

I N. take thee M. to my wedded Husband, to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love, cherish, and to obey, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I give thee my Troth.

¶ Then shall they again loose their Hands; and the Man shall give unto the Woman a Ring. And the Minister taking the Ring shall deliver it unto the Man, to put it upon the fourth finger of the Woman's Left Hand. And the Man holding the Ring there, and taught by the Minister, shall say,

WITH this Ring I thee wed, and with all my worldly goods I thee endow: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ Then the Man leaving the Ring upon the fourth Finger of the Woman's Left Hand, the Minister shall say,

Let us pray.

OUR Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy Will be done on Earth, as it is in Heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

O ETERNAL God, Creator and Preserver of all mankind, Giver of all spiritual grace, the Author of everlasting life; send thy blessing upon these thy servants, this man and this woman, whom we bless in thy Name; that as Isaac and Rebecca lived faithfully together, so these persons may surely perform and keep the vow and covenant betwixt them made, (whereof this Ring given and received is a token and pledge) and may ever remain in perfect love and peace together, and live according to thy laws, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister join their Right Hands together, and say,

Those whom God hath joined together, let no man put asunder.

¶ Then shall the Minister speak unto the Company:

FORASMUCH as M. and N. have consented together in holy Wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and thereto have given and pledged their Troth, each to the other, and have declared the same by giving and receiving a Ring, and by joining hands; I pronounce, that they are Man and Wife; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ And the Minister shall add this Blessing:

GOD the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Ghost, bless, preserve, and keep you: The Lord mercifully with his favour look upon you, and fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace; that ye may so live together in this life, that in the world to come ye may have life everlasting. Amen.

THE ORDER
FOR THE
VISITATION OF THE SICK.

¶ When any Person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the Minister of the Parish; who, coming into the sick Person's House, shall say,

PEACE be to this House, and to all that dwell in it.

¶ When he cometh into the sick Man's presence, he shall say, kneeling down,

REMEMBER not, Lord, our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our forefathers; Spare us, good Lord, spare thy people, whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood; and be not angry with us for ever.

Ans. Spare us, good Lord.

¶ Then the Minister shall say,

Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUR Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy Will be done on Earth, as it is in Heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minis. O Lord, save thy servant;

Ans. Who putteth his trust in thee.

Minis. Send him help from thy holy place ;

Ans. And evermore mightily defend him.

Minis. Let the enemy have no advantage of him ;

Ans. Nor the wicked approach to hurt him.

Minis. Be unto him, O Lord, a strong tower,

Ans. From the face of his enemy.

Minis. O Lord, hear our prayer ;

Ans. And let our cry come unto thee.

Minister.

O LORD, look down from Heaven, behold, visit, and relieve this thy servant. Look upon him with the eyes of thy mercy ; give him comfort and sure confidence in thee ; defend him from the danger of the enemy ; and keep him in perpetual peace and safety, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HEAR us, Almighty and most merciful God and Saviour : Extend thy accustomed goodness to this thy servant, who is grieved with sickness. Sanctify, we beseech thee, this thy fatherly correction to him ; that the sense of his weakness may add strength to his faith, and seriousness to his repentance : That if it shall be thy good pleasure to restore him to his former health, he may lead the residue of his life in thy fear, and to thy glory ; or else give him grace so to take thy visitation, that after this painful life ended, he may dwell with thee in life everlasting, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

† Then shall the Minister exhort the sick Person after this Form, or other like :

DEARLY beloved, know this, that Almighty God is the Lord of life and death, and of all things to them pertaining ; as youth, strength, health, age, weakness, and sickness. Wherefore, whatsoever your sickness be, know you certainly that it is God's visitation. And for what cause soever this sickness be sent unto you ; whether it be to try your patience for the example of others, and that your faith may be found, in the day of the Lord, laudable, glorious, and honourable, to the increase of glory and endless felicity; or else it be sent unto you to correct and amend in you whatsoever doth offend the eyes of your heavenly Father; know you certainly, that if you truly repent you of your sins, and bear your sickness patiently, trusting in God's mercy, for his dear Son Jesus Christ's sake, and render unto him humble thanks for his fatherly visitation, submitting yourself wholly unto his will, it shall turn to your profit, and help you forward in the right way that leadeth unto everlasting life.

¶ If the Person visited be very sick, then the Minister may end his Exhortation in this Place, or else proceed:

TAKE therefore in good part the chastisement of the Lord: For, as Saint Paul saith, in the twelfth chapter to the Hebrews, Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons: For what son is he whom the Father chasteneth not? But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us, and we gave them reverence; Shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live? For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness. These words, good brother, are written in holy Scripture, for our comfort and instruction; that we should patiently, and with thanksgiving, bear our heavenly Father's correction, whensoever, by any manner of adversity, it shall please his gracious goodness to visit us. And there should be no greater comfort to Christian persons, than to be made like unto Christ, by suffering patiently adversities, troubles, and sicknesses. For he himself went not up to joy, but first he suffered pain:

he entered not into his glory, before he was crucified. So truly our way to eternal joy, is to suffer here with Christ; and our door to enter into eternal life, is gladly to die with Christ; that we may rise again from death, and dwell with him in everlasting life. Now, therefore, taking your sickness, which is thus profitable for you, patiently, I exhort you in the name of God, to remember the profession which you made unto God in your Baptism. And forasmuch as after this life there is an account to be given unto the righteous Judge, by whom all must be judged, without respect of persons; I require you to examine yourself, and your estate, both toward God and man; so that, accusing and condemning yourself for your own faults, you may find mercy at our heavenly Father's hand for Christ's sake, and not be accused and condemned in that fearful judgment. Therefore I shall rehearse to you the Articles of our Faith; that you may know whether you do believe as a Christian man should, or no.

¶ Here the Minister shall rehearse the Articles of the Faith, saying thus:

DOST thou believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth?

And in Jesus Christ his only begotten Son our Lord? And that he was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; that he suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; that he went down into hell, and also did rise again the third day; that he ascended into Heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; and from thence shall come again at the end of the world, to judge the quick and the dead?

And dost thou believe in the Holy Ghost; The holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints; The Remission of sins; The Resurrection of the flesh; and everlasting life after death?

¶ The sick Person shall answer,

All this I steadfastly believe.

¶ Then shall the Minister examine, whether he repent him truly of his sins, and be in charity with all the world; exhorting him to forgive, from the bottom of his heart, all persons that have offended him; and if he hath offended any other, to ask them forgiveness; and where he hath done injury or wrong to any man, that he make amends to the uttermost of his power. And if he hath not before disposed of his goods, let him then be admonished to make his Will, and to declare his debts, what he oweth, and what is owing unto him, for the better discharging of his conscience, and the quietness of his Executors. But men should often be put in remembrance to take order for the settling of their temporal estates, whilst they are in health.

¶ The Exhortation before rehearsed may be said before the Minister begin his Prayer, as he shall see cause.

¶ The Minister shall not omit earnestly to move such sick persons as are of ability, to be liberal to the poor.

¶ And then the Minister shall say the Collect following.

Let us pray.

O MOST merciful God, who, according to the multitude of thy mercies, dost so put away the sins of those who truly repent, that thou rememberest them no more; open thine eye of mercy upon this thy servant, who most earnestly desireth pardon and forgiveness. Renew in him, most loving Father, whatsoever hath been decayed by the fraud and malice of the devil, or by his own carnal will and frailness; preserve and continue this sick member in the unity of the Church; consider his contrition, accept his tears, assuage his pain, as shall seem to thee most expedient for him. And forasmuch as he putteth his full trust only in thy mercy, impute not unto him his former sins, but strengthen him with thy blessed Spirit; and when thou art pleased to take him hence, take him unto thy favour, through the merits of thy most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say this Psalm:

Psalm 130. De Profundis.

OUT of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice.

O let thine ears consider well the voice of my complaint.

If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss; O Lord, who may abide it?

For there is mercy with thee; therefore shalt thou be feared.

I look for the Lord, my soul doth wait for him; in his word is my trust.

My soul fleeth unto the Lord, before the morning watch; I say, before the morning watch.

O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy; and with him is plenteous redemption.

And he shall redeem Israel from all his sins.

¶ Adding this:

O SAVIOUR of the world, who by thy Cross and precious Blood hast redeemed us; save us, and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

¶ Then shall the Minister say,

THE Almighty Lord, who is a most strong tower to all those who put their trust in him, to whom all things in heaven, in earth, and under the earth, do bow and obey, be now and evermore thy defence; and make thee know and feel, that there is none other name under heaven given to man, in whom, and through whom, thou mayest receive health and salvation, but only the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ Here the Minister may use any part of the service of this Book, which, in his discretion, he shall think convenient to the occasion; and after that shall say,

UNTO God's gracious mercy and protection we commit thee: The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: The Lord make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace both now and evermore. Amen.

¶ Prayers which may be said with the foregoing service, or any part thereof, at the discretion of the Minister.

¶ A Prayer for a sick Child.

O ALMIGHTY God and merciful Father, to whom alone belong the issues of life and death; look down from heaven, we humbly beseech thee, with the eyes of mercy upon this Child, now lying upon the bed of sickness: Visit him, O Lord, with thy salvation; deliver him in thy good appointed time from his bodily pain, and save his soul for thy mercies' sake; that if it shall be thy pleasure to prolong his days here on earth, he may live to thee, and be an instrument of thy glory, by serving thee faithfully, and doing good in his generation: or else receive him into those heavenly habitations, where the souls of those who sleep in the Lord Jesus enjoy perpetual rest and felicity: Grant this, O Lord, for thy mercies' sake, in the same thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a sick Person, when there appeareth but small hope of recovery.

O FATHER of mercies, and God of all comfort, our only help in time of need; We fly unto thee for succour in behalf of this thy servant, here lying under thy hand in great weakness of body: Look graciously upon him, O Lord; and the more the outward man decayeth, strengthen him, we beseech thee, so much the more continually with thy grace and Holy Spirit, in the inner man: Give him unfeigned repentance for all the errors of his life past, and steadfast faith in thy Son Jesus, that his sins may be done away by thy mercy, and his pardon sealed in Heaven, before he go hence, and be no more seen. We know, O Lord, that there is no word impossible with thee; and that, if thou wilt, thou canst even yet raise him up, and grant him a longer continuance amongst us: Yet, forasmuch as in all appearance the time of his dissolution draweth near, so fit and prepare him, we beseech thee, against the hour of death, that after his departure hence in peace, and in thy favour, his soul may be received into thine everlasting kingdom; through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ thine only Son, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ A Commendatory Prayer for a sick Person at the point of departure.

O ALMIGHTY God, with whom do live the spirits of just men made perfect, after they are delivered from their earthly prisons; we humbly commend the soul of this thy servant, our dear brother, into thy hands, as into the hands of a faithful Creator, and most merciful Saviour; most humbly beseeching thee, that it may be precious in thy sight: Wash it, we pray thee, in the blood of that immaculate Lamb, that was slain to take away the sins of the world; that whatsoever defilements it may have contracted in the midst of this miserable and naughty world, through the lusts of the flesh, or the wiles of Satan, being purged and done away, it may be presented pure and without spot before thee. And teach us who survive, in this, and other like daily spectacles of mortality, to see how frail and uncertain our own condition is; and so to number our days, that we may seriously apply our hearts to that holy and heavenly wisdom, whilst we live here, which may in the end bring us to life everlasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ thine only Son our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for Persons troubled in Mind or in Conscience.

O BLESSED Lord, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comforts, we beseech thee, look down in pity and compassion upon this thy afflicted servant. Thou writest bitter things against him, and makest him to possess his former iniquities:

Thy wrath lieth hard upon him, and his soul is full of trouble : But, O merciful God, who hast written thy holy Word for our learning, that we, through patience and comfort of thy holy Scriptures, might have hope ; give him a right understanding of himself, and of thy threats and promises ; that he may neither cast away his confidence in thee, nor place it any where but in thee. Give him strength against all his temptations, and heal all his distempers : Break not the bruised reed, nor quench the smoking flax : Shut not up thy tender mercies in displeasure ; but make him to hear of joy and gladness, that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice : Deliver him from fear of the enemy, and lift up the light of thy countenance upon him ; and give him peace, through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer which may be said by the Minister, in behalf of all present at the Visitation.

O GOD, whose days are without end, and whose mercies cannot be numbered ; make us, we beseech thee, deeply sensible of the shortness and uncertainty of human life ; and let thy Holy Spirit lead us through this vale of misery, in holiness and righteousness, all the days of our lives : That, when we shall have served thee in our generation, we may be gathered unto our fathers, having the testimony of a good conscience ; in the communion of the Catholic Church ; in the confidence of a certain faith ; in the comfort of a reasonable, religious, and holy hope ; in favour with thee our God, and in perfect charity with the world : All which we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer which may be said in case of sudden surprise and immediate danger.

O MOST gracious Father, we fly unto thee for mercy in behalf of this thy servant, here lying under the sudden visitation of thine hand. If it be thy will, preserve his life, that there may be place for repentance: But, if thou hast otherwise appointed, let thy mercy supply to him the want of the usual opportunity for the trimming of his lamp. Stir up in him such sorrow for sin, and such fervent love to thee, as may in a short time do the work of many days: That among the praises which thy Saints and holy Angels shall sing to the honour of thy mercy through eternal ages, it may be to thy unspeakable glory, that thou hast redeemed the soul of this thy servant from eternal death, and made him partaker of the everlasting life, which is through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Thanksgiving for the beginning of a recovery.

GREAT and mighty God, who bringest down to the grave and bringest up again; we bless thy wonderful goodness, for having turned our heaviness into joy and our mourning into gladness, by restoring this our brother to some degree of his former health. Blessed be thy name, that thou didst not forsake him in his sickness; but didst visit him with comforts from above; didst support him in patience and submission to thy will; and, at last, didst send him seasonable relief. Perfect, we beseech thee, this thy mercy towards him; and prosper the means which shall be made use of for his cure: That being restored to health of body, vigour of mind, and cheerfulness of spirit, he may be able to go to thine house, to offer thee an oblation with great gladness; and to bless thy holy name for all thy goodness towards him, through Jesus Christ our Saviour: To whom with thee and the Holy Spirit, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR A SICK PERSON WHO INTENDS TO RECEIVE THE HOLY COMMUNION.

O ALMIGHTY and eternal God, from whose Spirit every good motion of our heart proceedeth! increase, we beseech thee, the good seed of thy grace, which thou hast sown in the soul of thy servant. Prepare him humbly to receive that sacrament of the body and blood of our Lord, in which thou art more immediately present, illuminating the faithful, and comforting and refreshing all that are weary and heavy laden with their sins.

Help him, we beseech thee, O Lord, to fit and prepare himself for the due reception of these holy mysteries. Fill his soul with all reverence and godly fear; with earnest desires and longings after the divine life; with serious repentance for all his past sins; with holy resolutions of living for ever after unto Jesus, who died for him. O let him receive his Saviour with that broken and contrite heart, which thou hast promised not to despise.

Raise his affections from earth to heaven, let him hunger and thirst after righteousness.

As the hart panteth after the water-brooks, so let his heart now pant after thee, O God. With humble and holy desires may he eat this passover, and be filled with all spiritual joys and consolations from henceforth for evermore. Amen.

This may be added by the Priest who intends to give the Holy Eucharist to him.

AND to me, O Lord, whom thou hast called to this high honour of administering thy holy sacrament, give thy grace and heavenly benediction, that I may do all things as I ought through Christ strengthening me.

Magnify thy power, O Lord, in my weakness. And thou that givest the increase, command a blessing, I pray thee, to descend upon the work of my ministry; that this sacrament, to be administered to thy servant, now crying mightily to thee for help, may turn to his everlasting benefit, as well as to the salvation of myself, and of all that shall charitably receive with him. Grant this, O blessed Lord, for the sake of that Jesus, whom we are about to commemorate in this holy ordinance. Amen.

COMMUNION OF THE SICK.

¶ Forasmuch as all mortal men are subject to many sudden perils, diseases, and sicknesses, and ever uncertain what time they shall depart out of this life; therefore, to the intent that they may be always in readiness to die, whensoever it shall please Almighty God to call them, the Ministers shall diligently from time to time (but especially in the time of pestilence, or other infectious sickness) exhort their Parishioners to the often receiving of the Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ, when it shall be publickly administered in the Church; that so doing, they may, in case of sudden visitation, have the less cause to be disquieted for lack of the same. But if the sick Person be not able to come to the Church, and yet is desirous to receive the Communion in his house; then he must give timely notice to the Minister, signifying also how many there are to communicate with him (which shall be two at the least;) and all things necessary being prepared, the Minister shall there celebrate the Holy Communion, beginning with the Collect, Epistle, and Gospel, here following:

The Collect.

ALMIGHTY everliving God, Maker of mankind, who dost correct those whom thou dost love, and chastise every one whom thou dost receive; we beseech thee to have mercy upon this thy servant visited with thine hand; and to grant that he may take his sickness patiently, and recover his bodily health, if it be thy gracious will; and that whensoever his soul shall depart from the body, it may be without spot presented unto thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Heb. xii. 5.

MY son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him. For whom the Lord loveth, he chasteneth; and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

The Gospel. St. John v. 24.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

- ¶ After which the Minister shall proceed according to the Form before prescribed for the Holy Communion, beginning at these words, Ye who do truly, &c.
- ¶ At the time of the distribution of the Holy Sacrament, the Minister shall first receive the Communion himself, and after minister unto those who are appointed to communicate with the sick, and last of all to the sick Person.
- ¶ But if a man, either by reason of extremity of sickness, or for want of warning in due time to the Minister, or for lack of company to receive with him, or by any other just impediment, do not receive the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood, the Minister shall instruct him, that if he do truly repent him of his sins, and steadfastly believe that Jesus Christ hath suffered death upon the Cross for him, and shed his Blood for his redemption, earnestly remembering the benefits he hath thereby, and giving him hearty thanks therefore, he doth eat and drink the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ profitably to his soul's health, although he do not receive the Sacrament with his mouth.
- ¶ When the sick Person is visited and receiveth the Holy Communion all at one time, then the Minister, for more expedition, shall cut off the Form of the Visitation at the Psalm, and go straight to the Communion.
- ¶ In the times of contagious sickness or disease, when none of the Parish or Neighbours can be gotten to communicate with the sick in their houses, for fear of the infection; upon special request of the diseased, the Minister alone may communicate with him.

¶ Then shall the Priest say to those who come to receive the holy Communion:

YE who do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways; draw near with faith, and take this holy Sacrament to your comfort; and make your humble confession to Almighty God, devoutly kneeling.

¶ Then shall this general Confession be made by the Priest and all those who are minded to receive the holy Communion, humbly kneeling.

ALMIGHTY God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men; we acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word, and deed, against thy divine Majesty; provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto us; the burthen of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us all that is past; and grant, that we may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, to the honour and glory of thy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest (the Bishop, if he be present) stand up, and turning to the People, say,

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him, have mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

¶ Then shall the Priest say,

Hear what comfortable words our Saviour Christ saith unto all who truly turn to him.

COME unto me, all ye that travail and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you. St. Matt. xi. 28.

So God loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. St. John iii. 16.

Hear also what St. Paul saith.

This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. 1 Tim. i. 15.

Hear also what St. John saith.

If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the propitiation for our sins. 1 John ii. 1, 2.

¶ After which the Priest shall proceed, saying,

Lift up your hearts.

Answer. We lift them up unto the Lord.

Priest. Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

Answer. It is meet and right so to do.

¶ Then shall the Priest turn to the Lord's Table, and say,

IT is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, [ Holy Father,*] Almighty, everlasting God.

¶ Here shall follow the proper Preface, according to the time, if there be any specially appointed; or else immediately shall be said or sung by the Priest and People,

THEREFORE with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious name; evermore praising thee, and saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts; heaven and earth are full of thy glory: Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High. Amen.

¶ PROPER PREFACES.

¶ Upon Christmas Day, and seven Days after.

BECAUSE thou didst give Jesus Christ, thine only Son, to be born as at this time for us; who, by the operation of the Holy Ghost, was made very man, of the substance of the Virgin Mary his Mother; and that without spot of sin, to make us clean from all sin: Therefore with Angels, &c.

* These words, [Holy Father,] must be omitted on Trinity Sunday.

¶ Upon Easter Day, and seven Days after.

BUT chiefly are we bound to praise thee for the glorious resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord: For he is the very Paschal Lamb, which was offered for us, and hath taken away the sin of the world; who by his death hath destroyed death, and by his rising to life again, hath restored to us everlasting life: Therefore with Angels, &c.

¶ Upon Ascension Day, and seven Days after.

THROUGH thy most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who, after his most glorious resurrection, manifestly appeared to all his Apostles, and in their sight ascended up into heaven, to prepare a place for us; that where he is, thither we might also ascend, and reign with him in glory: Therefore with Angels, &c.

¶ Upon Whitsunday, and six Days after.

THROUGH Jesus Christ our Lord; according to whose most true promise, the Holy Ghost came down as at this time from heaven, with a sudden great sound, as it had been a mighty wind, in the likeness of fiery tongues, lighting upon the Apostles, to teach them, and to lead them to all truth; giving them both the gift of divers languages, and also boldness with fervent zeal, constantly to preach the gospel unto all nations; whereby we have been brought out of darkness and error, into the clear light and true knowledge of thee, and of thy Son Jesus Christ: Therefore with Angels, &c.

¶ Upon the Feast of Trinity only, may be said,

WHO art one God, one Lord; not one only person, but three persons in one substance: For that which we believe of the glory of the Father, the same we believe of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, without any difference or inequality: Therefore with Angels, &c.

¶ Or else this may be said, the words [Holy Father] being retained in the introductory Address.

FOR the precious death and merits of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, and for the sending to us of the Holy Ghost the Comforter; who are one with thee in thy eternal Godhead: Therefore with Angels, &c.

¶ Then shall the Priest, kneeling down at the Lord's Table, say, in the name of all those who shall receive the Communion, this Prayer following:

WE do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy: Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

¶ When the Priest, standing before the Table, hath so ordered the Bread and Wine, that he may with the more readiness and decency break the Bread before the People, and take the Cup into his hands; he shall say the Prayer of Consecration, as followeth:

ALL glory be to thee, Almighty God, our heavenly father, for that thou, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption; who made there, (by his one oblation of himself once offered,) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction, for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy gospel command us to continue a perpetual memory of that his precious death and his disciples, saying, Take, eat, (c) this is my Body, which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me. Likewise, after supper, (d) he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of this, for (e) this is my Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins: Do this as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.

The Oblation.

WHEREFORE, O Lord and heavenly Father, according to the institution of thy dearly beloved Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, we, thy humble servants, do celebrate and make here before thy divine Majesty, with these thy holy gifts, which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; rendering unto thee most hearty thanks, for the innumerable benefits procured unto us by the same. And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us; and, of thy Almighty goodness, vouchsafe to bless and sanctify, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, these thy gifts and creatures of bread and wine; that we, receiving them according to thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy institution, in remembrance of his Death and Passion, may be partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood. And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant, that by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we, and all thy whole Church, may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion. And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls, and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto thee; humbly beseeching thee, that we, and all others who shall be partakers of this holy Communion, may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction, and made one body with him, that he may dwell in them, and they in him. And although we are unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice; yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences; through Jesus Christ our Lord; by whom, and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honour and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

¶ Here shall be sung a Hymn, or Part of a Hymn, from the Selection for the Feasts and Fasts, &c.

¶ Then shall the Priest first receive the Communion in both kinds himself, and proceed to deliver the same to the Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, in like manner, (if any be present,) and, after that, to the People also in order, into their hands, all devoutly kneeling: And when he delivereth the Bread, he shall say,

THE Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life: Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on him in thy heart by faith, with thanksgiving.

¶ And the Minister who delivereth the Cup, shall say,

THE Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life: Drink this in remembrance that Christ's blood was shed for thee, and be thankful.

¶ If the consecrated Bread and Wine be spent before all have communicated, the Priest is to consecrate more, according to the form before prescribed; beginning at—All glory be to thee, Almighty God—and ending with these words—Partakers of his most blessed Body and Blood.

¶ When all have communicated, the Minister shall return to the Lord's Table, and reverently place upon it what remaineth of the consecrated Elements, covering the same with a fair Linen Cloth.

¶ Then shall the Minister say the Lord's Prayer, the People repeating after him every petition.

OUR Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy Will be done on Earth, as it is in Heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ After which shall be said as followeth.

ALmighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee, for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed us who have duly received these holy Mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, which is the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom, by the merits of the most precious death and passion of thy dear Son. And we most humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in, through Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ Then shall be said or sung, all standing, Gloria in Excelsis, or some proper Hymn from the Selection.

GLORY be to God on high, and on earth peace, good-will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only begotten Son Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us: Thou who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us: Thou who takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer: Thou who sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most High in the Glory of God the Father. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest (the Bishop, if he be present,) shall let them depart with this blessing:

THE peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

¶ Collects that may be said after the Collects of Morning or Evening Prayer, or Communion, at the discretion of the Minister.

ASSIST us mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers; and dispose the way of thy servants towards the attainment of everlasting salvation; that among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may ever be defended by thy most gracious and ready help, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GRANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that the words which we have heard this day with our outward ears, may, through thy grace, be so grafted inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in us the fruit of good living; to the honour and praise of thy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIRECT us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favour, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy name ; and finally, by thy mercy, obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, the fountain of all wisdom, who knowest our necessities before we ask, and our ignorance in asking ; we beseech thee to have compassion upon our infirmities ; and those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask, vouchsafe to give us, for the worthiness of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast promised to hear the petitions of those who ask in thy Son's name ; we beseech thee mercifully to incline thine ears to us who have now made our prayers and supplications unto thee ; and grant, that those things which we have faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained ; to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Upon the Sundays and other Holy-Days (if there be no Sermon or Communion) shall be said all that is appointed at the Communion, unto the end of the Gospel, concluding with the Blessing. And if any of the consecrated Bread and Wine remain after the Communion, it shall not be carried out of the Church ; but the Minister and other Communicants shall, immediately after the Blessing, reverently eat and drink the same.

FOR THE

BURIAL OF THE DEAD.

- ¶ Here is to be noted, that the office ensuing is not to be used for any unbaptized Adults, any who die uncommunicate, or who have laid violent hands upon themselves.
- ¶ The Minister, meeting the Corpse at the entrance of the Church-yard, and going before it either into the Church, or towards the Grave, shall say, or sing,

I AM the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord ; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live : And whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die. St. John xi. 25, 26.

I KNOW that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth : And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God ; whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another. Job xix. 25, 26, 27.

WE brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away ; blessed be the name of the Lord. 1 Tim. vi. 7. Job i. 21.

- ¶ After they are come into the Church, shall be said or sung the following Anthem, taken from the 39th and 90th Psalms.*

- ¶ When they come to the Grave, while the Corpse is made ready to be laid into the Earth, shall be sung or said, MAN, that is born of a woman, hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery. He cometh up, and is cut down like a flower ; he fleeth as it were a shadow, and never continueth in one stay.

* The Anthem and Lesson following being used only in the CHURCH, are of course omitted in this Book.

In the midst of life we are in death : Of whom may we seek for succour, but of thee, O Lord, who for our sins art justly displeased.

Yet, O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts : shut not thy merciful ears to our prayers ; but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and merciful Saviour, thou most worthy Judge eternal, suffer us not, at our last hour, for any pains of death to fall from thee.

¶ Then, while the Earth shall be cast upon the Body by some standing by, the Minister shall say, FORASMUCH as it hath pleased Almighty God, in his wise Providence, to take out of this world the Soul of our deceased Brother, we therefore commit his Body to the ground ; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust : looking for the general resurrection in the last Day, and the Life of the World to come, through our Lord Jesus Christ ; at whose second coming in glorious Majesty to judge the World, the Earth and the Sea shall give up their Dead ; and the corruptible Bodies of those who sleep in him shall be changed, and made like unto his own glorious Body ; according to the mighty working whereby he is able to subdue all things unto himself.

¶ Then shall be said, or sung,

I HEARD a voice from Heaven, saying unto me, Write, from henceforth blessed are the dead who die in the Lord ; even so saith the Spirit ; for they rest from their labours. Rev. xiv. 13.

Then the Minister shall say the Lord's Prayer.

OUR Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name ; Thy Kingdom come ; Thy will be done on Earth, as it is in Heaven ; Give us this day our daily bread ; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall say one or both of the following Prayers, at his discretion.

ALMIGHTY God, with whom do live the spirits of those who depart hence in the Lord; and with whom the souls of the faithful, after they are delivered from the burden of the flesh, are in joy and felicity; we give thee hearty thanks for the good examples of all those thy servants, who, having finished their course in faith, do now rest from their labours. And we beseech thee, that we, with all those who are departed in the true faith of thy holy name, may have our perfect consummation and bliss, both in body and soul, in thy eternal and everlasting glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OMERCIFUL God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the resurrection and the life; in whom whosoever believeth, shall live, though he die; and whosoever liveth and believeth in him, shall not die eternally; who also hath taught us, by his holy Apostle St. Paul, not to be sorry, as men without hope, for those who sleep in him; we humbly beseech thee, O Father, to raise us from the death of sin unto the life of righteousness; that when we shall depart this life, we may rest in him; and that at the general resurrection in the last day, we may be found acceptable in thy sight; and receive that blessing, which thy well-beloved Son shall then pronounce to all who love and fear thee, saying, Come, ye blessed children of my Father, receive the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world: Grant this, we beseech thee, O merciful Father, through Jesus Christ our Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

A PRAYER

To be added, when any affliction has befallen one of the Family.

O ALMIGHTY and most just GOD, who orderest all the events of this uncertain life, righteous art thou in all thy dealings, and holy in all thy ways. Give us grace contentedly to bear whatsoever burthens thou seest fit to lay upon any of us, assured that all things work together for good to them that love thee, and seek thee through JESUS CHRIST.

Be gracious, O LORD, to thy afflicted servants; comfort the mourners, and impart to them the consolations of thy SPIRIT.

Give us grace to make a profitable use of this, and all thy dispensations. Make us to remember that this world is not our abiding place; that our life is but a vanishing show, soon passeth it away, and we are gone. Spare us, O LORD, a little; and teach us so to number our days, that we may find our hearts unto wisdom, that we may find the reward which thou hast promised to the faithful of thy Son, JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen

Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world; grant us thy peace.

Our Father, who art in Heaven, &c.

O God, whose days are without end, and whose mercies cannot be numbered, make us, we beseech thee, deeply sensible of the shortness and uncertainty of human life. In these daily instances of mortality, may we see how frail and uncertain our own condition is. Teach us so to number our days, that we apply ourselves unto wisdom; that so among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely be there fixed, where true joys are to be found, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Most just art thou, O God, in all thy dealings with us, and our punishment is less than our sins deserve. We adore thy majesty, we revere thy justice, we magnify thy mercies. Sanctify to this family the afflictive dispensation of thy Providence. May the lively sense of the bereavement which they have sustained, leave them to cleave more closely to thee their God. In all their troubles may their whole trust and confidence be placed in thy mercy. Awakened by the visitation of thy Providence to a deep sense of the uncertainty and vanity of human life, may they resolve to seek supremely those things which are above; to resign themselves and all their concerns to thy disposal; and in the fulness of resignation to say with the holy Job—"The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord."

Look with pity, we beseech thee, O merciful Father, upon the sorrows of thy servant for whom our prayers are especially offered. In thy wisdom thou hast seen fit to visit him with trouble and to bring distress upon him. Remember him, O Lord, in mercy; sanctify thy Fatherly correction to him; endue his soul with patience under his affliction and with resignation to thy blessed will; comfort him with a sense of thy goodness; lift up thy countenance upon him and give him peace, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

AN

OFFICE OF DEVOTION,

THAT MAY BE USED WITH THE FRIENDS AND RELATIONS OF THE DECEASED.*

(Principally from the Liturgy.)

JUST and true are thy ways thou King of saints: Righteousness and judgment are the habitation of thy seat.

Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?

It is the Lord, let him do what seemeth to him good.

We know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Sorrow not brethren for them that are asleep, even as others who have no hope.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, we shall also appear with him in glory.

Wherefore comfort one another with these words:

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

[Here may be sung a Psalm or Hymn suitable to the occasion.]

Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

* This office may also perhaps be used by the Minister where custom requires (as in some places,) that some devotional exercise be performed at the house before the funeral moves to the grave. In this case also, it may be proper to use before this office, the Psalm and Lesson of the Funeral Service, appointed to be used when the body is carried into the church.

Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

To be used for a Husband losing his Wife.

*To be used for a Wife

Regard, O Lord, with an eye of compassion, this thy servant, bereaved of her earthly partner and friend. Mercifully grant that, in the depth of her sorrows, the light of thy countenance may be her comfort, the gifts of thy grace and the promises of thy blessed word her refuge and strength. So sanctify to her this thy Fatherly chastisement, that her present loss may conduce to her eternal gain; and that, meekly submitting to the wisdom of thy dispensation, she may realize the fulness of thy promise to be the widow's God, now and for ever, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

To be used for Children deprived of one or both Parents.

Defend, O Lord, we beseech thee, these bereaved children with thy heavenly grace, that they may continue thine for ever, and daily increase in thy Holy Spirit more and more, until they come to thine everlasting Kingdom. Let thy fatherly hand ever be over them; let thy Holy Spirit ever be with them, and so lead them in the knowledge and obedience of thy word, that in the end, they may obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

To be used for Parents bereaved of Children.

Almighty and merciful God, we humbly supplicate thy Fatherly compassion in behalf of these Parents, whom in thine unsearchable wisdom thou hast bereaved of their Child [or Children]. Look upon them, O Lord, in mercy. Sanctify this affliction to their good. Deepen within them a sense of the shortness and uncertainty of human life, and let thy Holy Spirit lead them through this vale of misery in holiness and righteousness all the days of their lives. Increase in them true religion; nourish them with all goodness; and of thy great mercy keep them in the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the instance of mortality before us, thou dost solemnly teach us that, death is the end of all men. Grant us who are living, grace to lay it to heart; so to lay it to heart, as to live above the world, to seek thy favour, to study thy will, to observe thy laws, and in all our actions to aim at thy glory, at the salvation of our own souls, and the souls of our fellow-men. When we go the way of all the earth, may thy presence go with us, to sustain and comfort us, to lead us to a rest eternal in the heavens.

Spare us, good Lord, spare us, O merciful Father, till we have truly repented of our sins, and made our peace with thee, our offended Judge. For thy Son Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us our sins. For his sake turn away thine anger from us; enter not into judgment with us; but after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, and visit us with thy salvation. Quicken us, Almighty God, from the death of sin unto a new and holy life; that being partakers of the death of thy Son, we may also be partakers of his resurrection, of perfect and endless bliss both in body and soul in thy heavenly kingdom. And may the good examples of all those who have departed this life in the true faith of thy holy name, and the hope of their eternal blessedness, excite us to press, with the more earnestness, towards the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Assist us mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of thy servants towards the attainment of everlasting salvation; that among all the changes and chances of this mortal life, they may ever be defended by thy most gracious and ready help, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord bless us and keep us: The Lord make his face to shine upon us, and be gracious unto us: The Lord lift up his countenance upon us, and give us peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

FORM OF PRAYER

FOR THE

VISITATION OF PRISONERS.

¶ When Morning or Evening Prayer shall be read in any Prison, instead of the Psalm, O come let us sing, &c. shall be read the 130th Psalm; and the Minister shall insert, after the Collect for the day, the Collect in the following service, O God, who sparest, &c. and at such times as the Litany is not read, he shall add the Prayer, O God, merciful Father, who despisest not, &c.

¶ And when notice is given to the Minister, that a Prisoner is confined for some great or capital crime, he shall visit him; and when he cometh into the place where the Prisoner is, he shall say, kneeling down,

REMEMBER not, Lord, our iniquities, nor the iniquities of our forefathers; neither take thou vengeance of our sins: Spare us, good Lord, spare thy people, whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Ans. Spare us, good Lord.

Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUR Father, who art in Heaven, &c.

Minis. O Lord, show thy mercy upon us;

Ans. And grant us thy salvation.

Minis. Turn thy face from our sins;

Ans. And blot out all our iniquities.

Minis. Send us help from thine holy place;

Ans. For thine indignation lieth hard upon us.

Minis. O Lord, hear our prayer;

Ans. And let the sighing of the Prisoners come before thee.

The Collect.

GRANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that we, who for our evil deeds do worthily deserve to be punished, by the comfort of thy grace may mercifully be relieved; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

O GOD, who sparest when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath rememberest mercy; we humbly beseech thee, of thy goodness, to comfort and succour all those who are under reproach and misery in the house of bondage; correct them not in thine anger, neither chasten them in thy sore displeasure. Give them a right understanding of themselves, and of thy threats and promises; that they may neither cast away their confidence in thee, nor place it any where but in thee. Relieve the distressed, protect the innocent, and awaken the guilty: and forasmuch as thou alone bringest light out of darkness, and good out of evil, grant that the pains and punishments which these thy servants endure, through their bodily confinement, may tend to setting free their souls from the chains of sin; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Here the Minister, as he shall see convenient, may read the Prayer for All conditions of Men, the Collect for Ash-Wednesday, and the Collect beginning, Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, &c. or any other Prayer of the Liturgy, which he shall judge proper.

¶ Then shall the Minister exhort the Prisoner or Prisoners after this Form, or other like:—

DEARLY beloved, know this, that Almighty God, whose never-failing providence governeth all things both in heaven and earth, hath so wisely and mercifully ordered the course of this world, that his judgments are often sent as fatherly corrections to us; and if with due submission and resignation to his holy will we receive the same, they will work together for our good.

It is your part and duty, therefore, to humble yourself under the mighty hand of God, to acknowledge the righteousness of his judgments, and to endeavour, that, by his grace, this present visitation may lead you to a sincere and hearty repentance.

The way and means thereto is, to examine your life and conversation by the rule of God's commandments; and whereinsoever you shall perceive yourself to have offended either by will, word, or deed, there to bewail your own sinfulness, and to confess yourself to Almighty God, with full purpose of amendment of life. And if you shall perceive your offences to be such as are not only against God, but also against your neighbours; then to reconcile yourself to them, being ready to make restitution and satisfaction, according to the uttermost of your power, for all injuries and wrongs done by you to any other: and being likewise ready to forgive others who have offended you, as you would have forgiveness of your offences at God's hand. And to this true repentance and change of mind you must add a lively and steadfast faith, and dependence upon the merits of the death of Christ, with an entire resignation of yourself to the will of God. Except you repent, and believe, we can give you no hope of salvation. But if you do sincerely repent and believe, God hath declared, though your sins be as red as scarlet, they shall be made white as snow; though your wickednesses have gone over your head, yet shall they not be your destruction.

We exhort you therefore in the name of God, and of his dear Son Jesus Christ our Saviour, and as you tender your own Salvation, to take good heed of these things in time, while the day of salvation lasteth; for the night cometh, when no man can work. While you have the light, believe in the light, and walk as children of the light, that you be not cast into outer darkness; that you may not knock, when the door shall be shut; and cry for mercy, when it is the time of justice. Now you are the object of God's mercy, if by repentance and true faith you turn unto him: but if you neglect these things, you will be the object of his justice and vengeance: Now you may claim the merits of Christ; but if you die in your sins, his sufferings will tend to your greater condemnation. O beloved, consider in this your day, how fearful a thing it will be to fall into the hands of the living God, when you can neither fly to his mercy to protect you, nor to the merits of Christ to cover you in that terrible day.

And the Prisoner shall answer,

All this I steadfastly believe.

¶ Then shall the Minister examine whether he repent him truly of his sins, and be in charity with all the world, and further admonish him particularly concerning the crimes wherewith he is charged; and exhort him, if he have any scruples, that he would declare the same, and prepare himself for the Holy Communion, against the time that it may be proper to administer it to him.

¶ Then, all kneeling, the Minister shall say as follows, from the 51st Psalm:

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness; according to the multitude of thy mercies, do away mine offences.

Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness; and cleanse me from my sin.

For I acknowledge my faults; and my sin is ever before me.

Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight; that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou art judged.

Behold, I was shapen in wickedness; and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts; and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Turn thy face from my sins; and put out all my misdeeds.

Make me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

O give me the comfort of thy help again; and stablish me with thy free Spirit.

Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou that art the God of my health; and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.

Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord; and my mouth shall show thy praise.

For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee; but thou delightest not in burnt offerings.

The sacrifice of God is a troubled Spirit ; a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise.

¶ Then the Minister shall say,

Let us pray.

O LORD, we beseech thee, mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee ; that they, whose consciences by sin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O GOD, whose mercy is everlasting, and power infinite ; look down with pity and compassion upon the sufferings of this thy servant ; and whether thou visitest for trial of his patience, or punishment of his offences, enable him by thy grace cheerfully to submit himself to thy holy will and pleasure. Go not far from those, O Lord, whom thou hast laid in a place of darkness, and in the deep ; and forasmuch as thou hast not cut him off suddenly, but chastenest him as a father ; grant that he, duly considering thy great mercies, may be unfeignedly thankful, and turn unto thee with true repentance and sincerity of heart, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Prayers for Persons under Sentence of Death.

¶ When a Criminal is under Sentence of Death, the Minister shall proceed, immediately after the Collect, O God, who sparest, &c. to exhort him after this Form, or other like :

DEARLY beloved, it hath pleased Almighty God, in his justice, to bring you under the sentence and condemnation of the law : You are shortly to suffer death in such a manner, that others, warned by your example, may be the more afraid to offend ; and we pray God, that you may make such use of your punishments in this world, that your soul may be saved in the world to come.

Wherefore we come to you in the bowels of compassion ; and, being desirous that you should avoid presumption on the one hand, and despair on the other, shall plainly lay before you the wretchedness of your condition, and declare how far you ought to depend on the mercies of God, and the merits of our Saviour. Consider then seriously with yourself, in all appearance the time of your dissolution draweth near; your sins have laid fast hold upon you; you are soon to be removed from among men by a violent death; and you shall fade away suddenly like the grass, which in the morning is green and groweth up, but in the evening is cut down, dried up, and withered. After you have thus finished the course of a sinful and miserable life, you shall appear before the Judge of all flesh; who, as he pronounces blessings on the righteous, shall likewise say, with a terrible voice of most just judgment, to the wicked, Go, ye accursed, into the fire everlasting, prepared for the devil and his angels.

Your sins have brought you too near this dreadful sentence: it is therefore your part and duty, my brother, humbly to confess and bewail your great and manifold offences, and to repent you truly of your sins, as you tender the eternal salvation of your soul.

Be not deceived with a vain and presumptuous expectation of God's favour, nor say within yourself, Peace, peace, where there is no peace; for there is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked. God is not mocked; he is of purer eyes than to behold iniquity; and without holiness no man shall see the Lord. On the other hand, despair not of God's mercy, though trouble is on every side; for God shutteth not up his mercies for ever in displeasure: But if we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. Do not either way abuse the goodness of God, who calleth us mercifully to amendment, and of his endless pity promiseth us forgiveness of that which is past, if with a perfect and true heart we return unto him.

Since therefore you are soon to pass into an endless and unchangeable state, and your future happiness or misery depends upon the few moments which are left you; I require you strictly to examine yourself, and your estate both towards God and towards man; and let no worldly consideration hinder you from making a true and full confession of your sins, and giving all the satisfaction which is in your power to every one whom you have wronged or injured; that you may find mercy at your heavenly Father's hand, for Christ's sake, and not be condemned in the dreadful day of judgment.

Lastly, beloved, submit yourself with Christian resignation to the just judgment of God, which your own crimes have brought upon you, and be in charity with all men; being ready sincerely to forgive all such as have offended you, not excepting those who have persecuted you even unto death: And, though this may seem a hard saying, yet know assuredly, that without it your charity is not yet perfect. And fail not earnestly to endeavour and pray for this blessed temper and composure of mind. So may you cast yourself with an entire dependence upon the mercies of God, through the merits of our Saviour and Redeemer Jesus Christ.

¶ Here the Minister shall examine him concerning his Faith, and rehearse the Articles of the Creed, Dost thou believe in God, &c. And the Criminal shall answer,

All this I steadfastly believe.

¶ Then shall the Minister examine whether he repent him truly of his sins, exhorting him to a particular Confession of the sin for which he is condemned; and upon Confession, he shall instruct him what satisfaction ought to be made to those whom he has offended thereby; and if he knoweth any combinations in wickedness, or any evil practices designed against others, let him be admonished to the utmost of his power to discover and prevent them.

¶ After this Confession, the Minister shall declare to him the pardoning Mercy of God, in the Form which is used in the Communion Service.

¶ After which shall be said the Collect following.

O HOLY Jesus, who of thine infinite goodness, didst accept the conversion of a sinner on the cross; open thine eye of mercy upon this thy servant, who desireth pardon and forgiveness, though in his latest hour he turneth unto thee. Renew in him whatsoever hath been decayed by the fraud and malice of the devil, or by his own carnal will and frailness. Consider his contrition; accept his repentance; and forasmuch as he putteth his full trust only in thy mercy, impute not unto him his former sins, but strengthen him with thy blessed Spirit; and when thou art pleased to take him hence, take him unto thy favour: This we beg through thy merits, O Lord, our Saviour and our Redeemer. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall say,

O FATHER of mercies and God of all comfort ; we fly unto thee for succour in behalf of this thy servant, who is now under the sentence of condemnation. The day of his calamity is at hand, and he is accounted as one of those who go down into the pit. Blessed Lord, remember thy mercies ; look upon his infirmities ; hear the voice of his complaint ; give him, we beseech thee, patience in this his time of adversity, and support under the terrors which encompass him ; set before his eyes the things he hath done in the body, which have justly provoked thee to anger ; and forasmuch as his continuance appeareth to be short amongst us, quicken him so much the more by thy grace and Holy Spirit ; that he, being converted and reconciled unto thee, before thy judgments have cut him off from the earth, may at the hour of his death depart in peace, and be received into thine everlasting kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Adding this.

O SAVIOUR of the world, who by thy cross and precious blood hast redeemed us, save us and help us, we humbly beseech thee, O Lord.

¶ Then the Minister, standing, shall say,

IN the midst of life we are in death : Of whom may we seek for succour, but of thee, O Lord, who for our sins art justly displeased ?

Yet, O Lord God most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death.

Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts : Shut not thy merciful ears to our prayers ; but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and merciful Saviour, thou most worthy Judge eternal, suffer us not, at our last hour, for any pains of death to fall from thee.

¶ Then the Minister shall say,

THE Almighty God, who is a most strong tower to all those who put their trust in him ; to whom all things in heaven, in earth, and under the earth, do bow and obey ; be now and evermore thy defence ; and make thee know and feel that there is none other name under heaven given to man, in whom, and through whom, thou mayest receive salvation, but only in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ And after that shall say,

UNTO God's gracious mercy and protection we commit thee: The Lord bless thee and keep thee: The Lord make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace, both now and evermore.

¶ At the time of Execution, besides all, or such parts of the foregoing Office as the Minister shall judge proper, shall be said the Commendatory Prayer for a Person at the point of departure, as it is in the Visitation of the Sick.

¶ The Collect for the Communion Service.

O GOD, who declarest thy Almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity; we beseech thee to have mercy upon this thy servant, who for his transgressions is appointed to die. Grant that he may take thy judgments patiently, and repent him truly of his sins; that he recovering thy favour, the fearful reward of his actions may end with this life; and whensoever his soul shall depart from the body, it may be without spot presented unto thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Heb. xii. 11.

NO chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous; nevertheless, afterwards it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness, unto them which are exercised thereby.

The Gospel. St. John v. 24.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

¶ A Prayer for imprisoned Debtors.

MOST gracious God, look down in pity and compassion upon these thine afflicted servants, who are fallen under the misery of a close restraint. Give them always a deep sense of their sins, and of thy fatherly love and correction; and the more their confinement presseth hard upon them, the more let the comforts of thy grace and mercy abound towards them. Give to their creditors tenderness and compassion, and to them a meek and forgiving spirit towards all those who have confined them, and a full purpose to repair all the injuries and losses which others have sustained by them. Raise them up friends to pity and relieve them; give them the continued comfort of thy countenance here; and so sanctify their afflictions, that they may work for them an eternal weight of glory, through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.

FORMS OF PRAYER

USED IN FAMILIES.

MORNING PRAYER.

¶ The Master or Mistress having called together as many of the Family as can conveniently be present, let one of them; or any other whom they shall think proper, say as follows, all kneeling:

OUR Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done on Earth, as it is in Heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Acknowledgment of God's mercy and preservation, especially through the night past.

render thee our humble praises, for thy preservation of us from the beginning of our lives to this day, and especially for having delivered us from the dangers of the past night. To thy watchful providence we owe it, *(that no disturbance hath come nigh us or our dwelling; but, that we are brought in safety to the beginning of this day.) For these thy mercies, we bless and magnify thy glorious Name; humbly beseeching thee to accept this our morning sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; for his sake who lay down in the grave, and rose again for us, thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Dedication of soul and body to God's service, with a resolution to be growing daily in goodness.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, in whom we live and move and have our being; we, thy needy creatures, render thee our humble praises, for thy preservation of us from the beginning of our lives to this day, and especially for having delivered us from the dangers of the past night. To thy watchful providence we owe it, *(that no disturbance hath come nigh us or our dwelling; but, that we are brought in safety to the beginning of this day.) For these thy mercies, we bless and magnify thy glorious Name; humbly beseeching thee to accept this our morning sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; for his sake who lay down in the grave, and rose again for us, thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

AND, since it is of thy mercy, O gracious Father, that another day is added to our lives; we here dedicate both our souls and our bodies to thee and thy service, in a sober, righteous, and godly life: In which resolution, do thou, O merciful God, confirm and strengthen us; that, as we grow in age, we may grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

BUT, O God, who knowest the weakness and corruption of our nature, and the manifold temptations which we daily meet with; we humbly beseech thee to have compassion on our infirmities, and to give us the constant assistance of thy Holy Spirit; that we may be effectually restrained from sin, and excited to our duty. Imprint upon our hearts such a dread of thy judgments, and such a grateful sense of thy goodness to us, as may make us both afraid and ashamed to offend thee. And, above all, keep in our minds a lively remembrance of that great Day, in which we must give a strict account of our thoughts, words, and actions; and, according to the works done in the body, be eternally rewarded or punished, by him whom thou hast appointed the Judge of quick and dead, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

IN particular, we implore thy grace and protection for the ensuing day. Keep us temperate in our meats and drinks, and diligent in our several callings. Grant us patience under any afflictions thou shalt see fit to lay on us, and minds always contented with our present condition. Give us grace to be just and upright in all our dealings; quiet and peaceable; full of compassion; and ready to do good to all men, according to our abilities and opportunities. Direct us in all our ways *(and prosper the works of our hands in the business of our several stations.) Defend us from all dangers and adversities; and be graciously pleased to take us, and all things belonging to us, under thy Fatherly care and protection. These things, and whatever else thou shalt see necessary and convenient to us, we humbly beg, through the merits and mediation of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Prayer for grace to enable us to perform that resolution.

For grace to guide and keep us the following day, and for God's blessing on the business of the same.

* On Sunday Morning, instead of this, say, and let thy Holy Spirit accompany us to the place of thy public worship, making us serious and attentive, and raising our minds from the thoughts of this world to the consideration of the next, that we may fervently join in the prayers and praises of thy Church, and listen to our duty with honest hearts, in order to practise it.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

EVENING PRAYER.

¶ The Family being together, a little before Bed Time, let the Master or Mistress, or any other whom they shall think proper, say as follows, all kneeling :

OUR Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name ; Thy Kingdom come ; Thy will be done on Earth, as it is in Heaven ; Give us this day our daily bread ; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us ; And lead us not into temptation ; But deliver us from evil : For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Confession of sins, with a prayer for contrition and pardon.

MOST merciful God, who art of purer eyes than to behold iniquity, and hast promised forgiveness to all those who confess and forsake their sins ; we come before thee in an humble sense of our own unworthiness, acknowledging our manifold transgressions of thy righteous laws.* But, O gracious Father, who desirest not the death of a sinner, look upon us, we beseech thee, in mercy, and forgive us all our transgressions. Make us deeply sensible of the great evil of them ; and work in us an hearty contrition ; that we may obtain forgiveness at thy hands, who art ever ready to receive humble and penitent sinners ; for the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ, our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

Prayer for grace to reform and grow better.

AND lest, through our own frailty, or the temptations which encompass us, we be drawn again into sin, vouchsafe us, we beseech thee, the direction and assistance of thy Holy Spirit. Reform whatever is amiss in the temper and disposition of our souls ; that no unclean thoughts, unlawful designs, or inordinate desires, may rest there. Purge our hearts from envy, hatred, and malice ; that we may never suffer the sun to go down upon our wrath ; but may always go to our rest in peace, charity, and good-will, with a conscience void of offence towards thee and towards men ; That so, we may be preserved pure and blameless, unto the coming of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

AND accept, O Lord, our intercessions The Intercession.
for all mankind. Let the light of thy Gospel shine upon all nations ; and may as many as have received it, live as becomes it. Be gracious unto thy Church ; and grant that every member of the same, in his vocation and ministry, may serve thee faithfully. Bless all in authority over us ; and so rule their hearts and strengthen their hands, that they may punish wickedness and vice, and maintain thy true religion and virtue. Send down thy blessings, temporal and spiritual, upon all our relations, friends, and neighbours. Reward all who have done us good, and pardon all those who have done or wish us evil, and give them repentance and better minds. Be merciful to all who are in trouble ; and do thou, the God of pity, administer to them according to their several necessities, for his sake who went about doing good, thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

TO our prayers, O Lord, we join our The Thanksgiving.
unfeigned thanks for all thy mercies ; for our being, our reason, and all other endowments and faculties of soul and body ; for our health, friends, food, and raiment, and all the other comforts and conveniences of life. Above all, we adore thy mercy in sending thy only Son into the world, to redeem us from sin and eternal death, and in giving us the knowledge and sense of our duty towards thee. We bless thee for thy patience with us, notwithstanding our many and great provocations ; for all the directions, assistances, and comforts of thy Holy Spirit ; for thy continual care and watchful providence over us through the whole course of our lives ; and particularly for the mercies and benefits of the past day : Beseeching thee to continue these thy blessings to us ; and to give us grace to show our thankfulness in a sincere obedience to his laws, through whose merits and intercession we received them all, thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Prayer for God's protection through the night following.

IN particular, we beseech thee to continue thy gracious protection to us this night. Defend us from all dangers and mischiefs, and from the fear of them; that we may enjoy such refreshing sleep, as may fit us for the duties of the following day. Make us ever mindful of the time when we shall lie down in the dust; and grant us grace always to live in such a state, that we may never be afraid to die: So that living and dying we may be thine, through the merits and satisfaction of thy Son Christ Jesus, in whose name we offer up these our imperfect prayers. Amen.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

¶ On Sundays and on other Days, when it may be convenient, it will be proper to begin with a chapter, or part of a chapter, from the New Testament.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK.

[The solemn engagements into which every Minister enters at his ordination, as well as a decent respect for the institutions of the Church, impose on him, it is to be presumed, an obligation to conform, as far as possible, in his visitation of the sick, to the excellent office prescribed by the Church: and this office, and the occasional prayers annexed to it, are admirably suited to the general, as well as the more particular situation of sick persons.

It is to be presumed, however, that in cases where it will evidently tend to edification, there may be allowed to clergymen, in the visitation of the sick, a license not admissible on other occasions; and that they may be allowed to introduce prayers, not prescribed by the Church, into their devotions with the sick. The Church of England has in some measure sanctioned this liberty in one of her canons. Some of her most eminent Clergy have published and used devotions for the sick in addition to those prescribed by the Church. The Editor of the present work, therefore, has thought that he might with propriety insert some occasional prayers and devotional offices for the sick, principally drawn up by eminent divines of the Church of England.

To imbibe the fervent SPIRIT of prayer which animates all the offices of the Church, must be the obvious duty of all her Ministers. Would it not be also proper for them to commit to memory the LANGUAGE of her prayers? They would thus be ready, on all occasions, in their private intercourse with their people, to pray with them not only in language sanctioned by the authority of the Church, and approved by the pious through a series of ages; but in language inimitably simple, affecting, and impressive. By thus conforming, on occasions for which particular prayers are not enjoined by the Church, to the spirit, and as far as possible, to the language of her Liturgy, they will exhibit a commendable example of respect for her institutions, of attachment to her cause; they will excite and cherish a spirit of devotion lively and fervent, yet regulated and sober; and they will discharge the important duty of discouraging those irregular effusions which, experience proves, too often excites a passionate and transitory, at the expense of an enlightened and substantial devotion.

If the prayers and offices of the Church were committed, at least in great part, to memory, could they not be performed with greater spirit and solemnity?]

¶ For a Sick Person who has been very wicked.

ALmighty and most merciful God, who wouldest not the death of a sinner, but rather that he should return from his wickedness and live; look down in compassion upon this thy sick servant, whose past life has been disobedient to thy law, and very provoking to thy divine majesty: Produce in his mind a lively sense of his danger and a deep conviction of his sins. May he feel that his aggravated offences have rendered him wholly unworthy of thy forgiveness; and that without thy mercy he must for ever perish. May his present distress, through thy good Spirit, soften his hard heart, subdue his rebellious will, and prostrate his soul in deep humility and self-abasement at the cross of his Saviour. That thus his contrite petitions for mercy may be accepted of thee, and that "in him Jesus Christ may show forth all long-suffering and compassion." Accept him, O Lord, according to the gracious covenant of thy love in thy Son Jesus Christ. Make him by thy grace so to resolve upon amendment of life and submission to thy will, that his prayers be not hindered, but may come up, through the merits of thy Son, an acceptable sacrifice in thy sight. Rebuke his disease; restore him to health, and give him a longer time to testify his repentance by holiness of life. Pardon him, good Lord, and whenever he shall depart out of this life, give him rest and felicity with thy chosen in the Kingdom of Glory, through the merits and intercession of our blessed Saviour and Advocate Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ For a person suddenly injured or taken severely ill.

O GOD, by whose mercy we live so securely, that we are not often visited with those calamities which hasten death, or make our lives uncomfortable, make us thankful for our lot, and to regard with compassion this our brother, in whom we have an example of the uncertainty of our continuance here, and of all the enjoyments attending it. Convert, we beseech thee, O Lord, this calamity into a real blessing to him, by the good use which we pray he may be enabled to make of it. Let him not esteem it the effects of chance, but as thy appointment or permission; and aim at the end which he may reasonably presume thy good providence intended by it. Let it awaken the remembrance, and strengthen his abhorrence, of every transgression, and let it confirm every virtue and good resolution, which may incline thy mercy towards him.

O Lord, have compassion on his present unhappy condition, and grant him as effectual and speedy assistance as the nature of his case will admit. Lessen his danger, assuage his pains, and grant him patience under the applications which are necessary to his cure. Give success to the remedies (or operations) which are judged proper for his recovery; and grant us grace in the midst of dangers always to keep in mind, that piety is the only foundation of our security; and that if our final state be secured, we have no reason to be in fear of those unforeseen accidents which may hasten us to it. Accept these our prayers, through the merits and mediation of our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

† For one that is very ignorant.

BLESSED Lord, who hast not only given us the faculty of reason, but the higher blessing of revelation, by both to bring us to the knowledge of thy will, and our duty; regard with compassion this our unhappy fellow-creature, who appears hitherto to have been insensible of the highest privilege of his nature, and the most important concern of his life. Convince him of the great fault and sin of his neglect of so many means and opportunities of instruction, with which thou, O Lord, hast blessed all in this nation, however poor or illiterate. Awaken him to a desire of improving the remainder of his life to a farther acquaintance with what has been done for him, and what he ought to do for himself. Make him sensible of his many transgressions against thee, his Maker, that he may see the necessity of repentance, and of an atonement for his offences. Dispose him to discern and receive Him, whom thou hast set forth to be a propitiation for the sins of mankind, that so he may learn that the sufferings of Jesus Christ were designed to make a way for our acceptance upon our sincere repentance, and not to justify or excuse us in the voluntary ignorance or continued violation or neglect of our duty. Make him to acknowledge the sacrifice of his Redeemer, as the meritorious cause of all his hopes; and to testify this acknowledgment not in words only, but by a sincere conversion of heart and amendment of life, as the only condition of those hopes: and we humbly beseech thee, O Lord, to accept his imperfect knowledge of thee, and late return to thee, for the sake of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A Prayer to be used at the beginning of sickness.

O ALMIGHTY God, and most gracious Father, who in thy justice and mercy didst send sorrow and tears, sickness and death into the world as the punishment of our sins, and hast subjected all sinners to this sad covenant of sufferings, not to destroy us, but to save us—making thy justice minister to mercy, these short afflictions to an eternal weight of glory: As thou hast turned the sins of thy servant into sickness, so turn his sickness to the advantages of holiness and religion, of mercy and pardon, of faith and hope, of grace and glory. Now called as he is to the fellowship of suffering, let his condition by the power of thy grace, be so sanctified to him, that his sufferings may be united to the sufferings of his Saviour, and so be acceptable to thee as the instrument of thy mercy and favour to him. Relieve his sorrow and support his spirit: direct his thoughts, and so order all the circumstances of his sickness, that this punishment of his sin may be the school of his virtue; in which, as thou hast now placed him, he may make a holy proficiency; that he may behave himself as a son under the discipline of a Father, humbly and obediently, penitently and patiently, and by this means be advanced nearer unto thyself: That if from this bed of sickness he shall go forth to life and health, he may return to the world with strength of spirit to live in a holier conformity to thy will, and maintain a higher communion with the Saints; or if, from this place he is to pass through the valley of the shadow of death, he may be received into the paradise of the blessed, in full and joyful hope of a resurrection unto eternal life and glory, through Jesus Christ our most blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

¶ A general Prayer for the Sick, especially near the beginning of Sickness.

O MOST gracious God, who, by thy Son Jesus Christ, hast joined us all together in one body, that we might love and assist one another; we humbly implore thy tender mercies towards this thy servant, of whose afflicted state we desire to have a compassionate sense. Look graciously, O Lord, upon him, and visit him with thy salvation: vouchsafe him such consolations, as we should desire for ourselves, were we in his condition. Give him a true penitent heart for all the offences he has at any time committed, with a lively faith in thy Son Jesus Christ, who came into the world to save sinners. Give him the comfort of a holy hope, that his repentance and true devotion are accepted. Support him by this hope under all his pain, and enable him patiently to submit to thy fatherly correction. Send him help in this time of need both for his soul and body. Bless the means for his recovery, and if it be thy good pleasure, restore him speedily to his former health, together with a firm resolution of serving thee, O Lord, more zealously for the future. But if, in thy wise counsels, thou hast otherwise resolved, save him from the fear of death; assist him in his last agony, give him an easy and cheerful passage out of this life, and let thy holy angels conduct him into eternal peace, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

¶ A Prayer to be used at any stage of Sickness.

O ALMIGHTY God and merciful Father, whose never-failing providence ordereth all things, both in heaven and earth; we desire, with the profoundest reverence, to humble ourselves before thee, acknowledging that thou, even in thy severest dispensations, hast kind intentions and gracious designs towards us; behold this, thy servant, upon whom thou hast been pleased to lay thine afflicting hand; sanctify, we beseech thee, this thy fatherly correction to him, and grant that he may receive it with all the patience and submission of a dutiful child. Suffer him not, O Lord, to murmur or repine under any dispensations of thy providence; but let all that is afflictive to him be a means to wean him from the world, to bring him nearer to thyself, and to purge away all that dross and defilement which his soul has contracted in this sinful life. We know, O Lord, that thy judgments are right, and that thou of thy goodness hast caused him to be troubled; O give him such a measure of grace and patience as may enable him cheerfully and willingly to submit his will to thine.

We acknowledge, O Lord, that we have all justly deserved to be severely dealt with by thee; for notwithstanding all the gentle methods which thou hast used towards us, we have not loved thee as we ought to do ; but in the days of health and prosperity have forgotten thee, our God, and turned aside after vanity and folly. But, O merciful Father, let not the sins of thy servant provoke thee to turn away thy face from him, now seeking unto thee in this time of his trouble ; shut not up the bowels of thy tender compassions from him, but, for the merits and intercession of thy beloved Son, pardon all his sins, the proper causes of all his sorrows ; and vouchsafe, we beseech thee, for his sake, to be reconciled unto him. O suffer him not to sink under the heavy load and burden of his transgressions, but stretch forth thy helping hand to save and deliver him, and say unto his soul, I am thy salvation.

O Lord, support him under all his pains, weaknesses and infirmities ; strengthen his faith, enlarge his hopes, increase his charity and perfect his repentance. Make thou his bed in his sickness, and lay not more upon him than thou wilt enable him to bear ; give a blessing to the means that shall be used for his recovery ; and if it be thy good pleasure, restore him to his former health, that he may lead the residue of his life in thy fear and to thy glory ; but if thou hast determined that this sickness shall be unto death, grant, O merciful Father, that the more the outward man decayeth, so much the more he may find the inner man strengthened and renewed with thy grace and Holy Spirit. O give him grace so to take thy visitation, that after this painful life is ended, he may dwell with thee in life everlasting, through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Short Prayers, which may be used as one, or separately, in great Weakness.

I.

ALmighty God, Father of mercies, and God of peace and comfort, rest and pardon, we thy unworthy servants, in duty to thee and charity to our afflicted brother, humbly beg that thy mercy may descend upon his soul and body. We come to thee in the name of thy Son Jesus Christ, beseeching thee to pardon his sins, for the merits of our Saviour, who died for us, that so they may never rise up in judgment against him, nor bring him at the great day to shame and confusion of face. Amen.

II.

GIVE thy servant, O Lord, patience in his sorrows, and comfort in this his sickness, and restore him to health, if according to thy will. But, however thou shalt determine concerning him in this sickness, yet make his repentance perfect, and his faith strong, his hope steadfast, and his passage safe; that when thou shalt please to summon the soul from his body, it may enter into the rest of the children of God, and the receptacle of the blessed, with Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

III.

O LORD, thou knowest all the necessities and infirmities of this thy afflicted servant; strengthen his soul with spiritual joy, and perfect resignation: take from him all inordinate affections to this world, and enlarge his heart with desires of being with thee, free from sin, and in thy presence for ever. Amen.

IV.

LORD, let no pains or passion discompose his thoughts, and disturb him in his duty; and lay no more upon thy afflicted servant than he is able to bear; and with the temptation provide for him a way to escape, either by the mercy of a longer and more holy life, or by a happy death, as is pleasing to thee, O Lord. Amen.

V.

LORD, let thy Holy Spirit so operate on the conscience of our afflicted brother, that he may recollect all his sins, in order to a confession of them, and repentance: and let the same holy influence remove from his soul all bitterness and wrath; and in union with Jesus Christ, and in charity to all the world, let his soul be presented to thee blameless, and pardoned for the sake of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

VI.

O MOST gracious Lord, our only Saviour, with whom the souls of all faithful people are deposited till the great day of recompense, have mercy upon the body and soul of this thy servant: improve his condition with the gracious aids of comfort, and supply all his necessities, which are known only to thee. Let him dwell in peace, being supported by thy goodness, and by lively hopes of his pardon, through thy mercy; and whenever his soul shall depart from the body, let it be preserved from evil spirits, and received by ministering angels, in order to dwell for ever with thee in the glory of the Father. Amen.

¶ A general Prayer for the Sick.

O LORD, the Father of our spirits, who givest us life and breath, and all things, and hast not thought “a crown of life too much to promise to all them who are faithful unto death,” (Rev. ii. 10) we firmly believe, that thou wilt not deny us what is needful and fit for us, both for our souls and our bodies, in our passage through this world to that of honour, glory, and immortality.

In this confidence we more particularly recommend this our sick brother, to thine infinite mercy, and boundless compassion. Settle in him a steadfast faith, that “thou dost not willingly grieve the children of men,” but intendest good to him by this thy fatherly correction. And now, since all other pleasures and enjoyments fail him, represent thyself more effectually to him, as the only support and stay of his hope, and as the rock of his salvation.

Whereinsoever he has neglected thee, or committed any offence against thee, make him deeply sensible of it, and heartily sorry for all his transgressions: and as he earnestly desires forgiveness, so work in him a serious resolution to live more circumspectly and righteously for the future.

Assist him graciously, O Lord, that he may give a proof of his sincere intentions hereafter to submit himself in all things to thy will, by his patient submission to thy fatherly correction now. O that he may so quietly, meekly, humbly, and cheerfully resign his will to thine, to suffer what thou inflictest, that he may be the more disposed to do readily whatsoever thou commandest; and may Christ be the great object of his desire, prayer, and endeavours to obtain that salvation, which is promised to all his faithful followers by thy Son Jesus Christ, our Advocate, and the great propitiation for sin.

Make this, our sick brother, O Lord, thoroughly apprehensive of thy sovereign power and authority over all thy creatures. Possess him with a great reverence of thy wisdom and justice, with an entire confidence in thy goodness and love, and with a thankful remembrance of all thy past mercies to him; that so he may better endure what thou layest upon him at present; may ever choose to follow thy directions; submit to thy orders; delight to do or suffer thy will, O God; and govern himself in the whole of his conduct by that excellent rule, which our Lord hath taught us, “to do unto others as we would they should do unto us.”

Bless the remedies which are or may be used for restoring him to his former health, that he may live to discharge his duty with greater care. Or, if thou hast otherwise appointed, accept graciously his purposes of amendment, and dispose him to return his spirit willingly to thee, who gavest it; and with great humility, and a deep sense of his own undeservings, to expect thy mercy declared to Christ Jesus our Lord. Fix his mind steadfastly on the great Redeemer, who has led the way through the grave to heaven, that he may not be terrified at the approach of death; but looking beyond it to that high and holy place, where the Lord Jesus is, he may rejoice in hope of eternal glory.

And grant, that every one of us in our best state of health, may daily consider how frail and weak we are, that so we may not abuse ourselves by an intemperate use of any worldly pleasures, nor overload our minds with the cares of this life, nor spend our days in a vain pursuit after the riches or honours of this world; but may we pass all our time of sojourning here in thy fear, and live so righteously and soberly in this present world, as those who must give an account to thee, O God, who wilt judge all men by thy Son Jesus Christ according to their works. Hear us, O Lord, we most humbly beseech thee, hear us in behalf of ourselves, and especially of this our distressed brother, through Jesus Christ our merciful and compassionate High Priest, who sits at thy right hand, and ever liveth to make intercession for us. Amen.

† A general Prayer for persons under Bodily Suffering.

O ALMIGHTY and most gracious Lord God, with whom are the appointments of life and death, we humbly beseech thee to give this our afflicted brother, grace to consider, that his affliction is of thy sending, to cure his spiritual diseases ; and to acknowledge the justice as well as mercy of thy visitation, and his sufferings. Let this trial of him not fail, O Lord, in answering the gracious purposes of seeing and forsaking his sins. Bring to his mind all such considerations as may revive and raise him above all discouragements and fear. Let his thoughts, under this visitation, be only those of love and thankfulness, resignation and obedience, humility and hope in thy mercy. Give him a full trust in thy most gracious promises of forgiveness, and prevent him from showing any indecent behaviour under his afflictions, which would only increase his guilt.

Father of mercies, and God of all comfort, have compassion on this thy afflicted servant, and out of pity to his weakness, lessen his troubles, and support him under them. Keep him ever submissive to thy will, and neither impatient nor ungrateful towards those about him, May thy blessing accompany all their endeavours for his welfare, and all the medicines appointed for his relief. Put an end, in thy due time, to his disease (or, to his pain,) and either restore him to his health and ease, with the mercy of a longer life, or else prepare him for an happy and comfortable death. All this we humbly ask for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for our sins, and rose again for our justification. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a person under any grievous Pains.

O GOD, our refuge and strength, who art a present help in time of trouble ; O look graciously upon thy sick servant, we most earnestly beseech thee, and if it be thy blessed will, send him ease and comfort in this time of his distress. We acknowledge, O Lord, the justice of thy dealings towards him ; O let him then never murmur or repine under any affliction thou seest fit to lay upon him. Give him a meek and quiet submission to thy will, that he may wait with patience till thou seest fit to deliver him. Suffer not the extremity of his pains to transport him into any rash or unbecoming expressions, or cause him to entertain a hard thought of thy providence ; but whatever evils or sorrows he may feel, let him still love thee, and believe thee to be a kind and merciful Father, even whilst thou art smiting and correcting him.

And, O blessed Lord, that he may be enabled so to do, be pleased in thy great mercy to strengthen and support him with the consolations of thy Holy Spirit, and lay not more upon him than thou wilt enable him to bear. We know thou art able to deliver him, and therefore in thee do we put our trust. Sanctify this affliction to him, that it may produce in him the fruits of a true and sincere repentance.

O Lord, hear us ; O Lord, help thy servant, for thy mercy's sake in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Amen.

† A Prayer to be used by a Sick Person when he finds any Abatement of his Distemper.

O FATHER of mercies and God of all comfort, who hast vouchsafed to grant thy sick servant some ease, and to abate the fury of his present distemper ; accept, we humbly pray thee, of our unfeigned thanks for this and all other thy mercies bestowed upon him.

Blessed be thy goodness, O Lord, that he has strength to praise thee ; that his senses and understanding are preserved entire ; and though he is brought very low, he is not without hopes that thou wilt yet raise him up. O perfect, if it be thy blessed will, what thou hast begun in him ; and forsake not, we beseech thee, the work of thine own hands. Repair all the decays in his outward man, and let his mind also be endued with greater strength and abilities to do thee service, and with stronger desires and resolutions of loving and obeying thee.

Visit him, O Lord, with thy heavenly consolations ; fill him with comfortable thoughts of thy love, and of that tender and compassionate care which our Lord Jesus takes of all his afflicted servants. Give him still a more perfect submission to thy will, that, without any murmuring or repining, he may wait upon thee till thou seest fit to finish his recovery ; and as his strength increases, so let his resolutions grow stronger of serving thee faithfully all the remainder of his life ; for which end, we implore for him the assistance of thy Holy Spirit, through Jesus Christ ; to whom, with thee, O Father, and the ever-blessed Spirit, be all honor, glory, love, service and obedience, by him and all thy creatures for evermore. Amen.

† A Prayer with one who is Sick, for the Restoration of his Health.

O THOU Father of mercies, and God of comfort, who art the hope of all who put their trust in thee, look down upon our sick brother with an eye of compassion; be gracious to him according to the necessity of his case, and according to the multitude of thy tender mercies in Christ Jesus.

We beseech thee, O Lord, to abate his distemper; to give him ease instead of pain, and relief under every complaint. Give skill to the physician, success to means, and an happy restoration to his former ease, health, strength, and usefulness in life.

Whatever thou deniest, O deny him not an interest in thy favour and love! Be thou his portion and inheritance, his Father, his eternal and unchangeable Friend, the support of his life, the relief of his soul under all his afflictions and troubles with which he may meet in this world, and his everlasting rest and happiness in that which is to come.

From all the visitations of thy providence may we learn the instability of every worldly enjoyment and comfort. May we remember, that they will one day fail us; that either they must be taken away from us, or we must leave them behind us; but that there is, notwithstanding, a firm foundation for hope and comfort to every sincere follower of our Lord Jesus Christ. Thou hast promised, that thou wilt never leave nor forsake those who in the way of duty put their trust and confidence in thee, and thankfully accept the gracious terms of thy Gospel. We will, therefore, hope in thy mercy, that "we shall yet praise thee in the land of the living; for thou art the health of our countenance, and our God."

Help us, O Lord, to sit loose to this world, and to the enjoyments of it, and to delight ourselves more in God, and in heavenly things. Let us not think ourselves unhappy whilst we can enjoy thee; nor murmur or repine at any loss, or under any disease, as long as we are the objects of thy love, and the care of thy good providence.

And do thou give us grace so to live, that we may comfortably look up to thee at all times, especially in a time of sickness, as our constant Friend, and most tender Father, as our life and health, our rest and joy, through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

† A Prayer under the Continuance of Sickness.

O MERCIFUL and righteous God, the sovereign Lord of life and death, our only hope in time of trouble; we thy poor creatures, beseech thee for thy sick servant, upon whom thou hast laid thine afflicting hand. We desire, O Lord, that he may humbly accept this thy visitation, and we most earnestly beseech thee to enable him to bear it with such patience and submission as becomes a creature and a sinner: and, O merciful Father, who designest not the ruin but the amendment of those whom thou scourgest, we beseech thee to sanctify all his afflictions to him, and grant that this sickness of his body may be a means of health to his soul, and inspire him with resolutions never more to depart from thee.

To that end, O Lord, make him diligent in searching his heart; and O do thou enable him to discover every thing hateful in thy sight; and on his true and sincere repentance, we beseech thee, remove thine anger from him. Heal his soul, O Lord, which has greatly sinned against thee; and then, if it be thy blessed will, heal his body also. Restore the voice of joy and health unto his dwelling, that he may live to praise thee and be an instrument of thy glory, by doing good in his generation. But if, in thy great wisdom, thou hast otherwise determined, and seest it best to take him out of this world, O fit and prepare him for that hour; and deliver him not, we beseech thee, into the bitter pains of eternal death. Thou knowest the secrets of his heart; O shut not thy merciful ears to his prayers, but hear him, O Lord most holy! O God most mighty! O holy and merciful Saviour, thou most worthy Judge eternal, suffer him not, at his last hour, for any pains of death, to fall from thee. And O thou tender and compassionate lover of souls, we most earnestly beseech thee, that when the time appointed for his great change shall come, thou wilt have mercy on him, and deliver him, and strengthen him in his conflict; that thou wilt support him in his dying agonies, and defend him from the enemy, and from his terrors, and show him the light of thy countenance, that he may know and be assured that thou art perfectly at peace with him, and that thou wilt receive him into the blessed company of saints and angels in thy heavenly habitation, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A Prayer with one who is very ill.

WE bow down before thee, O Lord of heaven and earth, acknowledging that we are but dust, and unworthy to speak to thee, either for ourselves or others.

When we consider thine infinite wisdom, power, and goodness, our own folly, weakness, and unworthiness, and our vast distance from thee, we desire with great humility to confess, that we are as nothing and vanity. But thy condescending goodness encourages our approaches to the throne of mercy with hope and confidence, to solicit thy favour both for ourselves and our fellow-creatures.

We would, therefore, especially implore thy tender compassion upon this our sick brother, who desires our prayers. Gracious God, look down upon him with pity, and support him under thine afflicting hand. Work in him true repentance for all the sins he has committed against thee in thought, word, and deed. Give him a lively and steadfast faith in Christ Jesus; fill him with a lively hope of that immortal life, which Christ has purchased and promised to all true believers; fill him with a powerful sense of thy fatherly love and tender care over him in his most afflicted condition. Bestow on him thy heavenly supports and comforts, and give him patience and submission to thy holy will during this visitation of sickness.

We know, great God, that with thee there is nothing impossible. If thou wilt, thou canst raise him up, and grant him a longer continuance in this world. May it be thy gracious pleasure to restore him to us! May it please thee to save and deliver him for thy goodness' sake, O Lord. Direct and bless the means which may be used for his recovery, and make them effectual. Command the disease to relinquish him by thine almighty word, that he may again be restored to health and usefulness. And in the mean time help him meekly to resign himself to thy disposal, and quietly to wait for ease and comfort here, or for everlasting rest and happiness in a future state, through Jesus Christ, who is the resurrection and the life. Amen.

¶ A Litany and Commendatory Prayer for a Sick Person.

(Chiefly from Bishop Andrews.)

O GOD, the Father of Heaven,

Have mercy upon him ;

Keep and defend him.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the world,

Have mercy upon him ;

Save and deliver him.

O God the Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son,

Have mercy upon him ;

Strengthen and comfort him.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity,

Have mercy upon him.

Remember not, Lord, his offences ; call not to mind the offences of his forefathers ; but spare him, good Lord, spare thy servant whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood, and be not angry with him for ever.

Spare him, good Lord.

From thy wrath and heavy indignation ; from the fear of Death ; from the guilt and burden of his sins ; and from the dreadful sentence of the last judgment,

Good Lord, deliver him.

From the sting and terrors of conscience ; from the danger of impatience, distrust, or despair ; and from the extremity of sickness, anguish, or agony, that may any way withdraw his mind from thee,

Good Lord, deliver him.

From the bitter pangs of eternal Death ; from the gates of hell ; from the powers of darkness ; and from the illusions and assaults of our spiritual enemy,

Good Lord, deliver him.

From all danger and distress ; from all terrors and torments ; from all pains and punishments, both of the body and the soul,

Good Lord, deliver him.

By thy manifold and great mercies ; by the manifold and great mercies of Jesus Christ thy Son ; by his fearful and unknown sufferings ; by his agony and bloody sweat ; by his strong crying and tears ; by his bitter cross and passion ; by his mighty resurrection, and glorious ascension ; by his effectual and most acceptable intercession and mediation ; and by the graces and comforts of the Holy Ghost,

Good Lord, deliver him.

In his time of extremity ; in his last and greatest need ; in the hour of death, and in the day of judgment,

Good Lord, deliver him.

We sinners do beseech thee to hear us, O Lord God ; and that it may please thee to be his defender and keeper ; to remember him with the favour thou bearest unto thy people, and to visit him with thy salvation ;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to save and deliver his soul from the power of the enemy, and whensoever his soul shall depart from the body, to receive it to thy mercy ;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to be merciful, and to forgive all his sins and misdeeds, which at any time of his life he hath committed against thee ;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to make him partaker of all thy mercies and promises in Christ Jesus ;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to vouchsafe his soul the estate of joy, bliss, and happiness, with all thy blessed saints, in thy heavenly kingdom ;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to grant his body rest and peace, and a part in the blessed resurrection of life and glory ;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

Son of God, we beseech thee to hear us.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world ;
Grant him thy peace.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world ;
Have mercy upon him.

Into thy merciful hands, O Lord, we commend the soul of this thy servant. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech thee, this work of thine own hands, this sheep of thine own fold, this lamb of thine own flock, this sinner of thine own redeeming. Receive him finally, through thy unspeakable mercy, into the sacred rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious estate of thy chosen saints in Heaven. Amen.

God the Father, who hath created thee; God the Son, who hath redeemed thee; God the Holy Ghost, who hath infused his Grace into thee; be now, and evermore thy defence; assist thee in thy last trial, and bring thee into the way of everlasting life. Amen.

Christ, that redeemed thee with his agony and bloody death, have mercy upon thee, and strengthen and support thee. Amen.

Christ Jesus, that rose the third day from the dead, raise up thy body again in the resurrection of the just. Amen.

Christ, that ascended into Heaven, and now sitteth at the right hand of God, bring thee to the place of eternal happiness and joy. Amen.

God the Father, preserve and keep thee; God the Son, assist and strengthen thee; God the Holy Spirit, defend and aid thee; God the Holy Trinity, be ever with thee; that thy death may be precious in the sight of the Lord, with whom thou shalt live for evermore. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for a Sick Person at the point of departure.

(From Bishop Taylor.)

O HOLY and most gracious Jesus, we humbly recommend the soul of thy servant into thy most merciful hands: Let thy blessed Angels stand in ministry about thy servant, and defend him from the violence and malice of all his spiritual enemies, and drive far from hence all the spirits of darkness. Amen.

II.

Lord, receive the soul of this thy servant: enter not into judgment with him; spare him whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and deliver him for whose sake thou didst suffer death, from all evil and mischief, from the crafts and assaults of the devil; from the fear of death, and from everlasting death. Amen.

III.

Lord, impute not unto him the follies of his youth, nor any of the errors and miscarriages of his life ; but strengthen him in his agony, and carry him safely through this last distress. Let not his faith waver, nor his hope fail, nor his charity be disordered ; let him die in peace, rest in hope, and rise in glory. Amen.

IV.

Lord, we know and believe assuredly, that whatsoever is under thy custody cannot be taken out of thy hands, nor by all the violences of hell robbed of thy protection : preserve the work of thy hand, rescue him from all evil ; and let his portion be with the patriarchs and prophets, with the apostles and martyrs, and all thy holy saints, in the arms of Christ, in the bosom of felicity, and the kingdom of God for ever.

O SAVIOUR of the world, who by thy cross and precious blood hast redeemed us ; save and help this thy departing servant, we beseech thee, O Lord. Amen.

UNTO thy gracious mercy and protection we commit him. O God the Father, bless him and keep him. O God the Son, make thy face to shine upon him, and be gracious unto him. O God the Holy Ghost, lift up thy countenance upon him, and give him thy peace, both now and evermore. Amen.

† A Thanksgiving after Recovery.

O MOST mighty God and merciful Father, we thy unworthy servants, desire now in behalf of this thy servant, whom thou hast raised up from a dangerous sickness, to return thee hearty thanks, acknowledging it to be owing to thy goodness alone that he is now alive, and has once more an opportunity of offering up his prayers and praises at the throne of grace. Thou, O Lord, hast chastened him, and corrected him, but hast not given him over unto death ; blessed therefore be that divine wisdom which saw this late affliction seasonable. Blessed be that tender compassion, which, in the midst of wrath, remembered mercy; which made all his bed in his sickness, passed by his many infirmities, and inclined a willing ear unto his supplications, when he cried unto thee in the time of his distress: blessed be the powerful influence of that grace which disposed his heart to consideration and repentance. But, above all, blessed for ever be that power and goodness, which, by sparing him when he had deserved to be cut off, has now given him an opportunity of rectifying the errors of his past life, and reforming whatever is amiss in him.

O Lord, let not this goodness of thine, nor his own serious purpose of better obedience, ever slip out of his mind; but preserve in him a constant tender sense of the great obligations he is under of serving thee faithfully all his days; make him every day more and more zealous in promoting thy glory and the good of his brethren; in studying to please thee better than he has ever yet done; and in devoting the remainder of that life which thou hast given him, to the service of thee, his gracious Benefactor.

Give him grace humbly to offer and present unto thee his soul and body, which thou hast so mercifully preserved, beseeching thee to take them into thy custody. O let not the return of his health be accompanied with a return to his former sins and follies; but let the experience he has had, how little any thing will profit in the time of trouble besides a good conscience, so effectually convince him of the necessity of a good life, so powerfully persuade him to the practice of religion, that he may make it the great study and endeavour, the constant business and employment of his whole life, to love, adore and serve thee, and in all things to become such as thou wouldst have him to be.

But, O Lord, forasmuch as without thee he is not able to please thee, mercifully grant unto him such a measure of thy grace as may enable him to amend whatever has been amiss in the temper and disposition of his mind, or in any of the actions of his life. Oh! let him never more be led away by the deceitful promises of the world, the flesh, or the devil; but grant, O our God, that his hopes and affections may be unalterably fixed upon that eternal and unchangeable happiness which thou hast prepared for them that love thee. Let the thoughts and expectations of death and judgment be so constantly, so powerfully present to his soul, as effectually to work upon his mind, and to bring forth in him the fruits of a holy and religious life. Let the pains and troubles he has lately felt, inspire him with a tender pity and compassion for the miseries and calamities of others, and make him ready, upon all occasions, to contribute what he can to the wants and necessities of his brethren: and oh! let those talents which thou hast afresh committed to his trust, be so faithfully improved for thy glory, the good of others, and the benefit of his own soul, that whenever thou shalt call him to give an account of his stewardship, he may not be condemned as an unprofitable servant, but may be found such an one as thou shalt then pronounce faithful, and bid to enter into the joy of his Lord.

Grant this, O merciful Father, through the merits and for the sake of thy dear Son Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom, with thee and the ever-blessed Spirit, be ascribed, as is most due, by him and every creature, all honour, glory, power, dominion, thanksgiving and praise, throughout all ages. Amen.

The first Sunday in Advent.

ALmighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious Majesty to judge both the quick and dead, we may rise to the life immortal, through him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

The second Sunday in Advent.

BLESSED Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning; grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience, and comfort of thy holy Word, we may embrace, and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The third Sunday in Advent.

OLORD Jesus Christ, who at thy first coming didst send thy Messenger to prepare thy way before thee; grant that the Ministers and Stewards of thy mysteries may likewise so prepare and make ready thy way, by turning the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, that, at thy second coming to judge the world, we may be found an acceptable people in thy sight, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The fourth Sunday in Advent.

OLORD, raise up, we pray thee, thy power, and come among us, and with great might succour us; that whereas, through our sins and wickedness, we are sore let and hindered in running the race that is set before us, thy bountiful grace and mercy may speedily help and deliver us, through the satisfaction of thy Son our Lord; to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

The Nativity of our Lord, or the Birth-day of Christ, commonly called Christmas-day, and the Sunday after.

ALmighty God, who hast given us thy only-begotten Son to take our nature upon him, and as at this time to be born of a pure Virgin; grant that we, being regenerate and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy holy Spirit, through the same our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Circumcision of Christ.

ALMIGHTY God, who madest thy Blessed Son to be circumcised, and obedient to the law for man; grant us the true circumcision of the Spirit, that, our hearts and all our members being mortified from all worldly and carnal lusts, we may in all things obey thy blessed will, through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epiphany, or the Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles.

O GOD, who by the leading of a Star didst manifest thy only-begotten Son to the Gentiles; mercifully grant that we, who know thee now by faith, may after this life have the fruition of thy glorious Godhead, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The first Sunday after Epiphany.

O LORD, we beseech thee mercifully to receive the prayers of thy people who call upon thee; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Second Sunday after the Epiphany.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who dost govern all things in heaven and earth; mercifully hear the supplications of thy people, and grant us thy peace all the days of our life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The third Sunday after the Epiphany.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, mercifully look upon our infirmities, and in all our dangers and necessities stretch forth thy right hand to help and defend us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The fourth Sunday after the Epiphany.

O GOD, who knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright; grant to us such strength and protection, as may support us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The fifth Sunday after the Epiphany.

O LORD, we beseech thee to keep thy Church and Household continually in thy true religion, that they who do lean only upon the hope of thy heavenly grace, may evermore be defended by thy mighty power, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The sixth Sunday after the Epiphany.

O GOD, whose blessed Son was manifested that he might destroy the works of the devil, and make us the sons of God, and Heirs of eternal life; grant us, we beseech thee, that having this hope, we may purify ourselves, even as he is pure; that when he shall appear again with power and great glory, we may be made like unto him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where, with thee, O Father, and thee, O Holy Ghost, he liveth and reigneth, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Sunday called Septuagesima, or the third Sunday before Lent.

O LORD, we beseech thee favourably to hear the prayers of thy people, that we, who are justly punished for our offences, may be mercifully delivered by thy goodness, for the glory of thy name, through Jesus Christ our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Sunday called Sexagesima, or the second Sunday before Lent.

O LORD God, who seest that we put not our trust in any thing that we do; mercifully grant that by thy power we may be defended against all adversity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Sunday called Quinquagesima, or the next Sunday before Lent.

O LORD, who hast taught us that all our doings without charity are nothing worth; send thy Holy Ghost, and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of charity, the very bond of peace, and of all virtues; without which, whosoever liveth is counted dead before thee: Grant this for thine only Son Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

The first Day of Lent, commonly called Ash-Wednesday.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all those who are penitent; create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The first Sunday in Lent.

O LORD, who for our sake didst fast forty days and forty nights, give us grace to use such abstinence, that our flesh being subdued to the Spirit, we may ever obey thy godly motions in righteousness and true holiness, to thy honour and glory, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

The second Sunday in Lent.

ALMIGHTY God, who seest that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves; keep us both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our souls; that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The third Sunday in Lent.

WE beseech thee, Almighty God, look upon the hearty desires of thy humble servants, and stretch forth the right hand of thy Majesty, to be our defence against all our enemies, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The fourth Sunday in Lent.

GRANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that we, who for our evil deeds do worthily deserve to be punished, by the comfort of thy grace may mercifully be relieved, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The fifth Sunday in Lent.

WE beseech thee, Almighty God, mercifully to look upon thy people; that by thy great goodness they may be governed and preserved evermore, both in body and soul, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Sunday next before Easter.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who, of thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, to take upon him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the cross, that all mankind should follow the example of his great humility; mercifully grant that we may both follow the example of his patience, and also be made partakers of his resurrection, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Good-Friday.

ALMIGHTY God, we beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the cross, who now liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified; receive our supplications and prayers, which we offer before thee for all estates of men in thy holy Church, that every member of the same, in his vocation and ministry, may truly and godly serve thee, through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

OMERCIFUL God, who hast made all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, nor desirest the death of a sinner, but rather that he should be converted and live; have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels, and Heretics; and take from them all ignorance, hardness of heart, and contempt of thy word; and so fetch them home, blessed Lord, to thy flock, that they may be saved among the remnant of the true Israelites, and be made one fold under one shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

Easter-Even.

GRANT, O Lord that as we are baptized into the death of thy blessed Son our Saviour Jesus Christ, so by continual mortifying our corrupt affections, we may be buried with him; and that through the grave and gate of death we may pass to our joyful resurrection, for his merits, who died, and was buried, and rose again for us, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Easter-Day, and Monday and Tuesday in Easter-Week.

ALMIGHTY God, who through thine only-begotten Son Jesus Christ hast overcome death, and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; we humbly beseech thee, that as, by thy special grace preventing us, thou dost put into our minds good desires: so by thy continual help we may bring the same to good effect, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The first Sunday after Easter.

ALMIGHTY Father, who hast given thine only Son to die for our sins, and to rise again for our justification; grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness, that we may always serve thee in pureness of living and truth, through the merits of the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The second Sunday after Easter.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given thine only Son to be unto us both a sacrifice for sin, and also an ensample of godly life; give us grace that we may always most thankfully receive that his inestimable benefit, and also daily endeavour ourselves to follow the blessed steps of his most holy life, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The third Sunday after Easter.

ALMIGHTY God, who showest to them that are in error the light of thy truth, to the intent that they may return into the way of righteousness; grant unto all those who are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion, that they may avoid those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The fourth Sunday after Easter.

OALMIGHTY God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men; grant unto thy people, that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The fifth Sunday after Easter.

OLORD, from whom all good things do come; grant to us thy humble servants, that by thy holy inspiration we may think those things that are good, and by thy merciful guiding may perform the same, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Ascension-Day.

GRANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that like as we do believe thy only-begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ to have ascended into the heavens; so we may also in heart and mind thither ascend, and with him continually dwell, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

Sunday after Ascension-Day.

O GOD, the king of glory, who hast exalted thine only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph unto thy kingdom in heaven; we beseech thee leave us not comfortless; but send to us thine Holy Ghost to comfort us, and exalt us unto the same place whither our Saviour Christ is gone before; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

Whitsunday, and Monday and Tuesday in Whitsun-Week.

O GOD, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort, through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

Trinity-Sunday.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hast given unto us thy servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of the divine Majesty to worship the Unity; we beseech thee that thou wouldest keep us steadfast in his faith, and evermore defend us from all adversities, who livest and reignest one God, world without end. Amen.

The first Sunday after Trinity.

O GOD, the strength of all those who put their trust in thee, mercifully accept our prayers; and because, through the weakness of our mortal nature, we can do no good thing without thee, grant us the help of thy grace, that in keeping thy commandments we may please thee, both in will and deed, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The second Sunday after Trinity.

O LORD, who never failest to help and govern those whom thou dost bring up in thy steadfast fear and love; keep us, we beseech thee, under the protection of thy good providence, and make us to have a perpetual fear and love of thy holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The third Sunday after Trinity.

O LORD, we beseech thee mercifully to hear us; and grant that we, to whom thou hast given an hearty desire to pray, may, by thy mighty aid, be defended and comforted in all dangers and adversities, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The fourth Sunday after Trinity.

O GOD, the protector of all that trust in thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy; increase and multiply upon us thy mercy; that thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal: Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake our Lord. Amen.

The fifth Sunday after Trinity.

GRANT, O Lord, we beseech thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The sixth Sunday after Trinity.

O GOD, who hast prepared for those who love thee, such good things as pass man's understanding; pour into our hearts such love towards thee, that we, loving thee above all things, may obtain thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The seventh Sunday after Trinity.

LORD of all power and might, who art the Author and giver of all good things; graft in our hearts the love of thy name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep us in the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The eighth Sunday after Trinity.

O GOD, whose never failing providence ordereth all things both in heaven and earth; we humbly beseech thee to put away from us all hurtful things, and to give us those things which are profitable for us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The ninth Sunday after Trinity.

GRANT to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right; that we who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The tenth Sunday after Trinity.

LET thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of thy humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions, make them to ask such things as shall please thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The eleventh Sunday after Trinity.

O GOD, who declarest thy Almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity; mercifully grant unto us such a measure of thy grace, that we, running the way of thy commandments, may obtain thy gracious promises, and be made partakers of thy heavenly treasure, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The twelfth Sunday after Trinity.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire or deserve; pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy, forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.

The thirteenth Sunday after Trinity.

ALMIGHTY and merciful God, of whose only gift it cometh that thy faithful people do unto thee true and laudable service; grant, we beseech thee, that we may so faithfully serve thee in this life, that we fail not finally to attain thy heavenly promises, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The fourteenth Sunday after Trinity.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity; and that we may obtain that which thou dost promise, make us to love that which thou dost command, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The fifteenth Sunday after Trinity.

KEEP, we beseech thee, O Lord, thy Church with thy perpetual mercy: And because the frailty of man without thee cannot but fall, keep us ever by thy help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The sixteenth Sunday after Trinity.

O LORD, we beseech thee, let thy continual pity cleanse and defend thy Church; and because it cannot continue in safety without thy succour, preserve it evermore by thy help and goodness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The seventeenth Sunday after Trinity.

LORD, we pray thee, that thy grace may always prevent and follow us; and make us continually to be given to all good works, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The eighteenth Sunday after Trinity.

LORD, we beseech thee, grant thy people grace to withstand the temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil; and with pure hearts and minds to follow thee, the only God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The nineteenth Sunday after Trinity.

O GOD, forasmuch as without thee we are not able to please thee; mercifully grant that thy Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The twentieth Sunday after Trinity.

O ALMIGHTY and most merciful God, of thy bountiful goodness keep us, we beseech thee, from all things that may hurt us; that we, being ready both in body and soul, may cheerfully accomplish those things which thou commandest, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The twenty-first Sunday after Trinity.

GRANT, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people, pardon and peace; that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The twenty-second Sunday after Trinity.

LORD, we beseech thee to keep thy household the Church in continual godliness; that, through thy protection, it may be free from all adversities, and devoutly given to serve thee in good works, to the glory of thy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The twenty-third Sunday after Trinity.

O GOD, our refuge and strength, who art the author of all godliness; be ready, we beseech thee, to hear the devout prayers of thy Church; and grant that those things which we ask faithfully, we may obtain effectually, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The twenty-fourth Sunday after Trinity.

O LORD, we beseech thee, absolve thy people from their offences; that, through thy bountiful goodness, we may all be delivered from the bands of those sins which by our frailty we have committed: Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

The twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity.

STIR up, we beseech thee, O Lord, the wills of thy faithful people; that they plenteously bringing forth, the fruit of good works, may by thee be plenteously rewarded, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Andrew's Day.

ALMIGHTY God, who didst give such grace unto thy holy Apostle Saint Andrew, that he readily obeyed the calling of thy Son Jesus Christ, and followed him without delay; grant unto us all, that we, being called by thy holy word, may forthwith give up ourselves obediently to fulfil thy holy commandments, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Thomas the Apostle.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, who, for the greater confirmation of the faith, didst suffer thy holy Apostle Thomas to be doubtful in thy Son's resurrection; grant us so perfectly, and without all doubt, to believe in thy Son Jesus Christ, that our faith in thy sight may never be reprov'd. Hear us, O Lord, through the same Jesus Christ; to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, now and for evermore. Amen.

Saint Stephen's Day.

GRANT, O Lord, that in all our sufferings here upon earth, for the testimony of thy truth, we may steadfastly look up to heaven, and by faith behold the glory that shall be revealed; and being filled with the Holy Ghost, may learn to love and bless our persecutors, by the example of thy first martyr Saint Stephen, who prayed for his murderers to thee, O blessed Jesus, who standest at the right hand of God, to succour all those who suffer for thee, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

Saint John the Evangelist's Day.

MERCIFUL Lord, we beseech thee to cast thy bright beams of light upon thy Church, that it being instructed by the doctrine of thy blessed Apostle and Evangelist St. John, may so walk in the light of thy truth, that it may at length attain to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Innocents' Day.

O ALMIGHTY God, who out of the mouths of babes and sucklings hast ordained strength, and madest infants to glorify thee by their deaths: mortify and kill all vices in us, and so strengthen us by thy grace, that by the innocency of our lives, and constancy of our faith even unto death, we may glorify thy holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Conversion of Saint Paul.

O GOD, who, through the preaching of the blessed Apostle Saint Paul, hast caused the light of the Gospel to shine throughout the world; grant, we beseech thee, that we, having his wonderful conversion in remembrance, may show forth our thankfulness unto thee for the same, by following the holy doctrine which he taught, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Presentation of Christ in the Temple, commonly called the Purification of Saint Mary the Virgin.

ALMIGHTY and everliving God, we humbly beseech thy Majesty, that as thy only begotten Son was this day presented in the Temple in substance of our flesh; so we may be presented unto thee with pure and clean hearts, by the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Matthias's Day.

O ALMIGHTY God, who into the place of the traitor Judas, didst choose thy faithful servant Matthias, to be of the number of the twelve Apostles; grant that thy Church, being always preserved from false Apostles, may be ordered and guided by faithful and true Pastors, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

WE beseech thee, O Lord, pour thy grace into our hearts; that as we have known the incarnation of thy Son Jesus Christ by the message of an angel; so by his cross and passion we may be brought unto the glory of his resurrection, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Mark's Day.

O ALMIGHTY God, who hast instructed thy holy Church with the heavenly doctrine of thy Evangelist Saint Mark; give us grace, that being not like children carried away with every blast of vain doctrine, we may be established in the truth of thy holy Gospel, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Philip and Saint James's Day.

O ALMIGHTY God, whom truly to know is everlasting life; grant us perfectly to know thy Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life; that following the steps of thy holy Apostles, Saint Philip and Saint James, we may steadfastly walk in the way that leadeth to eternal life, through the same thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Barnabas the Apostle.

O LORD God Almighty, who didst endue thy holy Apostle Barnabas with singular gifts of the Holy Ghost; leave us not, we beseech thee, destitute of thy manifold gifts, nor yet of grace to use them alway to thy honour and glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint John Baptist's Day.

A LMIGHTY God, by whose providence thy servant John Baptist was wonderfully born, and sent to prepare the way of thy Son our Saviour, by preaching repentance; make us so to follow his doctrine and holy life, that we may truly repent according to his preaching; and after his example constantly speak the truth, boldly rebuke vice, and patiently suffer for the truth's sake, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Peter's Day.

O ALMIGHTY God, who, by thy Son Jesus Christ, didst give to thy Apostle Saint Peter many excellent gifts, and commandest him earnestly to feed thy flock; make, we beseech thee, all Bishops and Pastors diligently to preach thy holy Word, and the people obediently to follow the same, that they may receive the crown of everlasting glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint James the Apostle.

GRANT, O merciful God, that as thine holy Apostle Saint James, leaving his father and all that he had, without delay was obedient unto the calling of thy Son Jesus Christ, and followed him; so we, forsaking all worldly and carnal affections, may be evermore ready to follow thy holy commandments, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Bartholomew the Apostle.

O ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who didst give to thine Apostle Bartholomew grace truly to believe and to preach thy word; grant, we beseech thee, unto thy Church, to love that word which he believed; and both to preach and receive the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Matthew the Apostle.

O ALMIGHTY God, who by thy blessed Son didst call Matthew from the receipt of custom, to be an Apostle and Evangelist; grant us grace to forsake all covetous desires, and inordinate love of riches; and to follow the same thy Son Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

Saint Michael and all Angels.

O EVERLASTING God, who hast ordained and constituted the services of Angels and men in a wonderful order; mercifully grant, that as thy holy Angels always do thee service in heaven; so, by thy appointment, they may succour and defend us on earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Luke the Evangelist.

ALMIGHTY God, who calledst Luke the Physician, whose praise is in the Gospel, to be an Evangelist and Physician of the soul; may it please thee, that by the wholesome medicines of the doctrine delivered by him, all the diseases of our souls may be healed, through the merits of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Simon and Saint Jude, Apostles.

O ALMIGHTY God, who hast built thy Church upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the head corner-stone; grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their doctrine, that we may be made an holy temple acceptable unto thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

All Saints' Day.

O ALMIGHTY God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord; grant us grace so to follow thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which thou hast prepared for those who unfeignedly love thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

As in some places, the fourth day of July, the commemoration of American Independence, is celebrated with religious services, it is deemed expedient to insert the following form. It was set forth in a Convention of our Church in certain States in 1785, in what was called the Proposed Book.

A FORM OF PRAYER AND THANKSGIVING
TO ALMIGHTY GOD,

For the inestimable Blessings of Religious and Civil Liberty; to be used Yearly on the Fourth Day of July, unless it happen to be on Sunday, and then on the Day following.

¶ The Service shall be as usual, except where it is hereby otherwise appointed.

¶ Among the Sentences at Morning Prayer shall be the following:

THE eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. Deut. xxxiii. 27.

Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: The fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew. Deut. xxxiii. 28.

Happy art thou, O Israel: who is like unto thee, O people favoured by the Lord: the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thy excellency. Deut. xxxiii. 29.

The Lord hath been mindful of us, and he shall bless us; he shall bless them that fear him, both small and great. Psalms cxv. 12, 13.

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness, and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men. Psalms cvii. 21.

¶ Instead of O come let us sing, &c. the following Hymn shall be said or sung:

MY song shall be alway of the loving-kindness of the Lord: with my mouth will I ever be showing his truth from one generation to another.

The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done his marvellous works, that they ought to be had in remembrance.

Who can express the noble acts of the Lord, or show forth all his praise.

The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

For he will not alway be chiding; neither keepeth he his anger for ever.

He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our wickedness.

For look how high the heaven is in comparison of the earth; so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children; even so is the Lord merciful unto them that fear him.

Thou, O God, hast proved us; thou also hast tried us, like as silver is tried.

Thou didst remember us in our low estate, and redeem us from our enemies; for thy mercy endureth for ever.

¶ Then shall be said the tenth Selection of Psalms.

¶ The first Lesson shall be, Deut. viii. and the second Lesson shall be, 1 Thess. v. 12-24.

¶ A Thanksgiving for the Day, to be said after the General Thanksgiving.

O GOD, whose name is excellent in all the earth, and thy glory above the heavens; who as on this day didst inspire and direct the hearts of our Delegates in Congress, to lay the perpetual foundations of peace, liberty, and safety; we bless and adore thy glorious Majesty for this thy loving-kindness and providence. And we humbly pray that the devout sense of this signal mercy may renew and increase in us a spirit of love and thankfulness to thee its only author, a spirit of peaceable submission to the laws and government of our country, and a spirit of fervent zeal for our holy religion, which thou hast preserved and secured to us and our posterity. May we improve these inestimable blessings for the advancement of religion, liberty, and science, throughout this land, till the wilderness and solitary place be glad through us, and the desert rejoice and blossom as the rose; this we beg through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

¶ The Collect: to be used instead of that for the Day.

ALmighty God, who hast in all ages showed forth thy power and mercy in the wonderful preservation of thy Church, and in the protection of every nation and people professing thy holy and eternal truth, and putting their sure trust in thee: we yield thee our unfeigned thanks and praise for all thy public mercies, and more especially for that signal and wonderful manifestation of thy providence which we commemorate this day; wherefore not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name be ascribed all honour and glory, in all churches of the saints, from generation to generation, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ The Epistle. Philip. iv. 4.

REJOICE in the Lord alway; and again I say, rejoice. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. Be careful for nothing: but in every thing, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God: And the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Jesus Christ. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, if there be any praise, think on these things.

¶ The Gospel. St. John viii. 31.

THEN said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. They answered him: We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin, is the servant of sin. And the servant abideth not in the house for ever; but the Son abideth ever. If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

SUITABLE TO BE USED IN

STATE LEGISLATURES, CONGRESS,
&c. &c.

When the Clergy are called on to officiate in the State Legislatures or in Congress, the following prayers will be suitable.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire or deserve; pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy, forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.

DIRECT us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favour, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy name; and finally, by thy mercy, obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O LORD, who never failest to help and govern those whom thou dost bring up in thy steadfast fear and love; keep us, we beseech thee, under the protection of thy good providence, and make us to have a perpetual fear and love of thy holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O GOD, the Creator and Preserver of all mankind, we humbly beseech thee for all sorts and conditions of men, that thou wouldest be pleased to make thy ways known unto them, thy saving health unto all nations. More especially we pray for thy holy Church universal, that it may be so guided and governed by thy good Spirit, that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Finally, we commend to thy fatherly goodness, all those who are any ways afflicted or distressed in mind, body, or estate; that it may please thee to comfort and relieve them, according to their several necessities; giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions: and this we beg for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

¶ Then may be used the prayer and Collect in the foregoing services for Thanksgiving Day and the Fourth of July, altered as exigencies may require.

FORM OF PRAYER

AT THE

LAYING OF THE CORNER-STONE

OF A CHURCH OR CHAPEL.

¶ When it is deemed expedient to have public worship on occasion of the laying of the corner-stone of a Church or Chapel, the service for the day shall be used, as set forth in the book of Common Prayer, except that the proper psalms and lessons shall be as follows.

PROPER PSALMS.

Psalms 48, 118.

PROPER LESSONS.

First Lesson, 2 Chronicles, ii. to verse 13.

Second Lesson, 1 Corinthians, iii.

¶ At the time of the laying of the stone, the Bishop, with the Clergy, the Wardens and Vestrymen of the Parish, and others, shall go up, in procession, to the place where the Church or Chapel is to be erected, repeating the following Psalm:

Psalm 122. Lætatus sum.

I WAS glad when they said unto me, We will go into the house of the Lord.

2 Our feet shall stand in thy gates, O Jerusalem.

3 Jerusalem is built as a city that is at unity in itself.

4 For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord, to testify unto Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord.

5 For there is the seat of judgment, even the seat of the house of David.

6 O pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper that love thee.

7 Peace be within thy walls, and plenteousness within thy palaces.

8 For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will wish thee prosperity.

9 Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek to do thee good.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

† The Bishop, standing near the corner-stone, shall say,

Christian Brethren,—It is decent, and proper, and agreeable to the precepts and examples of Holy Writ, that in all our doings we should beseech Almighty God, from whom cometh every good and perfect gift, to direct us with his most gracious favour, and to further us with his continual help. Especially, therefore, when we are now assembled to commence a house which is to be set apart to his honour and service, and in which his holy name is to be worshipped, and his word and sacraments to be proclaimed and celebrated, by the ministry whom he hath commissioned, let us humbly and devoutly supplicate his assistance, protection, and blessing.

ALmighty and everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire or deserve; pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy, forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord. Amen.

STIR up, we beseech thee, O Lord, the wills of thy faithful people; that they plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may by thee be plenteously rewarded through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DIRECT us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favour, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy name; and finally, by thy mercy, obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name; Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven; Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then the inscription on the stone, if any, shall be read, and notice may be given of deposits made therein.

¶ Then the corner-stone being laid in its place, the Bishop shall say,

Our help is in the name of the Lord;

Ans. Who hath made heaven and earth.

Bp. Except the Lord build the house, their labour is but lost that build it.

¶ Then the Bishop, striking the stone three times with a hammer, shall say,

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. I lay the corner-stone of an edifice to be here erected by the name of _____ Church [or Chapel,] and to be devoted to the service of Almighty God, agreeably to the principles of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, in its doctrines, ministry, liturgy, rites, and usages.

Other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, even Jesus Christ; who is God over all, blessed for evermore; and in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins. Amen.

Bp. O Lord, open thou our lips;

Ans. And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Bp. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

Ans. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.

Bp. Praise ye the Lord.

Ans. The Lord's name be praised.

¶ Then shall be said or sung the following Hymn:

O praise the Lord, laud ye the name of the Lord: praise it, O ye servants of the Lord. Psalm cxxxv. 1.

2 Ye that stand in the house of the Lord; in the courts of the house of our God. Verse 2.

3 O praise the Lord, for the Lord is gracious: O sing praises unto his name, for it is lovely. Verse 3.

4 The Lord is gracious and merciful, long suffering, and of great goodness. Psalm cxlv. 8.

5 The Lord is loving unto every man; and his mercy is over all his works. Verse 9.

6 All thy works praise thee, O Lord; and thy saints give thanks unto thee. Verse 10.

7 The Lord doth build up Jerusalem; and gather together the outcasts of Israel. Psalm cxlvii. 2.

8 He healeth those that are broken in heart; and giveth medicine to heal their sickness. Verse 3.

9 The Lord's delight is in them that fear him, and put their trust in his mercy. Verse 11.

10 Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem; Praise thy God, O Zion. Verse 12.

11 For he hath made fast the bars of thy gates; and hath blessed thy children within thee. Verse 13.

12 He maketh peace in thy borders; and filleth thee with flour of wheat. Verse 14.

13 He is our God, even the God of whom cometh salvation. God is the Lord, by whom we escape death. Psalm lxxviii. 20.

14 O God, wonderful art thou in thy holy places, even the God of Israel; he will give strength and power unto his people. Blessed be God. Verse 35.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Bp. The law was given by Moses;

Peop. But grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

Bp. and Peop. Who is God over all, blessed for evermore. Amen.

¶ Then shall the Bishop say,

Let us pray.

BLESSED be thy name, O Lord, that it hath pleased thee to put it into the hearts of thy servants to commence the erection of a building in which thy holy name is to be worshipped, and the messages of reconciliation are to be proclaimed, and the means and pledges of thy grace and mercy administered. Prosper thou them, O God, in this their undertaking; O prosper thou their handy work. Give to those who have the management of the concerns of this congregation, unity of council, purity of intention, and a supreme aim at the advancement of thy glory, in promoting the extension and interests of thy holy Church, appointed for the salvation of mankind. Guard by thy providence every thing which may appertain to the building which is now begun in thy fear, and in dependence on thy blessing. Excite the skill and animate the industry of the superintendents and workmen. Protect them from accident, and from danger. And grant that all who are in any way connected with this temple to be made with hands, may seek those influences of thy Holy Spirit by which their souls will be made temples holy unto thee, and prepared for that city of the living God, which is eternal in the heavens. Animate us all who are here present, O God of our salvation, with the same holy purpose; that seeking supremely thy mercy and favour, through thy Son our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, in the ordinances of thy sanctuary on earth, we may finally be admitted to unite in the praises, and to partake of the felicity, of the company of the redeemed, in the courts of the heavenly Zion. And hasten, we beseech thee, the time when thy Church, at unity in itself, shall serve thee in godly quietness, and when all who profess thy holy name, may agree in the truth of thy holy word, and be one in that faithful communion with the mystical body of thy Son, by which they will grow up unto him in all things; and glorifying thee in thy Church on earth, with one heart and one mouth, be finally numbered with thy saints in thy Church triumphant. All which we ask through the merits of the same thy Son Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

¶ Here shall follow the address, if any be delivered on the occasion. There may also be sung a portion from the Psalms or Hymns in metre, or the Gloria in Excelsis, or some other hymn or anthem from the Liturgy, or the Holy Scriptures.

¶ Then shall the Bishop say,

Let us pray.

O LORD, we beseech thee, let thy continual pity cleanse and defend thy Church; and because it cannot continue in safety without thy succour, preserve it evermore by thy help and goodness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O GOD, the protector of all that trust in thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy; increase and multiply upon us thy mercy; that thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal. Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake our Lord. Amen.

THE peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his son Jesus Christ our Lord. And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and remain with you always. Amen.

¶ In the absence of the Bishop, this service may be performed by the minister of the congregation, or any other minister, provided that if he be only in deacon's orders, he shall, instead of the benediction, say,

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

† A Prayer to be used on visiting Seminaries of Learning.

ALmighty God, the author of all being, and the fountain of all wisdom and knowledge; who hast formed our bodies and endued us with reasonable souls; regard with thy favour and visit with thy blessing this institution [or school] established for the promotion of sound learning and Christian education. Secure to it the patronage needful to the carrying of its good designs into effect. Inspire its teacher [or teachers] with a due sense of his solemn charge, and a suitable degree of wisdom and strength for its fulfilment. Bless the pupils with health, and give them a proper estimate of the advantages they here enjoy. Grant them docility and diligence in the pursuit of knowledge, submission and tractableness under discipline, and a readiness of mind to follow the counsels of wisdom and experience. Inspire them with due respect for their teachers; and fill their young hearts with an ardent love for thee, their Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier. Guard their inexperience, keep them from self-conceit, and shield their virtue from the assaults of the world, the flesh, and the devil. Thus preparing them to fulfil their course with honour, fidelity and success in this life, and to attain the glorious destiny to which thou hast called them in the life to come, through the merits of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

[ This prayer may be prefaced and concluded by any suitable Collects from the Liturgy. ]

¶ A Prayer to be used at any Missionary Meeting, in connection with one or more of the prayers in the Friday's Meditations and Devotions for the Clergy.

O GOD, the fountain of all wisdom and strength, look favourably upon thy servants now assembled to consult for the increase of thy kingdom among sinful men. Animate us with true zeal for thy glory, and true love for the souls of men. Give us a spirit of self-sacrifice and endurance in thy service, free from all self-conceit and vainglorious boasting. Humble us under a sense of our feeble and imperfect efforts. Make thy Spirit our sole reliance for success, and dispose us, when we have done all, to feel that we are unprofitable servants, having only done that which it was our duty to do. Grant this, O Lord, for the sake of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A Prayer to be used, with others from the Liturgy, on laying the Corner-Stone of any edifice for a Literary or Charitable Institution.

ALMIGHTY God, without whom all our purposes are ineffectual and all our efforts vain, grant thy presence and blessing to thy humble servants assembled together to lay, with all solemnity, the corner-stone of an edifice to be devoted to thy honour and the benefit of thy creatures. Inspire our hearts with a humbling sense of our dependence upon thee at all times and in all undertakings. May the foundation of this institution rest upon thy favour. Open the hearts and hands of thy people to give of their abundance for carrying the design into effect. Prosper every effort for its advancement, and every person engaged in its erection and support. May its blessings be enjoyed by many, and conveyed to the remotest generation. Above all, may it be an effectual, though humble, means of advancing thy name and praise among this people. All which we ask through the merits and for the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MEDITATIONS AND DEVOTIONS

---

SUNDAY.

THE first concern of a Minister of Christ, is to have his heart rightly affected towards God and His people.

DO YOU TRUST THAT YOU ARE INWARDLY MOVED BY THE HOLY GHOST, TO TAKE UPON YOU THIS OFFICE AND MINISTRATION, TO SERVE GOD FOR THE PROMOTING OF HIS GLORY, AND THE EDIFYING OF HIS PEOPLE? Ans. I TRUST SO.*

“Jesus said unto Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me, more than these? He said unto him, Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. He saith to him again, the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He saith unto him, the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time lovest thou me; and he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.” John xxi. 15–17. This question of our Lord must be considered as addressed to my own heart. When contemplating the holy ministry, the solemn enquiry was solemnly put to my conscience, by the divine Head of the Church—“Lovest thou me?” When taking upon me, at the altar, the awful vows of devotion and fidelity to Christ, as his Minister, the enquiry was pressed home upon my soul—“Lovest thou me?” And in every place, in every duty and every trial since, the enquiry has followed me with its searching appeal—“Lovest thou me?” Can I, with my eye fixed upon that dreadful day when the secrets of all hearts shall be revealed, affirm with the sorrowing Peter, “Lord, thou knowest all things, thou knowest that I love thee?” And, in proof of my love, does my conscience testify, that I am, in simplicity and godly sincerity, devoting all my thoughts and powers “to feed the flock of Christ, which he hath purchased with his own blood?" "Nothing but sincere love for God and for the souls of men, which he loved so well as to redeem them by his own Son, can carry us through the work of the ministry." And, "that we may have the comfort of knowing that we enter the ministry by a choice which proceeded from God, we must have some assurance from our own hearts, that the glory of God and the good of souls, was in our intention."—BISHOP WILSON.

"Being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the Gospel of God only, but our own souls also, because ye were dear unto us." "I will very gladly spend and be spent for you, though the more abundantly I love, the less I be loved." 2 Cor. xii. 8. 15. Do I feel such a deep and affectionate concern for the people committed to my care? Have I that spirit of unshrinking endurance, which, for their sakes, would bear me up, under the burdens of unrewarded labour and undeserved reproach? "If the motives which determined you to take holy orders, were the glory of God and the good of souls, He will enable you to bear and get the better of all difficulties."—BP. WILSON. "But if a minister wants this qualification, a passionate desire to save souls, he will hardly hear the rest."—BP. BULL.

"Who is sufficient for these things?" 2 Cor. ii. 16. Have I brought to the work of the holy ministry a deep consciousness of its difficulties and dangers? Has a sense of the awful charge committed to me, and the awful account to be demanded of me, overwhelmed my soul and laid me in the dust of self-abasement before God? "Who is sufficient for these things?" exclaims St. Paul. "Whose loins do not tremble at this fearful burden? Who would not be almost tempted to repent himself of his undertaking?" responds one of St. Paul's faithful successors. "We watch for your souls as they that must give account;" declares the apostle. "When I read this," affirms St. Chrysostom, "the consideration shook my inmost soul. What shall one say to those wretched men, who rashly thrust themselves into such an abyss of judgments! all the souls committed to thy conduct, men, women, and children, thou art to give an account of." "It will be a hard task" continues St. Augustine, "for every man to give an account of his own soul; what then must be said of Priests, of whom God will require an account of the souls of so many others committed to their charge?" Have I felt the burden, the seriousness of my undertaking? and while trembling beneath its weight, has my heart taken courage, my spirit been quickened and assured, by the confident words of the apostle, "I can do all things, through Christ which strengtheneth me." Phil. iv. 13. It is the high privilege of every pastor, rightly estimating the character of his sacred office, and duly sensible of his own unworthiness and insufficiency, to claim the promise of Christ's presence and strength with his faithful ministers. Indeed he is endued with "the spirit of Christ," and hence becomes, "strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might." Eph. vi. 10.

"When ye have done all things, which are commanded you, say, we are unprofitable servants, we have done that which was our duty to do." St. Luke xvii. 10. Have I the humility, under this conviction of my unprofitableness, to labour on, and "not be weary in well-doing?" "to glory only in the cross of my Lord and Saviour;" and to feel with penitent David, at every appearance of success, "not unto us O Lord, not unto us, but to thy name give the praise?" "Spiritual pride," remarks an accurate observer, "is the main door of Satan's advantage over the faithful servants of God;" while the good BP. TAYLOR, exhorts;—"avoid all pride, as you would flee from the most frightful apparition, or the most cruel enemy; and remember that you can never truly teach humility, or tell what it is, unless you practice it yourselves. Take no measures of humility, but such as are material and tangible; such which consist not in humble words, and low gestures; but what is first truly radicated in your souls, in low opinion of yourselves, and in real preferring others before yourselves; and in such significations, which can neither deceive yourselves nor others." "God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things that are mighty." 1 Cor. i. 27. "It is God that gives his ministers, when distrusting themselves and ascribing all the glory to him, power over the hearts and souls of men."—BP. WILSON.

O God, the Father of heaven, have mercy upon me, a miserable sinner, and inspire me with thy love.

O God, the Son, Redeemer of the world, have mercy upon me, a miserable sinner, and cleanse my soul with thy most precious blood.

O God, the Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son, have mercy upon me, a miserable sinner; and renew me daily more and more after thine own likeness.

O Holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, three persons and one God, have mercy upon me, a miserable sinner: and as thou hast condescended to put sinful man into the holy ministry of thy Church, vouchsafe to make me meet for the same holy ministry, and save me from the doom of an unfaithful servant.

O LORD, my God, I set thee before my face—I lift up my soul unto thee—I remember that I stand in thy stead—that, thy holy eye is continually upon me—that thou triest the reins and the heart;—have mercy upon me, most merciful Father; For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive me all that is past; and grant that I may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of spirit and life and fidelity, to the honour and glory of thy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PSALM 51. Miserere mei, Deus.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness; according to the multitude of thy mercies, do away mine offences.

2 Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness, and cleanse me from my sin;

3 For I acknowledge my faults, and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight, that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou art judged.

5 Behold, I was shapen in wickedness, and in sin hath my mother conceived me

6 But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts, and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

7 Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness, that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 Turn thy face from my sins, and put out all my misdeeds.

10 Make me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

12 O give me the comfort of thy help again, and stablish me with thy free Spirit.

13 Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked, and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou that art the God of my health; and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.

15 Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord, and my mouth shall show thy praise.

16 For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee; but thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.

17 The sacrifice of God, is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise.

18 O be favourable and gracious unto Sion; build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings and oblations; then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine altar.

O Christ, hear me;

Lord have mercy upon me;

Christ have mercy upon me.

Our Father, who art in heaven, &c.

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid, cleanse the thoughts of my heart, by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that I may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy Holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God, without whom, nothing is strong, nothing is holy; who by thy wise providence, hast appointed divers orders in thy church, and hast put it into the heart of thine unworthy servant to become thy minister; mercifully regard my earnest supplications for wisdom, rightly to understand, and for strength faithfully to discharge, the duties of my sacred trust. Guard me from every snare without—every delusion within. Shield me against whatever might betray my understanding into error, or my heart into sin. Destroy in me all pride, and keep me back from all presumption. Save me from the guilt and misery of a spirit of self-indulgence; and endue me with “the spirit of wisdom, of love, and of a sound mind,” through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSED LORD, who didst give unto thy servant St. Peter, many excellent gifts, and commandest him earnestly to feed thy flock, leave me not destitute of thy heavenly grace; but pour into my heart such fervent love towards thee, and zeal for thy service, that, forsaking all worldly and carnal affections, I may be evermore ready to devote myself—soul, body and spirit, with all their faculties and powers—to thee for the salvation of men. Possess my mind with such an awful apprehension of thy divine majesty, and such a grateful sense of thy marvellous goodness, that all the wishes and desires of my will may centre in what thou hast commanded.

O THOU, who didst fill the hearts of thine ancient servants with overwhelming thoughts of their high commission; suffer me not to be insensible to my holy trust; but, in mercy, quicken my soul with an earnestness and concern, answerable to the work I have undertaken, and the account I am to give. Thou, who didst inspire thy blessed Apostles and Martyrs with courage and strength to fight a good fight, and finish their course in faith; fortify, I beseech thee, my mind against every fear from without, every weakness from within, that after their example, I may constantly speak the truth, boldly rebuke vice, and patiently suffer for the truth's sake. O thou Refuge and Strength of thy people, who seest that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves; enable me to renounce self, and rely wholly upon thee, that I may evermore be enlightened by thy heavenly grace, and upheld and defended by thy mighty power; and finally, when my earthly labours are accomplished, grant, that I may be found, purified in the blood of thy Son, animated by his Spirit, and prostrate in deep humility at his cross; waiting for his coming, and rejoicing in his kingdom; through the same, Jesus Christ our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

MONDAY.

NEXT to a right state of the affections through the motions of the good Spirit of God, the Minister of Christ, to be duly commissioned as Christ's ambassador, must have a solemn designation to his office, by the same good Spirit, through the laying on of hands. Hence the Church, in the name of God, demands secondly:—

DO YOU THINK IN YOUR HEART, THAT YOU ARE TRULY CALLED, ACCORDING TO THE WILL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, AND ACCORDING TO THE CANONS OF THIS CHURCH, TO THE MINISTRY OF THE SAME? * Ans. I THINK IT.

“No man taketh this honour to himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.” Heb. v. 2. Aaron, having an inward preparation of heart, had an outward call of God—was outwardly, before all the people, set apart to his holy office, by divine appointment. Was my ordination to the ministry of Christ, in like manner, according to His express authority, and visible institution? “As my Father sent ME, even so send I you." John xx. 21. My soul, here contemplate the dignity of the sacred office! the divine source of the ministerial commission in the Church of the Living God! the awful presumption of essaying, self-constituted, to act as an ambassador of the King of Kings! Remember, "God hath set in the Church, first, Apostles; secondarily, Prophets; thirdly, Teachers." 1 Cor. xii. 28. Remember, "HE THAT ASCENDED UP ON HIGH, gave some Apostles, some Prophets, some Pastors and Teachers." Eph. iv. 8-11. With what reverence and submission, then, my soul, shouldst thou here bow to the will and appointment of thy God! How cautiously and jealously guard His awful prerogative! Yea, how diligently and prayerfully strive, "to act with the dignity of a man who acts by the authority of God!"—BP. WILSON.

* The question at the ordination of Priests, is substantially the same with this.

"Let no man despise thee." Tit. ii. 15. "That is, demean thyself agreeably to the authority which thou hast received from Jesus Christ; not making thy office contemptible by any mean action, but act with the dignity of one, who stands in the place of God."—BP. WILSON.

"Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God." 1 Cor. iv. 1. "Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us; we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God." 2 Cor. v. 20. Alas! what an office is here! what dignity! what duty! what responsibility! To stand in the place of God;—to be charged with the salvation of men;—to watch for souls as they that must give account! To be "the stewards of all." "The messengers of the churches and the glory of Christ!" 2 Cor. viii. 23. Do I keep in lively "remembrance, into how high a dignity, and to how weighty an office and charge I have been called? That is to say, to be a messenger, watchman, and steward of the Lord; to teach and to premonish, to feed and provide for the Lord's family; to seek for Christ's sheep that are dispersed abroad; and for his children, who are in the midst of this naughty world, that they may be saved through Christ forever?"—OFFICE FOR ORDERING PRIESTS. Do I magnify my office, by an earnest and constant endeavour to imitate the ministry of Him who sent me to act in His stead? To breathe His Spirit, reflect His image, honour His name, and advance His glory, and thus to bring into obedient submission to His will, those whom He died to redeem? Do I keep in memory the awful truth, that "I may have a lawful call to the ministry; and yet for want of answering the ends of my calling, may like Judas, be a traitor to Christ, to the Church, and to my own soul!"—BP. WILSON.

O Christ, Thou compassionate High Priest of our profession, hear me, and have mercy upon me.

O Lord, Thou gracious Bishop and Shepherd of our souls; arise, help me and deliver me, for thy name sake.

O Lord, Thou messenger of light and life from the Father; who hast sent thy unworthy servant to minister in thy stead; arise, help me and deliver me, for thine honour.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, &c.

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire :
 Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart :
 Thy blessed unction from above,
Is comfort, life, and fire of love :
 Enable with perpetual light
The dulness of our blinded sight :
 Anoint and cheer our soiled face
With the abundance of thy grace :
 Keep far our foes, give peace at home,
Where thou art guide, no ill can come :
 Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And thee, of both to be but one :
 That through the ages all along
This may be our endless song :
 Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Our Father who art in heaven, &c.

ALMIGHTY GOD and heavenly Father, who of thine infinite love and goodness towards us, hast given thine only and dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ to be our Redeemer and the Author of everlasting life; who, after he had made perfect our redemption by His death, and was ascended into heaven, poured down His gifts abundantly upon men, making some Apostles, some Prophets, some Evangelists, some Pastors and Teachers, to the edifying and making perfect His Church; for these so great benefits of thine eternal goodness, and for that thou hast vouchsafed to call me, thy most unworthy servant, to the same office and ministry appointed for the salvation of mankind, I render unto thee most hearty thanks; I praise and worship thee; and I humbly beseech thee by the same thy blessed Son, to grant unto me, and all other pastors of thy Church, that we may continue to show ourselves thankful to thee for these and all thy other benefits; and that we may daily increase in knowledge and faith of thee and thy Son by thy Holy Spirit; so that as well by us thy ministers, as by those to whom thou hast appointed us to minister, thy Holy Name may be for ever glorified, and thy blessed kingdom enlarged, through the same, thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

To this end gracious Lord, grant, I beseech thee, that I may be ever mindful of the true dignity of my office; that I am sent of thee my God, to speak for and concerning thee—and remembering whose I am, may I have grace to follow thine example and bring honour to thy great name; “making full proof of my ministry,” not by acts of imperiousness and assumption, but by humility and meekness and anxious concern for the salvation of men; being rather abased by my unworthiness of so great trust than made high minded by the consequence it confers; that thus, using the authority given me, not to destruction but to salvation, not to hurt but to help, I may at last—having as a wise and faithful steward given to thy family their portion in due season, be received into everlasting joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with Thee and the Holy Ghost liveth and reigneth One God world without end. Amen.

TUESDAY.

THE attention of Christ's ministers is next called to the only source of divine knowledge for themselves and their people.

ARE YOU PERSUADED THAT THE HOLY SCRIPTURES CONTAIN ALL DOCTRINE REQUIRED AS NECESSARY FOR ETERNAL SALVATION THROUGH FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST? AND ARE YOU DETERMINED OUT OF THE SAID SCRIPTURES TO INSTRUCT THE PEOPLE COMMITTED TO YOUR CHARGE, AND TO TEACH NOTHING AS NECESSARY TO ETERNAL SALVATION, BUT THAT WHICH YOU SHALL BE PERSUADED MAY BE CONCLUDED AND PROVED BY THE SCRIPTURES? Ans. I AM SO PERSUADED, AND HAVE SO DETERMINED, BY GOD'S GRACE.

WILL YOU BE DILIGENT IN PRAYERS AND IN READING THE HOLY SCRIPTURES, AND IN SUCH STUDIES AS HELP TO THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE SAME, LAYING ASIDE THE STUDY OF THE WORLD AND THE FLESH? Ans. I WILL ENDEAVOR SO TO DO, THE LORD BEING MY HELPER.*

"Then said Jesus unto the twelve, will ye also go away? Then Simon Peter answered Him, Lord to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life." John, vi. 67, 68. "Can the blind lead the blind, shall they not both fall into the ditch?" Luke vi. 39. "If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God." 1 Pet. iv. 11. "Son of man I have set thee a watchman, unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from ME." Ezek. xxxiii. 7. "Go ye, disciple all nations—teaching them to observe all things, whatsoever I have commanded you." Mat. xxviii. 19, 20. "If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ—and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, he is proud, knowing nothing"—1 Tim. vi. 3, 4. "If any man preach any other Gospel unto you, let him be accursed." Gal. i. 9. Here I learn my entire dependence for "the words of eternal life" upon Holy Writ; and the great danger of having recourse to any other oracle. May the Spirit of God open my heart to receive instruction and warning!

"My doctrine is not mine, but His that sent me." John vii. 16. "As my Father hath taught me, I speak these things." John viii. 28. The example of my Divine Teacher—of Him "in whom were hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge"—here demands my imitation. How needful that I follow!—follow, where the great Apostle of the Gentiles durst not refuse. "Though we or an angel from heaven

* I have here followed the order of the questions in the office for the consecration of Bishops as the more natural. The following is the question in that office. "Will you, then, faithfully exercise yourself in the Holy Scriptures, and call upon God by prayer for the true understanding of the same; so that you may be able by them to teach and exhort with wholesome doctrine, and to withstand and convince the gainsayers?"

preach any other Gospel, let him be accursed." Gal. i. 8. "I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech and of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God; for I determined not to know any thing among you save Jesus Christ and him crucified. And I was with you in weakness and in fear, and in much trembling. And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the spirit and of power; that your faith might not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God." 1 Cor. ii. 1-5. "Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ." 1 Cor. iii. 11. Hear, my soul, the words addressed by the same holy Apostle to his Son in the Gospel, as if addressed to thyself—"Hold fast the form of sound words which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Jesus Christ." 2 Tim. i. 13. "Continue, thou in all things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; and that from a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus." 2 Tim. iii. 14, 15. I am here taught, first, to strive with all prayerful diligence for a deep and awe-inspiring conviction both of the divine verity and glorious sufficiency of Holy Writ; and also of the vital truth that what gives value and life to every part of this revealed scheme of man's salvation, is the doctrine of "Faith in Jesus Christ:"—and secondly, that I am to feel the importance of instructing the people, after "the simplicity that is in Christ;" "not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth." 1 Cor. ii. 13.

Further than this, my vows oblige me to "be diligent in prayers and in reading the Holy Scriptures, and in such studies as help to a knowledge of the same, laying aside the study of the world and the flesh." I am here to observe four things—diligence in reading the Holy Scriptures—diligence in prayer to God for the right understanding of them—diligence in such studies as help to understand them—and abstinence from all pursuits that tend to a worldly and carnal spirit, so fatal to a true knowledge of "God in Christ."

"Search the Scriptures." John v. 39. Get a thorough knowledge of the language of Scripture, of the facts of Scripture, of the deep meaning of Scripture; comparing Scripture with Scripture, and Scripture with the history of its application by "the Church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth;" always keeping minor points in strict subordination to great leading truths.* This will require a life of patient labour at the feet of the Divine Teacher. "Declare unto us this parable:"—Mat. xiii. 36—"Then opened he their understandings, that they might understand the Scriptures,"—xxiv. 45. "If any man lack wisdom, let him ask of God, and it shall be given him." James i. 5. "We will give ourselves continually unto prayer." Acts vi. 4. "It was the saying of a learned man," says Dr. Lightfoot, "that he got more knowledge by his prayers than by all his studies."

"The things which thou hast heard of me, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. 2 Tim. ii. 2. "Give attendance to reading." 1 Tim. iv. 13. "Not to read," says

* These are beautifully summed up, and authoritatively set forth in the Creeds and Catechism of the Church.

Quesnel, "is to tempt God. To do nothing but read, is to forget the ministry. To read in order to appear more learned, is a sinful vanity. But to read in order to exhort and instruct with wholesome doctrine, this is according to God's will and word."

"These things understood not his disciples at the first; but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him." John xii. 16. By this text I am taught to be patient in the study of Holy Writ; above all, not to attempt to pry into the secrets of unfulfilled prophecy.

"Ask now of the days that are past." Deut. iv. 32. "Ask for the old paths." Jer. vi. 16. The safest human guides in searching the Scriptures are the Apostolic Fathers and General Councils of the Church. These governed the English Reformers in translating the Bible, compiling the Liturgy, and purifying and guarding the faith, worship and practice of their branch of the Catholic Church; and they should govern us in our study of Holy Writ. "To understand the Holy Scriptures aright," says Bishop Wilson, "is to understand them as the primitive Church did." "May I never prefer my private sentiments before those of the Church in the purely ancient times of Christianity!"—BP. WILSON.

"If any man will do"—that is rightly disposed to do—"His will, he shall know of the doctrine whether it be of God." John vii. 17. "Light and truth discover themselves to such as desire to follow them."—BP. WILSON. "The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him and put their trust in his mercy." Ps. xxv. 14. "All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies." Ps. xxv. 10. Hence obedience is the key to knowledge—"I have more understanding than my teachers, because I keep thy commandments." Ps. cxix. 19. "There is light arising from a sincere good life, which dispelleth all darkness, and is the best defence against error and sophistry."—BP. WILSON. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." Matt. v. 8. The veil of impure thoughts and desires must be removed from the heart, before the full disclosures of God's will can be made to the mind. "Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye." Matt. vii. 5. "That is, purify your own heart from all worldly aims; mortify your own passions which are the cause of your blindness; study that Word which alone can enlighten you; and lay aside all prejudices which are contrary to piety."—BP. WILSON. "If thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. Take heed that the light that is in thee be not darkness." Luke xi. 34, 35. "I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and Earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes." Matt. xi. 25. I here learn that humility and tractableness of spirit are a far better preparation for a successful study of God's word, than the largest attainments in mere worldly wisdom; while this spirit and these attainments may exist together, and by their union constitute, so far as man is concerned, the highest security against error. "I have oftentimes," says BP. BULL, "not without wonder and indignation, observed the strange confidence of empirics in physic, that dare venture on the practice of that noble art, which they do not at all understand; considering how for a little paltry gain, they shrewdly hazard, or rather certainly destroy, the health and lives of men: and I have judged them worthy of as capital and ignominious a punishment, as those that kill men on the highways. But I have soon exchanged this meditation into another of more concernment to myself; and my indignation hath quickly turned into my own bosom, when I consider how much bolder and more hazardous an attempt it is for a man to venture on the priestly office, to minister to the eternal health and salvation of souls; how much skill is requisite to qualify a man for such an undertaking; how great care in the discharge of it; what a sad thing it would be, if, through my unskilfulness or negligence, any one soul should miscarry under my hands, or die and perish eternally."

O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life; have mercy upon me, and increase my faith.

O God, the Son, who art, Thyself, the Way, the Truth, and the Life; have mercy upon me, and increase my faith.

O God, the Holy Ghost, who hast revealed to us, sinners, Christ, the Way, the Truth, and the Life; have mercy upon me, and increase my faith.

O Holy, blessed and glorious Trinity, to whom we come through Christ, the Way, the Truth, and the Life; have mercy upon me, and increase my faith.

O Christ, hear me;

Lord have mercy upon me;

Christ have mercy upon me;

Our Father, which art in Heaven, &c.

O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me.

The law of the Lord is an undefiled law, converting the soul;

The testimony of the Lord is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple;

The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart;

The commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes;

The fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth for ever;

The judgments of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold—sweeter also than honey and the honey-comb.

Moreover by them is thy servant taught, and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will toward men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty: from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost: the Holy Catholic Church; the Communion of Saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me.

Lord, hear my prayer, and let my crying come unto thee.

O God, who didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit, take not the same Spirit away from me; but grant me by his blessed influence to have a right judgment in all things; that I may both perceive and know what I ought to do, and also have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life, grant me, thine unworthy servant, so perfectly to know thy Son Jesus Christ, to be the Way, the Truth, and the Life, that being established in the belief of his Gospel, and constrained by the power of his love, I may neither waver in my confidence, nor relax in my fidelity; but may, in simplicity and godly sincerity, instruct the people committed to my trust, in truth and righteousness, according to thy most holy word, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me.

Blessed Lord who hast caused all holy Scripture to be written for our learning; grant that I may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them; that by patience and comfort of thy holy word, I may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in thy Son our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, and the author of all godliness, be gracious unto thy servant, led to the throne of thy mercy by the light of thy revealed love, and so increase in me a sense of the folly of human wisdom, that my heart being filled with thankfulness for thy glorious word, I may adore and praise thee with joyful lips. O thou, who didst, at first pity our ignorance and misery, still have compassion upon the blindness and dulness of thy servant; touch my heart with a spark of thine own love for the truth; enlighten my understanding with a ray of thine own brightness; chase from my mind every cloud of error and sin; and purify my soul from all pride and self-conceit—shielding me against every carnal bias and worldly distraction—and inspiring me with holy thoughts and clean imaginations—with ardent desires for a deeper knowledge of thy word—and a nearer contemplation and enjoyment of thyself, through our only Mediator and Advocate, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me.

O Thou, Brightness of the Father's glory, who didst come thyself from heaven to dispense to the perishing, the gifts of grace and truth—the purchase of thine own death—and hast sent me, thine unworthy servant, to minister the same; grant me an awful sense of my trust, and an unwearied patience and zeal in studying to show myself approved unto thee “a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth;” through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.

O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me.

O thou eternal Spirit of the Father and the Son, who hast come unto thy Church to enlighten our darkness, help our infirmities, and comfort our distresses, open my eyes that I may see the wonders of thy revelations—increase in my heart the spirit of humility, of faith and supplication, that I may receive them with due reverence and submission, and study them in dependence upon thy heavenly guidance—ever distrustful of my own understanding, and ever thankful for the “witness” and guardianship of thy holy, Apostolic Church. And grant, O blessed Spirit, that learning from thee what I am to speak concerning thee, I may go forth in thy light and strength, to instruct the ignorant, awaken the guilty, comfort the sorrowful, and increase the graces of all such as love and fear thee; that thus fulfilling my course and keeping the faith, I may in the end, be acceptable in thy sight, who art with the Father and the Son, one God, world without end. Amen.

WEDNESDAY.

HAVING thus been entrusted with the Spirit, the authority, and the word of God, the Christian minister is directed to his duty in dispensing the same:

WILL YOU THEN GIVE YOUR FAITHFUL DILIGENCE ALWAYS SO TO MINISTER THE DOCTRINES AND SACRAMENTS AND DISCIPLINE OF CHRIST AS THE LORD HATH COMMANDED, AND AS THIS CHURCH HATH RECEIVED THE SAME, ACCORDING TO THE COMMANDMENTS OF GOD; SO THAT YOU MAY TEACH THE PEOPLE COMMITTED TO YOUR CARE AND CHARGE WITH ALL DILIGENCE TO KEEP AND OBSERVE THE SAME? Ans. I WILL SO DO BY THE HELP OF GOD.

WILL YOU BE READY WITH ALL FAITHFUL DILIGENCE, TO BANISH AND DRIVE AWAY ALL ERRONEOUS AND STRANGE DOCTRINES CONTRARY TO GOD'S WORD; AND TO USE BOTH PUBLIC AND PRIVATE MONITIONS AND EXHORTATIONS, AS WELL TO THE SICK AS TO THE WHOLE WITHIN YOUR CURES, AS NEED SHALL REQUIRE AND OCCASION SHALL BE GIVEN? Ans. I WILL, THE LORD BEING MY HELPER.

Hence my first duty is diligence and fidelity in my ministry.

"Neglect not the gift that is in thee." 1 Tim. iv. 14. "Stir up the gift that is in thee." 2 Tim. i. 6. "Meditate upon these things, give thyself wholly to them." 1 Tim. iv. 15. "Preach the word; be instant in season and out of season." 2 Tim. iv. 2. "Watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist; make full proof of thy ministry." 2 Tim. iv. 5. "It is required in stewards that a man be found faithful." 1 Cor. iv. 2. "As every man, then, hath received the gift, even so let him minister the same, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God." 1 Pet. iv. 10. Alas! what motives to diligence, and zeal, and endurance in the work of the Lord! Who can consult his ease; aye, who can give sleep to his eyes and slumber his eyelids, while a steward of the manifold gifts of God!

My Saviour is here my bright and animating exemplar. "Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people." Luke vi. 39. "For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost." Matt. xviii. 11. "I am the good Shepherd; the good shepherd, giveth his life for the sheep." John x. 11. "I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you." John xiii. 15. "The good shepherd in following his master, giveth his life, by giving his labours, in taking all occasions of instructing his flock, in employing his thoughts for their good; in praying for them continually, and rendering God propitious towards them: in sacrificing his ease and peace for them, by delivering truths which the world will not receive without unkind returns; in giving up the dearest friendships, when they come in competition with truth and righteousness; in sacrificing his inclinations, though never so innocent, rather than offend any; in submitting to the humility and honesty of the Gospel, that he may give no example of pride and luxury to his flock. It is thus he is the light of the world; thus he fulfils his ministry, and thus gives his life for the sheep."—Altered from BP. WILSON. "Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Jesus Christ; who was faithful to Him that appointed Him." Heb. iii. 1, 2.

The example of St. Paul too, following Christ, demands my imitation, while his exhortations should awaken my utmost zeal. He called for the elders of Ephesus, and "said unto them; Ye know from the first day I came into Asia after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears and temptations which befel me by the lying in wait of the Jews: and how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have showed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance towards God, and faith towards our Lord Jesus Christ. Bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me; neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the Gospel of the grace of God. Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years, I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears. I have showed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said it is more blessed to give than to receive." Acts xx. 17. 31. 35. "Howbeit, whereinsoever any is bold, I am bold also; are they ministers of Christ? I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches." 2 Cor. xi. 21. 28. "Wherefore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory." 2 Tim. ii. 10. "We then as workers together with Him, beseech you also, that ye receive not the grace of God in vain." 2 Cor. vi. 1. "Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample." Phil. iii. 17.

"We minister to souls! immortal, precious souls!—One of which is more worth than all the world besides; the price of the blood of the Son of God! 'Should any one take any hurt or hindrance by reason of our negligence, we know the greatness of the fault, and also the horrible punishment that will ensue.' 'Woe be to the idle shepherd that leaveth the flock.' Zech. xi. 17. 'Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture; saith the Lord. Therefore thus saith the Lord God of Israel, against the pastors that feed my people, Ye have scattered my flocks and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the Lord.' Jer. xxiii. 1, 2. 'But we are engaged in this office, and there is no retreating. We must now run the hazard, however great it be; in we are and on we must. What shall we then say? What shall we do? Surely this is our best, yea, our only course. Let us first prostrate ourselves at the feet of the Almighty God, humbly confessing and heartily bewailing our great and manifold miscarriages in this weighty undertaking. Let us weep tears of blood (if it were possible) for the blood of souls which we have reason to fear may stick upon our garments. Having laid ourselves at God's feet, let us not lie idly there, but arise, and for the future do the work of God with all faithfulness and industry; yea, let us make amends for our past negligence, by doubling our future diligence.'—BP. BULL.

But my vows oblige me to fashion my efforts according to the doctrines, sacraments, and discipline of Christ, as our branch of the Holy Catholic Church hath received the same; to the end that the people entrusted to my care may be built up in the faith, the order, and the holiness of the Gospel in the Church; and that all gainsayers may be silenced, and all strange doctrine be driven away; with all vice and irreligion. "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needest not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of TRUTH." 2 Tim. ii. 15. "Speak the things which become sound doctrine." Tit. ii. 1. "Take heed unto thy doctrine." 1 Tim. iv. 16. "Prophecy according to the proportion of faith." Rom. xii. 6. "Holding fast the faithful word as thou hast been taught." Tit. i. 9.

"And Jesus came and spake unto them (the twelve) saying, all power is given unto ME in heaven and earth; go ye therefore, disciple all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you." Matt. xxviii. 18. What our Lord commanded is to be known from what he said, and from what his Apostles taught and did as recorded in his Gospel.

He said, "Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." Luke xiii. 3. "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him." John iii. 36. "He that believeth and is baptised shall be saved." Mark xvi. 16. "Verily I say unto you, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God." John iii. 5. "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God." Mark x. 14. "Except ye be converted and become as little children, ye cannot enter into the kingdom of heaven." Matt. xviii. 3. "I am the vine, ye are the branches; the branch cannot bear fruit of itself except it abide in the vine." John xv. 5.

Jesus took bread and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, take, eat, this is my body; and he took the cup and gave thanks and gave it to them, saying: drink ye all of it, for this is my blood of the New Testament which is shed for many for the remission of sins." Matt. xxvi. 26-28. "This do in remembrance of me." Luke xxii. 19. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you." John vi. 53.

"Then said Jesus unto them, "Peace be unto you; as my Father sent ME, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them Receive ye the Holy Ghost; Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained." John xx. 21. "Tell it unto the Church; if he neglect to hear the Church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican. Verily I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven." Matt. xviii. 17, 18.

The apostolic Acts and Epistles show how the Church received and understood this doctrine, and these sacraments and discipline of Christ.

"Men and brethren," exclaimed the first converts after the descent of the Holy Ghost, "what shall we do? Peter said unto them, repent and be baptised every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins." Acts ii. 37, 38. Annanias said, "Brother Saul, arise and be baptised and wash away thy sins." Acts xxii. 13. "Then they that gladly received his word were baptised, and they continued steadfastly in the Apostles' doctrine and fellowship and in breaking of bread and in prayers." Acts ii. 41, 42. And "as many as were baptised into Christ, put on Christ;" Gal. iii. 27. "Were buried with him by baptism into death: That like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life." Rom. vi. 4.

Being baptised in the name of Christ for the remission of sins, they received the gift of the Holy Ghost. "When they (of Samaria) believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, they were baptised, both men and women. And Peter and John, when they had come down, laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost." Acts viii. 12. 15. 17. "When they (the disciples at Ephesus) had heard this, (St. Paul's preaching,) they were baptised. And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them." Acts xix. 5, 6. "The foundation (of Christian knowledge and life) is repentance from dead works, and faith towards God; the doctrine of baptism and the laying on of hands." Heb. vi. 1, 2.

"The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? For we, being many, are one bread and one body; For we are all partakers of that one bread." 1 Cor. x. 16, 17. "For I received of the Lord that which I also delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread, &c.; For as often as ye eat this bread and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come." 1 Cor. xi. 23-26.

"Take heed, therefore, to all the flock, over which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the Church of God which he hath purchased with his own blood." Acts xx. 28. "Jesus saith unto Simon Peter, Feed my sheep; Feed my lambs." John xxi.

Having vowed with all fidelity so to minister the doctrines, sacraments and discipline of Christ, as that branch of the Catholic Church to which I belong hath received the same, it becomes me to make myself thoroughly acquainted with the Creeds, with the offices for the administration of Baptism, Confirmation, and the holy Communion, with the Catechism, and the Articles contained in the Liturgy of that Church; and to take heed that they are inculcated, in their plain and natural sense, upon the people; unattended with remarks or omissions calculated to pervert their meaning or weaken their force:—Especially am I bound constantly and faithfully to instruct the children and young persons of my parish, in the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, the Ten Commandments, and the doctrine of the Sacraments, as they are set forth and explained in the Church Catechism. And also to "take care that the young may, by understanding their vows of baptism, the principles of the Christian religion, the excellency, necessity and advantages of it, and of living according to it, be fitted and disposed to be presented to the Bishop at his visitation, that he may, in the holy and apostolic rite of confirmation, invoke upon them the gifts of the Holy Ghost."—BP. TAYLOR. Besides, I am to "teach my people the use, practice, and methods of mental prayer—to draw out for them helps and rules for their assistance in it, and furnish them materials concerning the life and death of the ever-blessed Jesus, the greatness of God, our own meanness, the dreadful sound of the last trumpet, the infinite event of the two last sentences at doomsday; the issues of eternity—glories never to cease, pains ever to be endured;"—"To exhort them to frequent confessions of their sins," and to the examination of the state of their souls, that they may be prepared for frequent communion. "To urge upon them the observance of the Fast and Feast days of the Church, according to their respective capacities; and that they be very careful that the Lord's day be kept religiously, according to the severest measures of the Church, and the commands of authority; ever remembering, that as they give but little testimony of repentance and mortification, who never fast; so they give but small evidence of their joy in God and religion, who are unwilling solemnly to partake of the public and religious joys of the Christian Church.”—Altered from BP TAYLOR. Moreover, “the mouths of gainsayers must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not.” Tit. i. 11. “Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in faith.” Tit. v. 15. “These things speak and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.” Tit. ii. 15. “And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions. And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear or whether they will forbear.” Ezek. ii. 6, 7. “Thou, therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. Endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.” 2 Tim. ii. 1. 3. “Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.” 2 Tim. ii. 15.

Finally, it is my duty to “be careful in visiting the sick, and afflicted persons of my parish; not waiting to be sent for, but going to them of my own accord, to examine them, to exhort them to perfect their repentance, to strengthen their faith, to encourage their patience, to persuade them to resignation, to the renewing of their holy vows, to the love of God, to be reconciled to their neighbours, to make restitution and amends, to confess their sins, to settle their estates, to provide for their charges, to do acts of piety and charity, and above all things to take care that they do not sin on their death-bed.” Altered from BP. TAYLOR. All which “I will do, the Lord being my helper.”

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, three persons and one God: have mercy upon me and my people, miserable sinners.

Remember not, Lord, our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers; neither take thou vengeance of our sins; spare us, good Lord, spare thy people, whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Spare us, good Lord.

From all evil and mischief; from sin, from the crafts and assaults of the devil; from thy wrath, and from everlasting damnation,

Good Lord deliver us.

From all inordinate and sinful affections; and from all the deceits of the world, the flesh, and the devil,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all sedition, privy conspiracy and rebellion; from all false doctrine, heresy and schism; from hardness of heart and contempt of thy word and commandment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By the mystery of thy holy incarnation; by thy holy nativity and circumcision; by thy baptism, fasting, and temptation,

Good Lord, deliver us.

I, a sinner, do beseech thee to hear us, O Lord God; and that it may please thee to rule and govern thy holy church universal in the right way;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and preserve all Christian rulers and magistrates, giving them grace to execute justice and maintain truth;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to illuminate all bishops, priests, and deacons, (especially thy unworthy servant) with true knowledge and understanding of thy word; and that both by our preaching and living we may set it forth, and show it accordingly;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and keep all thy people;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give us an heart to love and fear thee, and diligently to live after thy commandments;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to strengthen such as do stand, and to comfort and help the weak-hearted, and to raise up those who fall, and finally to beat down Satan under our feet;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to succour, help, and comfort all who are in danger, necessity, and tribulation;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to have mercy upon all men;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

Son of God, I beseech thee to hear us.

O Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

O Christ, hear us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, who art in Heaven, &c.

O God, make speed to save me.

O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

“Great is the Lord and highly to be praised in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill.

The hill of Zion is a fair place and the joy of the whole earth.

God is well known in her palaces as a sure refuge.

We wait for thy loving kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house; they will be always praising thee.

One day in thy courts is better than a thousand:

I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of ungodliness.

For the Lord God is a light and defence; he shall give grace and worship; and no good thing shall he withhold from them that live a godly life.

Let the mount Zion rejoice; and the daughters of Judah be glad because of thy judgments.

Walk about Zion and go round about her and tell the towers thereof;

Mark well her bulwarks; set up her palaces; that ye may tell them that come after.

Blessed be the Lord, my strength, who teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight.

My hope and my fortress; my castle and deliverer; my defender in whom I will trust, who subdueth my people that is under me.

I will pay my vows unto the Lord in the sight of all his people, even in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem.

Behold, now, praise the Lord, all ye servants of the Lord;

Ye that by night stand in the house of the Lord, even in the courts of the house of our God.

Lift up your hands in the sanctuary and praise the Lord.

"The Lord that made heaven and earth, bless thee out of Zion.

For this God is our God, for ever and ever; he will be our guide unto death."

Glory be to the Father, &c.

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds; God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried, and the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father; and he shall come again, with glory, to judge both the quick and the dead; whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord and giver of life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, who spake by the prophets. And I believe one catholic and apostolic Church. I acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins; and I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

O Lord, hear my prayer, and

Let my cry come unto thee.

Almighty and merciful God, of whose only gift it cometh that thy faithful people do unto thee true and laudable service; grant, I beseech thee, that I may so faithfully serve thee in this life, that I fail not finally to attain thy heavenly promises, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O thou Sovereign Pastor, who gavest thy life for the sheep, grant that I may never sacrifice thy flock to my own ease, convenience, profit or pleasure; but may I employ my time, my substance, my care, my labours, my prayers, for their welfare continually, and thus, at least, give my life for the sheep. O thou good Shepherd, I beseech thee for myself and for my flock; seek us, lead, defend, and preserve us to eternal life. Grant me grace to attend the flock of Christ as a servant; look on him as my pattern, study his conduct and spirit, spend and be spent for my flock. Inflamm my heart with an ardent love for thy word, an ardent zeal for thy glory, with a pure and disinterested love for thy Church, and with an earnest desire of establishing thy kingdom in the world. Assist me by thy good Spirit, to apply a proper cure for all the spiritual maladies of my flock; to awaken the secure, to arouse the desponding, to support the feeble-minded, and strengthen all sincere believers in the faith and virtues of the Gospel. Enable me to reprove with prudence and mildness, and like thee, my blessed Master, "bind up the broken-hearted and comfort those that mourn." May I never "cease my labour, my care and diligence until I have done all that lieth in me," both by my public ministrations and private labours, to bring all committed to my charge, to an agreement in the faith and knowledge of God, and to ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ. That finally we may all receive the crown of everlasting glory, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THURSDAY.

THE Church then proceeds to admonish her ministers of the necessity, above all other things, of a pure and wholesome example to the flock of Christ:—

WILL YOU BE DILIGENT TO FRAME AND FASHION YOUR OWN SELVES, AND YOUR FAMILIES, ACCORDING TO THE DOCTRINE OF CHRIST; AND TO MAKE YOURSELVES AND THEM, AS MUCH AS IN YOU LIETH, WHOLESOME EXAMPLES AND PATTERNS TO THE FLOCK OF CHRIST?* Ans. I WILL APPLY MYSELF THERETO, THE LORD BEING MY HELPER.

"Take heed unto thyself." 1 Tim. iv. 16. "Be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity." 1 Tim. iv. 12.

"Purity of soul and body is a most necessary qualification in a minister of Jesus Christ. To offer the prayers of the faithful to God with polluted lips, to break the bread of life with unclean hands, to receive that bread into a soul defiled with unchaste thoughts; how dreadfully provoking to God must it needs be!"—BP. WILSON. "More sinners are converted by holy than by learned men."—Id. "Ye are the light of the world. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven."—JESUS CHRIST. Matt. v. 16. The good works of a minister's family too should be equally conspicuous. Hence St. Paul requires that he should be "One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity." 1 Tim. iii. 4. "Ye are the salt of the earth; but if the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is

* The question answering to this, in the office for consecrating Bishops, is the following:—"Will you deny all ungodliness and worldly lusts, and live soberly, righteously and godly in this present world; that you may show yourself in all things an example of good works unto others, that the adversary may be ashamed, having nothing to say against you?"

thenceforth good for nothing but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men." Matt. v. 13.

"Behold, thou makest thy boast of God, and knowest his will, and approvest the things that are most excellent, being instructed out of the law; and art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness, an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge, and of the truth in the law. Thou, therefore, which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? Thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? Thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?" Rom. ii. 17. "A pastor should never undertake to teach a virtue which he has never practised himself."—BP. WILSON.

"Can the blind lead the blind? Shall they not both fall into the ditch? The disciple is not above his Master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his Master. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Either how canst thou say to thy brother, brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye." Luke vi. 39-42. "As to themselves it is absolutely necessary that the clergy both live holily and set others a pattern; for St. Peter expressly requires, that the pastors be examples to the flock." The Priests and Levites in Nehemiah's time first purified themselves and then the people. Doing, says Chrysostom, is set before teaching, because it is more necessary and useful. Preaching, says St. Cyprian, then only is profitable when our deeds agree with our words. "A good life without preaching, adds Isidore, is better than preaching, without a good life; for that silently profits, this makes a noise but confounds. Eusebius remarks that the cause why the preaching of Origen did so much good, was that it exactly agreed with his manner of life. Gregory observes, "While the preacher's lips teach what should be done, his life shows how to do it." Adding, "they that teach the way of righteousness, while they pursue sinful courses, only foul the pure waters of life with the dirt of their feet; their wicked lives making their doctrine to be despised and abhorred." "It is not sufficient that we be guilty of no vice. This is a small praise for one of our order. We are bound to be patterns of the most diligent practice of virtue. Whoever hath a due sense of this obligation, will conscientiously abstain not only from all evil; but all appearance of it too. Such a one, for instance, far from ever offending against temperance, will be noted for it. Far from being guilty of indecent in his behaviour or discourse, he will keep at a distance from every thing liable to the construction of it. Far from being remarkable for luxury and delicacy in his manner of living or appearing, he will be sure to preserve himself on all occasions as remote from indulgence as he is from austerity."—BISHOP OF CLERMONT. "Many things are lawful in the people, that are scandalous in the clergy; we are tied to more abstinences; to more severities; to more renunciations and self-denials; we may not with that freedom receive secular contentments that others may; we must spend more time in prayers, our alms must be more bountiful, our hands more open, our hearts enlarged; others must relieve the poor, we must take care of them; others must show themselves their brethren, but we must be their fathers; they must pray frequently and fervently, but we must give ‘ourselves up wholly to the word of God and prayer;’ they must watch and pray that they fall not into temptations, but we must watch for ourselves and others too; the people must mourn when they sin, but we must mourn for our own infirmities and the sins of others; and indeed if the life of a clergyman does not exceed even the piety of the people, that life is in some degree scandalous.”—BP. JEREMY TAYLOR.

“Then as to their families:—they promise, that so far as in them lieth, these shall live according to the rules of the Gospel, setting a good example to the flock. He that is about to be advanced to a place in God’s house, must attend to the order of his own. “No man,” says Chilo, “was allowed to stand to be elected a magistrate at Athens, till he had learned to govern at home.” Upon which ground we see Eli was rejected by God, and the Priesthood taken out of his family, because (though himself a good man) he did not punish and reform his wicked sons. The ancient Christian Canons are much stricter concerning clergymen’s wives, children and servants than those of the laity. “No man can be admitted Bishop, Priest, or Deacon,” says an old council, “till he have made all his family orthodox Christians.” “The houses of ministers should be the schools of virtue, be the emblems of chastity, and patterns for all their parishioners of peace and good order, sobriety and devotion.”—Altered from DEAN COMBER.

“Now, O ye Priests, this commandment is for you. If ye will not hear, and will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the Lord of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings. And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the Lord of hosts. My covenant was with him of life and peace, and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared Me and was afraid before My name. The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his life; he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn away from iniquity.” Mal. ii. 1-6.

“I keep under my body and bring it into subjection lest, by any means, where I have preached to others I myself should be a cast-away.” 1 Cor. ix. 27. If this were necessary for the holy Paul, how much more for me! “When a man has given himself to the immediate service of God, he is no longer at liberty to follow his own inclinations, whether in respect to study, profit, recreation, or any like thing however innocent in itself.”—BP. WILSON.

“The true parson therefore is exceeding exact in his life; being holy, just, prudent, temperate, bold, grave in all his ways. And because the two highest points of life, wherein a Christian is most seen, are patience and mortification; patience in regard of affliction, mortification in regard of lusts and affections; therefore he hath thoroughly studied these, that he may be an absolute master and commander of himself, for all the purposes which God hath ordained him.”—HERBERT.

God, be merciful to me a sinner!

Almighty and most merciful Father, I have erred and strayed from thy ways like a lost sheep. I have followed too much the devices and desires of my own heart. I have offended against thy holy laws. I have left undone those things which I ought to have done; and I have done those things which I ought not to have done; and there is no health in me. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon me, a miserable offender. Spare thou me, O God, which confess my faults. Restore thou me, that am penitent; according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father for his sake; that I may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy name. Amen.

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ, who desirest not the death of a sinner, but that he may turn from his wickedness and live; and hast promised to pardon them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe thy holy Gospel; of thy mercy, I beseech thee, grant me true repentance, and thy Holy Spirit, that those things may please thee, which I do at this present; and that the rest of my life hereafter may be pure and holy; so that at the last I may come to thine eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Our Father, which art in heaven, &c.

O Lord, open thou my lips,

And my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Come Holy Ghost, Eternal God,
 Proceeding from above,
 Both from the Father and the Son
 The God of peace and love;
 Visit our minds, into our hearts
 Thy heavenly grace inspire;
 That truth and godliness we may Pursue with full desire.
 O, Holy Ghost, into our minds
 Send down thy heavenly light;
 Kindle our hearts with fervent zeal,
 To serve God, day and night.
 Our weakness strengthen and confirm
 For, Lord, thou know'st us frail;
 That neither Devil, World, nor Flesh
 Against us may prevail.
 And grant that thou being, O Lord,
 Our leader and our guide,
 We may escape the snares of sin,
 And never from thee slide.
 Such measures of thy powerful grace
 Grant, Lord to me I pray;
 That thou mayest be my comforter
 At the last dreadful day.

O my soul, praise the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

“Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? Or who shall rise up in his holy place?”

“Even he that hath clean hands and a pure heart; and that hath not lifted up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neighbour.

“He that setteth not by himself, but is lowly in his own eyes, and maketh much of them that fear the Lord.

"He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

"Arise, O Lord, into thy resting-place; thou and the ark of thy strength.

"Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness, and let thy saints sing with joyfulness.

"Make me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.

"Cast me not away from thy presence and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

"O give me the comfort of thy help again, and stablish me with thy free Spirit.

"Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked, and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

"I will wash my hands in innocency, O Lord; and so will I go to thine altar.

"That I may show the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works.

"Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

"Unto thee will I cry, O Lord, my strength; think no scorn of me, lest, if thou make as though thou hearest not, I become like them that go down into the pit.

"Hear the voice of my humble petition when I cry unto thee; when I hold up my hands towards the mercy-seat of thy holy temple.

"Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as the incense; and let the lifting up of my hands be an evening sacrifice.

"Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth, and keep the door of my lips.

"O let not my heart be inclined to any evil thing.

"Try me, O God, and seek the ground of my heart; prove me, and examine my thoughts.

"Look well if there be any way of wickedness in me, and lead me in the way everlasting."

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Our help is in the name of the Lord

Who hath made heaven and earth.

Blessed be the name of the Lord

Henceforth, world without end.

Lord, hear my prayer,

And let my cry come unto thee.

Almighty God, who hast made me a guide to others, suffer me not to go astray myself. Give me grace that I may never follow the inclinations of corrupted nature, nor govern myself according to the maxims of an evil world; but give me the spirit as well as the character of a minister of Jesus Christ. Amen.

O Holy Spirit of grace, sanctify my heart, that no base or impure thought, no mean and covetous affections may lodge there. Govern my tongue that no corrupt communication may proceed out of my mouth; guard my eyes; purify my hands; guide my feet; order my whole life; that by the powerful influence of a good example, as well as by my teaching, I may lead the people committed to my care in the ways of truth and eternal life; and that no irregularity in my conversation may ever render my instructions ineffectual, or the ways of religion to be evil spoken of. Grant this for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

And grant, O God, that my care and conduct in the church of God may appear in the order and piety of my own family. O heavenly Father, bless us and take us under thy gracious protection; make us an household fearing God, and examples to others of order, diligence, faithfulness and piety, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Most merciful Father, I beseech thee to send down upon me, thine unworthy servant thy heavenly blessing; and so endue me with thy holy Spirit, that I, preaching thy word, may not only be earnest to reprove, beseech and rebuke with all patience and doctrine; but also may be to such as believe, a wholesome example in word, in conversation, in love, in faith, in chastity, and in purity; that faithfully fulfilling my course, at the latter day I may receive the crown of righteousness, laid up by the Lord, the righteous Judge for all that truly and godly serve Him, who liveth and reigneth, one God with the Father and the Holy Ghost, world without end. Amen.

FRIDAY.

THE Church then demands—

WILL YOU MAINTAIN AND SET FORWARDS, AS MUCH AS LIETH IN YOU, QUIETNESS, PEACE AND LOVE AMONG ALL CHRISTIAN PEOPLE, AND ESPECIALLY AMONG THEM THAT ARE OR SHALL BE COMMITTED TO YOUR CHARGE? Ans. I WILL DO SO, THE LORD BEING MY HELPER.

“Thou shalt be called the repairer of the breach, and the restorer of paths to dwell in.” Is. lviii. 12.

“And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.” lxi. 4.

“In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.” Jer. iii. 18.

“And they shall be my people, and I will be their God.” xxxii. 38.

“And I will give them one heart, and one way, that that they may fear me forever, for the good of them, and of their children after them.” 39.

“Then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the Lord, and serve him with one consent.” Zeph. iii. 9.

“Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord. And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse." Mal. iv. 5, 6.

"Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand." Matt. xii. 25.

"He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth abroad." 30.

"I am the good Shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

"As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and lay down my life for the sheep.

"And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice: and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd." John x. 14, 15, 16.

"A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

"By this shall ye know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another." xiii. 34, 35.

"I am the true vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing." xv. 5.

"Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

"That they all may be ONE; as thou, Father, art in Me and I in Thee, that they also may be ONE in Us; that the world may know that Thou hast sent Me." xvii. 20, 21.

"And all that believed were together, and had all things common.

"And they continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart,

"Praising God, and having favour with all the people." Acts ii. 44, 46, 47.

"And the next day he showed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren, why do ye wrong one to another?" vii. 26.

"Let us not, therefore, judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block, or an occasion to fall, in his brother's way.

"Let us, therefore, follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another." Rom. xiv. 13, 19.

"For by one Spirit are we all baptised into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free: and have been all made to drink into the same Spirit.

"For the body is not one member, but many." 1 Cor. xii. 13, 14.

"Now, therefore, ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

"And are built upon the foundation of the Prophets and Apostles, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone." Eph. ii. 19, 20.

"There is one body and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

"One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

"One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all." iv. 4, 5, 6.

"Christ also loved the Church, and gave himself for it;

"That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word.

"That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy, and without blemish." v. 25, 26, 27.

"We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

"Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints." Col. i. 3, 4.

"If we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ, his Son, cleanseth us from all sin." 1 John i. 7.

"We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

"My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

"And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before Him." iii. 14, 18, 19.

"Beloved, let us love one another: For love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

"He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for God is love.

"Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

"Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another." iv. 7, 8, 10, 11.

"And I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

"And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God." Rev. xxi. 2, 3.

"And He gave some Apostles, some Prophets, some Evangelists, some Pastors and Teachers, for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ; till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ." Eph. iv. 11-13.

"The servant of the Lord must not strive, but be gentle unto all men; apt to teach, patient in meekness, instructing those that oppose themselves." 2 Tim. ii. 24.

In maintaining, therefore, "quietness, peace, and love" I am not merely to adjust differences and appease quarrels; but to exert myself in the faithful inculcation of those principles that lead to lasting peace—make men to be of "one heart and one mind." Neither am I exhorted to the vain task of uniting truth with error,—of producing harmony in religious acts, where religious principles are at variance; but I am required to do what I can to bring all people to "an agreement in the faith and knowledge of God and to ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ;" to unite all in the kingdom of peace, that they may be blest with the true spirit of peace.

O God, the Father of heaven; have mercy upon me, a miserable sinner.

O God, the Son, Redeemer of the world; have mercy upon me, a miserable sinner.

O God, the Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son; have mercy upon me, a miserable sinner.

Remember me, O Lord, in mercy; remember thy holy Catholic Church: and from all evils of body and soul;

Good Lord, deliver us.

From lightning and tempest; from plague, pestilence and famine; from battle and murder, and from sudden death;

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all blindness of heart; from pride, vain-glory and hypocrisy; from envy, hatred and malice, and all uncharitableness;

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all careless indifference, vicious compliance, and wilful sin;

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all worldliness of mind; from all fear of man, and all the snares of the devil;

Good Lord, deliver us.

By thine agony and bloody sweat; by thy cross and passion; by thy precious death and burial;

Good Lord, deliver us.

By thy glorious resurrection and ascension; and by the coming of the Holy Ghost;

Good Lord, deliver us.

In all time of our tribulation; in all time of our prosperity; in the hour of death, and in the day of judgment;

Good Lord, deliver us.

I, a sinner, do beseech thee to hear our prayer O Lord God; and that it may please thee to save and defend thy holy Church;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That we may be diligent and faithful in the discharge of the duties of our respective callings;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That we may have grace to endure, with faith and patience, whatever trials thou mayest in thy wise Providence, appoint for us;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That we may rejoice, when we are counted worthy to suffer shame for the name of Christ;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That we may earnestly labour to advance the interests and honour of our Lord, and strive to promote the unity and enlargement of his holy Catholic Church on earth;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That thou wilt restore to thy people the spirit of power and of love, and of a sound mind;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to give to all thy people grace to hear meekly thy word, and to receive it with pure affection, and to bring forth the fruits of the Spirit;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

That it may please thee to bring into the way of truth all such as have erred and are deceived ;

That we may all have grace to bear one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ ;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

O Father of our Lord Jesus Christ ; I beseech thee to hear us ;

I beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

For his sake who loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood ; I beseech thee to hear us.

O Christ hear us ;

Lord have mercy upon us ;

Christ have mercy upon us.

Our Father which art in heaven, &c.

O Lord, make speed to save us.

O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

O Jesus, source of sanctity,
In whom thy servants live,
All glory, for thy saints to thee,
Saviour of man we give.

All glory for thine angel train,
Who heaven's high temple throng ;
All glory for those ancient men
Who sang the prophet's song.

All glory for thy chosen band,
To whom the charge was given,
To publish peace from land to land,
To keep the keys of heaven.

For thy meek priests a godly choir,
For them whose annals boast,
Virgin and youth, and hoary sire
Thy martyr's noble host.

For these, for all thy saints, thy name
We laud, and pray that we,
Strong in thy strength, may follow them
As they have followed thee.

Thy mystic members, do thou fit
To join thy saints above
In one unmixed communion knit,
And fellowship of love.

With them the Father and the Son,
And Holy Ghost to praise,
As in the days of old was done,
And shall through endless days.

"I was glad when they said unto me ; we will go into the house of the Lord.

Our feet shall stand in thy gates : O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is built as a city ; that is at unity in itself.

For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord ; to testify unto Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord.

For there is the seat of judgment ; even the seat of the house of David.

O pray for the peace of Jerusalem ; they shall prosper that love thee.

Peace be within thy walls; and plenteousness within thy palaces.
For my brethren and companion's sakes, I will wish thee prosperity.
Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek to do thee good."

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Turn thee again, O Lord, at the last; and be gracious unto thy servants.

O satisfy us with thy mercy, and that soon;

So shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.

Comfort us again now after the time that thou hast plagued us;

And for the years wherein we have suffered adversity.

Show thy servants thy work:

And their children thy glory.

And the glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us:

Prosper thou the work of our hands upon us: O prosper thou our handywork.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds; God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried, and the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father; and he shall come again, with glory, to judge both the quick and the dead; whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord and giver of life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, who spake by the prophets. And I believe one catholic and apostolic Church. I acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins; and I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

O Lord, show thy mercy upon us;

And grant us thy salvation.

O Lord save thy humble servant; and mercifully hear me when I call upon thee.

Endue thy ministers with righteousness;

And make thy chosen people joyful.

O Lord, save thy people;

And bless thine inheritance.

Give peace in our time, O Lord;

Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O Lord;

O God, make clean my heart within me;

And take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

Almighty God, I beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the cross; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Grant, O Lord, I beseech thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Saviour, the Prince of peace; give me grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions; and earnestly to strive to maintain and set forward, quietness, peace and love, among all Christian people, and especially among them whom thou hast committed to my charge. Take away all hatred, prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly union and concord: that as there is but one body, and one Spirit, and one hope of our calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of us all, so we may henceforth be all of one heart, and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Almighty God, who hast built thy Church upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone; grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their doctrine, that we may be made an holy temple, acceptable unto Thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Almighty God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord; grant us grace so to follow thy blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which thou hast prepared for those who unfeignedly love thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who hast purchased to thyself an universal Church by the precious blood of thy dear Son, by whose Spirit it is sanctified and united into one body, of which he is the glorious Head: I beseech thee to look down with an eye of pity upon the same,—in this its state of division and deep humiliation. Quiet its disorders and heal its schisms. Restore it every where to its primitive truth of doctrine, purity of worship, strictness of discipline, and fervency of zeal. Make all bodies of Christians pure and sound Churches, in professing the ancient Catholic and Apostolic faith, in embracing the ancient Catholic and Apostolic government, in practising the ancient Catholic and Apostolic worship, and in maintaining perfect charity in the bond of peace, and holding universal communion one with another, to the honour of thy great name and mutual support of each other, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

To this end, O gracious Father, I humbly beseech thee, to pour forth the spirit of humility and zeal upon all the clergy and people of the Christian world, that they may all agree together as one man to reform whatever is amiss, to supply whatever is wanting, in all churches wheresoever dispersed throughout the whole earth. In particular, I beseech thee, to clothe thy priests with righteousness and holiness of life in all places; and more especially to inspire the Bishops of thy Church with Apostolic zeal for thy glory, in maintaining that doctrine, government, worship, and discipline, entire, pure, and unblemished, which thou hast committed to their trust. Give them grace to consider from whom they are sent, and whose successors they are; and endue them with the Apostolic spirit of courage, and boldness, that they may bear thy name and their testimony before all powers and people of the earth; and that they may do it with such a holy and heavenly, suffering frame of mind, as to be ready not only to be bound, but to die for the Lord Jesus, for the doctrines which he hath revealed, for the institutions which he hath appointed, and for the privileges and blessings which he hath left to his church. Then, shall thy people praise thee, O Lord; then shall all kings and rulers fall down before thee, and all people shall do thee service! Then shall thy way be known upon earth and thy saving health among all nations! And therefore I beseech thee to receive these my humble prayers and intercessions, which in faith and charity I present unto thee, through his merits alone, who is the Head of the Catholic Church, and the High Priest of our profession, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The following prayers should be added, at least, on the first Friday in every month.

O gracious Father, who wouldst have all the world to be converted, and come to the saving knowledge of the truth, I beseech thee to have mercy upon all Jews, Turks, and other infidels, and to fetch them home to thy flock, the holy Catholic Church. To that great end, I earnestly pray thee to remove all scandals and offences which Christians have given in many places; the scandal of images in divine worship; the scandal of worldly pomp among ecclesiastical dignitaries; the scandal of rebellion among Christian subjects; the scandal of unjust and cruel wars among Christian states and princes; the scandal of schisms and heresies, and want of charity among Christian Churches; together with the scandal of profanity, blasphemy, and oppression, and of all other immoralities and disorders; that so primitive truth of doctrine, and primitive purity of worship; with holiness of life in humility, chastity, justice and charity, and all the fruits of the Spirit, as self-denial, submission, contentment and peace, flourishing every where throughout the Christian world, all infidels may be brought to confess the faith of Christ crucified, and with us become children of the promises and heirs of the kingdom of heaven, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Furthermore, O Lord, who art just in all thy ways and righteous in all thy judgments, I present unto thee my earnest supplications for those countries where thy name was once magnified and thy blessed kingdom flourished in truth and righteousness. O thou lover of souls, for thy mercy's sake, remember Asia, Africa, and Greece, once blessed with thy Gospel, and valiant for the truth; and restore to them the bright beams of thy light. Lord, where are thy former loving-kindnesses? Shall thy jealousy always burn like fire? Wilt thou be no more entreated? Hast thou forgotten to be gracious, and cast them off for ever? Call to remembrance, O Lord, thy tender mercies and loving-kindnesses which have been ever of old. Look upon the purchase of thy Son's blood; remember the labours of apostles, the sufferings of martyrs, the holiness of saints once the glory of these lands, and betroth them to thyself again in righteousness, faithfulness, and truth. Then shall thy Zion rejoice, O Lord; then shall every creature in heaven and earth praise thee, and give honour, and blessing, and glory, and power, unto thee who sitteth upon the throne and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

Finally, O Lord, thou God that hearest prayer, let my humble supplications and intercessions come before thee, for those parts of the world where the light of thy Gospel has not yet shined. Hasten, I entreat thee, to accomplish, in its full extent, the promise which thou didst make to thy Son, to give him the heathen for his inheritance, and the utmost parts of the earth for his possession. Let the barren and barbarous nations rejoice, let the day-spring from on high visit them, and the light of the Gentiles enlighten them, who still sit in darkness and in the regions of the shadow of death. To that end I pray thee to inspire all Bishops and Priests with a truly apostolic zeal, to propagate thy Gospel and all the saving truths of it in all distant countries where it has not yet been heard. O prosper their labours, and send forth more labourers into the vineyard. Thou, O Lord, who hast set all the borders of the earth, visit them with thy salvation. Thou who hast created the north and the south, say to the one give up, and to the other, keep not back; but daily bring thy sons from far, and thy daughters from the ends of the earth; O gather thy people from the east and the west into thy kingdom. Let the heathen praise thee, O God; yea, let all the heathen praise thee. Look down upon them all with the eyes of thy favour; O make them to hear thy voice, that they may no longer be aliens from the Commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the Covenant of promise, but may become, with us, one fold under one Shepherd, the gracious Bishop of our souls, who art with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

SATURDAY.

FINALLY, the Church exacts of her Ministers a promise of due subordination.

WILL YOU REVERENTLY OBEY YOUR BISHOP, AND OTHER CHIEF MINISTERS, WHO, ACCORDING TO THE CANONS OF THE CHURCH, MAY HAVE THE CHARGE AND GOVERNMENT OVER YOU; FOLLOWING WITH A GLAD MIND AND WILL, THEIR GODLY ADMONITIONS, AND SUBMITTING YOURSELVES TO THEIR GODLY JUDGMENTS? Ans. I WILL SO DO, THE LORD BEING MY HELPER.

How essential is a strict regard of this vow, to the order and peace of the Church; and yet, from the natural pride and restlessness of my heart, how difficult rightly to perform it!

From Miletus St. Paul sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the Church, and charged them, saying, "Take heed unto yourselves, and to all the flock over which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the Church of God which he hath purchased with his own blood." Acts xx. 17—Thus showing his authority to govern the inferior clergy. Also, in commissioning the young Bishops of Ephesus and Crete, he charged them, "before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge both the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom—reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all long-suffering and doctrine." "Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers—to be no brawlers, but gentle, showing all meekness to all men. These things speak, and exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee"—2 Tim. iv. 1, 2; Tit. ii. 15; iii. 1;—teaching by this language that to Bishops is committed the power to exercise a godly discipline in the Church.

"The elders I exhort; feed the flock of God which is among you; taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. Likewise ye younger (or inferiors) submit yourselves unto the elders. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility." 1 Pet. v. 1-5. May I ever keep in mind, that HUMILITY, PERSONAL HUMILITY, is the only grace which can secure due subordination among the different orders and degrees of men in the Church of God. And to incite me in the attainment of this humility, may I remember that St. Peter's description of false prophets is, that "they are presumptuous, self-willed, not afraid to speak evil of dignities." 2 Pet. ii. 10. And that St. Paul's admonition is—"Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which ye have received of us." 2 Thess. iii. 6. "For I say through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office, so we being many are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Having, then, gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, let us wait on our ministry; or he that teacheth, on teaching; or he that exhorteth, on exhortation; he that ruleth, let him do it with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another." Rom. xii. 3-10. "Now, there are many members, but one body. And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee; nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. But God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: that there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another. And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it. Now we are the body of Christ, and members in particular; for God hath set some (or constituted them as chief officers) in the Church; first, Apostles; secondarily, Prophets; thirdly, Teachers." 2 Cor. xii. 12. "Forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the Church. Let all things be done decently and in order, for God is not the author of confusion, but of peace." 1 Cor. xiv. 12. 33. 40. "Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves." Heb. xiii. "Be not high-minded, but fear."

God, give me grace rightly to heed this admonition!

"He that confesseth and forsaketh his sins shall find mercy."

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, maker of all things, Judge of all men, I acknowledge and bewail my manifold sins and wickedness which I from time to time most grievously have committed by thought, word and deed, against thy divine majesty; provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against me. I do earnestly repent, and am heartily sorry for these my misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto me; the burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon me, have mercy upon me, most merciful Father: for thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive me all that is past: and grant, that I may ever hereafter serve and please thee in newness of life, to the honour and glory of thy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him, have mercy, I beseech thee, upon me; pardon and deliver me from all my sins, confirm and strengthen me with all goodness, and bring me to everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

Our Father which art in heaven, &c.

O Lord, open thou my lips: and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

"The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

"O come hither and behold the works of God, what destruction he hath wrought upon the earth.

"He maketh wars to cease in all the world: he breaketh the bow, and snappeth the spear in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.

"Be still, then, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the heathen: I will be exalted in the earth.

"The Lord of hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our refuge.

"O clap your hands together, all ye people; O sing unto God with the voice of melody.

"For the Lord is high, and to be feared; he is the great King upon all the earth.

"He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.

"He shall choose out an heritage for us, even the worship of Jacob whom he loved.

"God is gone up with a merry noise, and the Lord with the sound of the trump.

* A Priest may use this authoritatively as in public, embracing himself with all true penitents throughout the Catholic Church, as the objects of absolution.

"O sing praises, sing praises unto our God. O sing praises, sing praises unto our King:

"For God is the king of all the earth; sing ye praises with understanding.

"God standeth in the congregation; he is judge among princes.

"For the Lord hath chosen Zion to be an habitation for himself; he hath longed for her. This shall be my rest for ever; here will I dwell for I have a delight therein.

"I will bless her victuals with increase, and will satisfy her poor with bread.

"I will deck her priests with righteousness, and saints shall rejoice and sing.

"There shall I make the horn of David to flourish: I have ordained a lantern for mine anointed.

"As for his enemies I shall clothe them with shame: but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

"Lord, I am not high-minded; I have no proud looks.

"I do not exercise myself in great matters which are too high for me.

"But I refrain my soul, and keep it low, like as a child that is weaned from its mother: yea, my soul is even as a weaned child.

"O Israel, trust in the Lord, from this time forth for evermore."

Glory be to the Father, &c.

[Here repeat the Apostles' Creed.]

O Lord hear my prayer; and

Let my cry come unto thee.

Almighty and everlasting God, who of thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ, to take upon him our flesh and to suffer death upon the cross, that all mankind should follow the example of his great humility; mercifully grant that I may both follow the example of his patience, and also be made a partaker of his resurrection, through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For a Deacon:

Almighty God, who by thy Divine Providence hast appointed divers orders of ministers in thy Church, and didst inspire thine Apostles to choose into the order of Deacons the first martyr, St. Stephen, with others; mercifully behold all thy servants called to the like office and administration, especially me thy unworthy minister: replenish us with the truth of thy doctrine, and adorn us with innocency of life, that, both by word and good example we may faithfully serve thee in this office, to the glory of thy name and the edification of thy Church. Make us, I beseech thee, O Lord, to be modest, humble, and constant in our ministration, to have a ready mind to observe all spiritual discipline; that we, having always the testimony of a good conscience, and continuing ever stable and strong in thy Son, Christ, may so behave ourselves in this inferior office that we may be found worthy to be called to the higher ministries in thy Church: through the merits of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

O gracious Lord, look down in mercy upon thy Church, which thou hast purchased with thy most precious blood. Save it from heresy and schism. Provide it with faithful labourers, such as shall have a true compassion for the souls committed to their care, and a knowledge and zeal answerable to the account they are to give. Govern, especially, the minds of thy servants, the Bishops of thy Church, that they may be "faithful in ordaining others," and never through fear, favour, interest, or negligence, promote any person to the sacred charge of Christ's flock. May they be so merciful as not to be too remiss, and so minister discipline that they "forget not mercy." And may all presbyters and deacons be mindful of their solemn vows, "reverently to obey those who have the charge and government over them!" that so order, unity and peace reigning in thy church, it may finally become a joy and praise throughout the earth. Direct all those who are designed to serve at thy altar; bless them in their persons, their studies, their intentions. Almighty God, sanctify the persons and labours of the ministers of thy church, that they may be respected by their people, and for thy authority in turn be heard and obeyed. Thus faithfully fulfilling our course, when the chief Shepherd shall appear, may we all receive the never-fading crown of glory, and be admitted into everlasting joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who, with thee and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth, one God, world without end. Amen.

Clergy for their Bishop.

Almighty God, giver of all good things, who by thy holy Spirit hast appointed divers orders in thy church, and promised to be with the ministers of Apostolic succession to the end of the world, mercifully behold thy servant, the Bishop of this diocese:—Visit him, I humbly beseech thee, with thy love and favour; preserve [or confirm] his bodily health, and endue his soul with the graces of thy Holy Spirit; that he may patiently endure the trials and faithfully perform the duties of his sacred office; long remaining both in word and conversation a blessing to the people over whom thou hast placed him; and finally when his earthly labours are accomplished, may he be acceptable in thy sight and have his perfect consummation and bliss with us in thy eternal kingdom, through thy merits, O blessed Jesus, thou gracious Bishop and Shepherd of our souls, who art with the Father and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

A Prayer before engaging in Study.

O God, the fountain of all wisdom, enlighten my mind, that I may see, and be able to teach others, the wonders of thy law. Grant that I may read thy word with a spirit crucified to the world, to all vain curiosity, to all interest, pride, and prejudice. Direct and bless all my studies and all my labours. Give me a discerning spirit, a sound judgment, and an honest and religious heart, that in all my studies, my first aim may be, to set forth thy glory, by setting forward the salvation of all men. And if, by my ministry, thy kingdom shall be enlarged, let me, in all humility, ascribe the success, not unto myself, but unto thy good Spirit, which enables us both to will and to do what is acceptable to thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Before composing Sermons.

O Almighty God, who hast called me, thy unworthy servant, to the glorious ministry of thy everlasting Gospel; enlighten me by thy heavenly grace, that I may discern the wonderful truths of thy word, may understand the things belonging to the kingdom of God, and may proclaim them with clearness, with faithfulness, tenderness, and zeal. O thou great Shepherd and Bishop of souls, without whose grace I can do nothing, enable me to speak to the capacities and to the hearts of thy flock. Let me learn and be able, from the sense of my own corruption and frailties, to pity such as are ignorant or insensible of their guilt and danger; to warn such as are careless; and to comfort and direct such as are weary with the burden of their sins, and lead them to thee, their Redeemer. Grant this, for thy own merit's sake, O blessed Saviour. Amen.

APPENDIX.

A

The Psalm and Lesson of the Burial Service are inserted here for the convenience of such of the Clergy as desire to read them at the house before the funeral moves to the grave, when the body is not to be carried into the church.

PSALM.

LORD, let me know my end, and the number of my days; that I may be certified how long I have to live.

Behold, thou hast made my days as it were a span long; and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee; and verily every man living is altogether vanity.

For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain; he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

And now, Lord, what is my hope? Truly my hope is even in thee.

Deliver me from all mine offences; and make me not a rebuke unto the foolish.

When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth fretting a garment: every man therefore is but vanity.

Hear my prayer, O Lord; and with thine ears consider my calling: hold not thy peace at my tears.

For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner; as all my fathers were.

O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength; before I go hence, and be no more seen.

Lord, thou hast been our refuge, from one generation to another.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made, thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.

Thou turnest man to destruction; again thou sayest, Come again ye children of men.

For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday; seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

As soon as thou scatterest them, they are even as a sleep; and fade away suddenly like the grass.

In the morning it is green, and groweth up; but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.

For we consume away in thy displeasure; and are afraid at thy wrathful indignation.

Thou hast set our misdeeds before thee; and our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

For when thou art angry, all our days are gone: We bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

The days of our age are threescore years and ten; and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years, yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow; so soon it passeth away and we are gone.

So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

LESSON.—1 Cor. xv. 20.

Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the first fruits; afterward they that are Christ's, at his coming. Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority, and power. For he must reign till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death: for he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him. And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. Else what shall they do which are baptised for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? Why are they then baptised for the dead? And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? I protest by your rejoicing, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me if the dead rise not? Let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die. Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. Awake to righteousness, and sin not: for some have not the knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame. But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened except it die. And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain; it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain. But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him; and to every seed his own body. All flesh is not the same flesh; but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption. It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul, the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. Howbeit, that was not first which is spiritual, out that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven. As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly. Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I show you a mystery: we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast; unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord; forasmuch as ye know that, your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

SELECTIONS FROM HOLY SCRIPTURE:

To be read by the Pastor with the sick, afflicted, &c., and to be pointed out by him for their private perusal: taken from Thompson's Pastoralia.

The following portions of Scripture may be advantageously read to, or by the sick; with suitable observations and explanations by the Minister.

The Book of Job. Eccles. xi.; xii. Isa. xxvi.; xxxv.; xxxviii.; xlii.; xliii.; liii. The Book of Lamentations. Hosea vi. Micah vii. Mal. iv. Matt. xxv.; xxvi.; xxvii.; xxviii.* John xiv.; xv.; xvi. Rom. v.; viii. 1 Cor. xv. 2 Cor. i.; iv.; v.; vi.; xii. Phil. iii. 1 Thess. iii.; iv.; v. 2 Thess. i. Heb. xi.; xii.; xiii. James i.; iv.; v. 1 Peter, the whole Epistle. 2 Peter iii. Rev. ii.; iii.; xxi.; xxiii.

The Psalms are to all a valuable treasury of devotion; but to the sick most especially, on account of their ejaculatory character, which admits of their being used in the intervals of pain, or when the body is too

* These three last chapters of St. Matthew narrate the history of our Lord's sufferings; and as it is peculiarly incumbent on the sick to consider Him that endured such contradiction of sinners against Himself, lest they be weary and faint in their minds, the parallel chapters in the other Evangelists may be added. Mark xiv.—xvi. Luke xxii.—xxiv. John xviii.—xxi.

feeble to sustain the fatigue of a more connected prayer. The Psalms most applicable to the devotions of the sick are the following: vi.; xiii.; xxiii.; xxxi.; xxxii.; xxxviii.; xxxix.; xli.; lv.; lvii.; lxxi.; lxxvii.; lxxxviii.; xc.; cii.; cxxx.; cxlii.; cxliii.

Portions of Scripture which may be profitably read to or by the relatives and friends of deceased persons; the Minister adding suitable explanations of their occasion, etc.

2 Sam. xii. Job i.; ii.; xix. Eccles. vii.; xii. Isa. xxv.; xxvi.; lvii.; lxi. Ezek. xxxvii. Dan. xii. Hos. xiii. Matt. xxviii. Mark xvi. Luke xxiv. John xi.; xiv.; xx.; xxi. Rom. v.; vi. 1 Cor. xv. 2 Cor. i.; iv.; v.; vi. Phil. iii. 1 Thess. iv. Heb. xi.; xii. Rev. v.; xiv.; xv.; xix.; xx.; xxi.; xxii.

Portions of Scripture which may be profitably read to or by recovered persons; the Minister adding a suitable comment.

2 Sam. xxiv. Job xlii. Isa. xxxviii. Jonah ii. Zech. viii. Luke xvii. John v. Phil. ii. Heb. vi.; x. 2 Peter ii.

Psalms for the devotions of the recovered, beside those in the above office—xviii.; xxviii.; xxxi.; xxxiii.; xxxiv.; xl.; lxvi.; lxxxi.; cvii.; cxiii.; cxvi.; cxvii.; cxviii.; cxix.; cxxi.; cxxxviii.; cxlv.; cxlvi.; cxlvii.; cxlviii.; cxlix.; cl. Isaiah xii. is also a psalm of this character.
